INVENTED A NEW STYLE AND TECHNIQUE

STYROGRAFF

Chicago, Born and Raised

Self-taught graffiti-based artist

The background features a dark navy blue field with several large, overlapping organic shapes in light blue, bright pink, and orange. In the top-left and bottom-center, there are smaller shapes filled with diagonal hatching in orange and pink respectively.

Che is a self-taught artist. Practicing since the age of 10, he's worked with different mediums – his current focus is a unique art style he invented called Styrograff – he labels it as a new type of graffiti sculpture.
