

Therapist Independent Contractor Position Available

The Art of Living Counseling Center is a practice of skilled clinicians that employ a multidisciplinary approach to the treatment and care of mental health and relationship concerns. We have great respect for an individual's drive to heal, grow and thrive as personal awareness increases and obstacles to growth are addressed and removed. We believe our past has shaped us into the people we are today, however we are to live our lives in the present. It is critical therefore to understand our past experiences so we can live a more informed present and a more intentional future. We employ numerous modalities geared at helping individuals to explore the forces that shaped them, uncover their present style of relating and engage their life and relationships with greater depth and health.

Additionally we believe our work life is better experienced together. So we intentionally engage with one another as a team and create a work environment that is collaborative, supportive and kind. And as a team we work, play and grow together. Currently we are growing our practice and looking to add team members.

We are in search of a skilled professional to join our team. An ideal candidate would have the following:

- Desire to work as independent contractor (1099)
- Therapist with clinical license: LCPC, LCSW, Ph.D, Psy.D.
- NPI number and CAQH profile
- Must be insurance eligible (bonus if already on insurance panels)
- Experience in field for 5+ years
- Eagerness to build and maintain steady practice of 20+ weekly clients
- Experience working with a variety of clients who seek help for depression, anxiety, adjustment disorders, trauma, marital challenges, addictions
- Advance certifications and specialty areas a bonus. eg. CADC, EMDR, Mindfulness, Trauma speciality
- Experience working with individuals, couples and families of all ages
- Desire to create and facilitate groups and/or workshops
- Strong ability to market self
- Excel in written and verbal communication skills
- Desire to consult with and regularly engage with other members of the practice
- Commitment to ongoing personal work and openness to feedback within the practice

In addition to the above, we offer flexible work hours, relaxed environment, case consultation and group clinical supervision (2 staff meetings a month), fully furnished office, mentorship, voice mail, web presence and opportunities to grow and develop in your area of expertise.
