The original directors of the Company, taking office from its date of formation on the 19th January 2010, were the persons named as its subscribers in the Articles of Association, namely Peter Cowie, Alan Hooper and Anita Kerwin-Nye. As provided in the Memorandum of Association, two trustees are to be nominated by the users of the Company's facilities, one nominated by the members of the Company and one each by Crowborough District Council and Wealden District Council. The persons nominated by the users were Sheila Couston and Pauline Lavington (dec'd). The director nominated by the members was Alan Hooper. The director nominated by Wealden District Council was Antony Quin. During the period covered by this report the director nominated by Crowborough Town Council was Clive Wilson. All directors, other than the subscribers as mentioned above, have been appointed as directors by the board of the Company.

All transactions undertaken by the Company are carried out in accordance with the decisions of the Trustees taken at meetings of the Trustees. TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE PERIOD ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2010

Management of risk:

The Trustees take the management of risk very seriously. Advice is taken from external professionals as considered appropriate and also from individual trustees with relevant experience and expertise. In particular, a detailed Risk report has been prepared and is regularly updated in relation to the development of the new Community Centre. An Operational Risk Plan is in course of preparation. Detailed Financial Regulations specifying how financial transactions are to be undertaken have been adopted by the Trustees.

OBJECTS, AIMS, AND OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Company are fully set out in its articles of association and are the same as those of the Crowborough Community Association ("Old CCA") which the Company was formed to replace. By the end of 2010, all the assets and undertakings of the Old CCA had been transferred to the Company and since that time, the Old CCA has been removed from the Register of Charities and has ceased to exist.

To paraphrase the Objectives of the Company, they are:

- (a) To promote the benefit of local residents, without distinction of gender, sexual orientation, race or of political, religious or other opinions, by bringing together such residents and the local authorities, voluntary and other organisations in a common effort to advance education and to provide facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation and leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life;
- (b) To establish, or secure the establishment of, a community Centre and to maintain and manage the same (whether alone or in cooperation with any local authority or other body) in furtherance of these objectives; and
- (c) To promote such other charitable purposes as may from time to time be determined.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

During the period covered by this report the objectives of the Company were to:

- (a) Continue to operate the Hall in Park Road for the benefit of the community whilst ensuring that sufficient funds were received from hiring fees and other activities to pay the bills arising from the operation of this facility;
- (b) To construct a new community facility adjacent to Wealden District Council's offices in Pine Grove and to obtain sufficient commitments from funders to allow anticipated costs to be met with an appropriate margin. In the event, committed facilities were received from The National Lottery of £474,950 and from Crowborough Town Council of £2.7m. At the time of this report, the anticipated total cost of the new facility inclusive of all fees is in the region of £3.04m giving a cash margin over cost of approximately £130,000. These anticipated costs include the sums to be incurred under the contract for the building of the facility which was entered into shortly before Christmas 2010 with Sunninghill Construction Company Limited.
- (c) To commence detailed work on the policies and procedures for the operation of the new facility and to ensure that when it is opened, everything is in place for its smooth running including the likelihood of sufficient bookings to pay anticipated costs.

The Trustees consider that these objectives have been met and that the building of the new facility is proceeding satisfactorily with completion anticipated for May 2012.

FINANCIAL REVIEW AND RESULTS FOR THE YEAR

As mentioned above, The Company has financial facilities committed to it of £474,950 from the Lottery and £2.7m from Crowborough Town Council. Of this latter sum, £2.4m is available as a grant whilst the remaining £300,000 is a limited recourse, interest-free loan secured by a second charge over the CCA Hall in Park Road. Under this legal charge, the liability of the Company to repay the loan is restricted to the net amount received from its sale. However, the whole of those net proceeds of sale are to be paid to Crowborough Town Council even if they exceed £300,000. Crowborough Town Council has agreed that the Old Hall in Park Road is not to be sold until the new facilities are operational and it should therefore continue to be available to the community until the move to the new facility has taken place.

All financial facilities are available to be drawn down against sight of invoices received for expenses incurred in connection with the construction of the new facility. The financial facilities are payable to the CCA in sufficient time to allow such invoices to be paid before their respective due dates. In practice, the Company makes monthly calls upon these facilities and experience has shown that the funds have been made available within the agreed timescales. The Trustees do not anticipate this changing and as a consequence, no cash flow difficulties should arise during the construction of the new facilities.

Income earned from lettings of the old hall together with donations has been sufficient to pay bills incurred by the old hall and its operations.

Reserves policy:

The policy of the trustees of the Old CCA was to hold cash reserves equal to six months' expenditure. In recent times, this has never been met. The current Trustees have set a similar target but appreciate that in the early years of operation of the new facility, this ambitious target is unlikely to be met but reserves will be built as cash receipts allow.

However, the Company hold small reserves, amounting to £10,245, paid to the old CCA and subsequently transferred to the Company. The use of these reserves is restricted to being spent in connection with the new facility. Suitable items will be chosen in due course.

The future:

CCA-2010 is entering an exciting and challenging new phase of its existence and is well structured to meet the challenges. It looks forward to being able to offer a new Centre to Crowborough worthy of the social and cultural needs of the community.

The new facility is anticipated to be available in May 2012 and much effort is being expended to ensure that this happens smoothly. A new team has been assembled which has significant expertise in the areas concerned, such as marketing, risk, HR, finance etc. This team is charged exclusively with the issues of running the new hall and is not distracted by construction issues, nor issues to do with running the old hall. This separation, although managed by the board as a whole, should ensure that everything gets off to a flying start when the time comes. The board consider it essential that the inevitable and time consuming issues arising during the construction phase of the building are not allowed to prevent appropriate concentration on what will be the operational priorities of the Crowborough Centre once it is available to us.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF CROWBOROUGH COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION - 2010

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended 31 December 2010, which are set out on pages 5 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees, who are also the directors of Crowborough Community Association - 2010 for the purposes of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this period under section 43 of the Charities Act 1993, the 1993 Act, and that an independent examination is needed. The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination being a Chartered Certified Accountant.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- (i) examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- (ii) to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- (iii) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (a) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - (ii) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities;

have not been met; or

- (b) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
