Please know, in advance, how many tickets you plan to purchase and have payment ready. As a courtesy to all during busy sales times, MCDF reserves the right to limit ticket consultation to 3-4 minutes per guest. Only one transaction per guest allowed.

MCDF will turn the tickets over to the theatre on May 11th at 2 PM, and they will be available at the theatre only, beginning Wednesday, May 15th during the theatre's box office hours. Tickets purchased at the theatre are an additional $5, AND SUBJECT TO the theatre's service fees.

Note

If you have a child who is in more than one show, you may choose to purchase tickets for only one of the shows. If you would like to attend all shows, a ticket is required for each. If you have family and friends who wish to sit together, please collect their money in advance and purchase tickets together.

Refunds/Exchanges

Please be certain of the show that you wish to attend. MCDF cannot offer refunds or exchange tickets.

Children

The Center requires every attendee age 3 and older to have a ticket. While we believe a child should be exposed to the cultural arts, we are mindful of other patrons' enjoyment as well. Therefore, we ask parental discretion in bringing small children. It is not recommended that infants attend the performance.

Late Seating/Emergency Calls

Theatre doors will open 30 minutes prior to the performance. As a courtesy to the performers and audience, latecomers will be seated at an appropriate break in the program.

Cell Phone

Persons carrying cell phones are asked to turn them off during the performance.

Photography/Recording

MCDF and Ford Center for the Arts do not allow photography or video recording of the performance.

Special Services

Wheelchair accessible seating is available for those in wheelchairs who are not able to walk to a seat. Wheelchair row is only for those in wheelchairs and ONE companion. Please inquire about the special services when purchasing tickets.
