

Langcliffe Church Christmas Newsletter

A very warm welcome to our Christmas Newsletter Here are our services for the coming month, we very much hope to welcome you to St John's.

Sunday 4th December	Holy Communion at 10.30 am
Sunday 11th December	Evensong at 3.00 pm
Sunday 18th December	Carol Service at 4.00 pm
Saturday 24th December	Holy Communion at 11.30 pm
Sunday 1st January 2017	Joint Service of H.C. at 10.30 am

The Carol Service will follow the usual pattern of readings and carols with our lovely Church lit by candles. Afterwards we shall serve mulled wine and mince pies. Do come!

We are hoping to decorate each of the windows with a "carol" theme and of course there will be angels!

Canon Towers will be taking the service on 1st January, it is always good to welcome him and Elizabeth back to St John's.

Thanks very much to everyone who supported our Accessories Sale. We made an amazing £408 towards our new kitchen. The collection on Remembrance Sunday raised £100 which has been sent to the British Legion.

This Saturday (3rd) it is the Institute Coffee Morning from 10.00 till 12.30. It's always an enjoyable morning. On our stall we have shall have our Hamper Raffle, some Christmas decorations, preserves and food for the reindeers. A little Meercat is looking for a name and a good home.

Lighting up Langcliffe is to be on Sunday 11th December, details to follow.

Once again the Carol Singers will be braving the weather and carolling around the village on Tuesday 20th December. We shall meet at 6.30 pm at the Fountain. Just bring a torch or lantern and wrap up warmly. There is no collection, we do it just for the joy of singing. Come and join us.

Don't forget on Christmas morning Langcliffe has it's own special way of celebrating Christmas – we shall gather around the Tree at 9.30 am to sing carols. Everyone is very welcome.

A Very Merry Christmas and a Peaceful New Year
