Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist: Albert Bocchino, Lillian LaBuda, Marie Costa, Anna Varner, Brittany Csik.

Deceased: Albert Bocchino, uncle of Pete Cangelosi, Lillian LaBuda, aunt of Phil Farrell, Marie Costa, friend of Silakowski family, Anna Varner, friend of Liz Harmon and Brittany Csik, friend of the Janks Family. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY: A family's escape to Egypt

"Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you."

Matthew 2: 13-15, 19-23

From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. John 1: 1-18

They travel at night. She nuzzles their infant daughter against her, he carries a bag with a few necessities for the baby; their only worldly possessions are in his backpack. They are desperate to escape this place that is no longer home. Violence has shattered their lives. They are marked by their tribe, their language, their social class, their poverty.

Or they're crammed into a truck or car with far too many miles on it. His job moved somewhere else, so they're on the move to find work and maybe settle into the life every parent wants for their children.

Or the "journey" is traveled not along a rocky road but within a broken heart: trying to find one's way as a single parent after a spouse's death or divorce, taking on a world difficult enough for a couple let alone a single woman or man. The journey is a painful juggling of emotions and practicalities in the course of a night that seems will never see dawn.

What drives them along this dangerous road is hope: hope for a safe harbor to raise their children, hope for work to support themselves and their families, hope that they might reclaim their dignity as human beings.

So they run from the brutality and cruelty of "Herod," seeking to make a new life in whatever Egypt they can find.

A different place and time, but the same journey.

The Gospel of Mary and Joseph's escape to Egypt has been lived by countless families in every place and time. This Christmas, Mary, Joseph and the Child are escaping gangs in Guatemala, running from militant terrorist groups in Syria, fleeing government police in nations throughout Africa and Asia. The Holy Family is Christian, Jewish, Islam, and every religious and spiritual sect; the Holy Family is white, black, brown, yellow; the Holy Family speaks every tongue and dialect on earth. At Christmas, as we celebrate the gift of our own families, Matthew's Gospel on this Feast of the Holy Family confronts us with the struggles of many families and God's call to us, as their brothers and sisters, to make a place for them where they will find safety, justice and dignity as God's own.

ANNUAL ADVENT BREAKFAST

Thirty people gathered for a delicious breakfast hosted by Men's and Women's Spirituality Groups on Saturday, Dec 14th. Each year our spirituality groups come together to share a breakfast. This year Father Rick was the speaker and spoke about why it's special to be Catholic. Good discussion, conversation and wonderful food was shared by all. Remember to join us next Advent! All are Welcome!

FEAST OF ST. JOHN NEUMANN

Sunday January 5, 2020

St. John Neumann took seriously our Lord's words, "Go and teach all nations." From Christ he received his instructions and the power to carry them out. For Christ does not give a mission without supplying the means to accomplish it. The Father's gift in Christ to John Neumann was his exceptional organizing ability, which he used to spread the Good News. Today the Church is in dire need of men and women to continue in our times the teaching of the Good News. The obstacles and inconveniences are real and costly. Yet when Christians approach Christ, he supplies the necessary talents to answer today's needs. The Spirit of Christ continues his work through the instrumentality of generous Christians. Let us pray to receive the virtues of St. John Neumann our parish patron.

PASTOR'S CORNER

The Feast of the Holy Family reminds us the great love that God the Father has for the human family. Jesus is not born out of a pumpkin. He is born into a family. God becomes man to embrace the human family as the "first Church." The family is the place where faith, hope and love are to grow and form us into disciples of Jesus. Discipleship is never a singular call. We are called together to be followers of Christ. Through Baptism we share in the very family of God as children of the Father in heaven. May this feast bless all of our families with the peace and love of God's mercy through Jesus Christ!

Many Blessings
Fr. Rick

HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

December 29, 2019

"Wives, be subordinate to your husbands...Husbands, love your wives... Children, obey your parents in everything...Fathers, do not provoke your children..." (Colossians 3:18-21)

Pope Francis said that families, through their life of prayer and love, become "schools of true human growth." Being credible witnesses of Christian love, especially that of family members, exerts the most positive influence on our children. We are all children of God, let us pray and love each other as God, Our Father, does for us.

WHERE THE WISE MEN ARE

let's not forget about the true meaning of Christmas.

DON'T MISS THE AFTER PARTY!

January 7 – 6pm

Our De-decorating party comes once a year – don't miss it! It is a fun time to chat with others while we put away the seasonal décor.

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

Do those words intimidate you? I think many people feel they are not 'holy' enough to participate in Mass as a reader or a Eucharist Minister. The thing is, God invites us to His table, to the Eucharist to receive Him. And we come, all of us with our weaknesses and struggles to hear the word of God and receive his strength and forgiveness. And parishioners who serve at Mass, are acting as Jesus taught us – serving others. So we ask you to consider serving at Mass in whatever way suits you. We are hosting coffees after all the Masses next weekend to recognize the various ministers who help in our weekend liturgies. We hope you will join us to socialize with us as well as to ask any questions you might have as you consider becoming part of the liturgical team.

ALTAR SERVERS

Altar Servers can be a family or a couple or a single person. The tasks can be modified to accommodate the amount of participants. Altar serving involves leading the procession in and out of Mass with the cross and setting the altar at the offertory time.

READERS

Readers can be any age – all are welcome, we just need readers who feel comfortable being in front of the congregation and able to proclaim scripture slowly and audibly.

EUCCHARIST MINISTERS

Ministers of the Eucharist assist Father with the distribution of Holy Communion. Serving the Host or the cup is special as you are blessed to bring Jesus to others as well as connect with parishioners individually.

MUSIC MINISTRY

We so appreciate those parishioners who share the gift of song that God has blessed them with. With three different Masses the music ministry welcomes more people to be involved as a musician or a singer. For anyone who has a talent of music we hope you will consider participating.

Scheduling:

Father Rick is here at every Mass every weekend, for the rest of us scheduling is much more adaptable to our personal availability. First, everyone can easily access the schedule on line. Each of us provide specific dates when we are available. We also can limit how often we serve. Even once a schedule is active, and a conflict arises, it is a simple matter to request a sub.

Thank you Santa for coming to St. John's to visit with our families!

LITURGICAL MINISTRY WEEKEND

January 4/5

We want to take this opportunity to thank our Liturgical Ministers who serve at Mass each weekend. We will hold coffees after all Masses on Jan 4/5. Have you ever wondered about being part of the Mass. If you are interested in finding out about serving at Mass come ask your questions!

ROSARY

January 12th, 10 a.m.

Please join us in the Seton Room, the 2nd Sunday of each Month now through June to pray the rosary.

WHEN SOMETHING COSTS ALL YOU HAVE . . .

In the wonderful comic strip, For Better or For Worse by Lynn Johnston, seven-year-old Lizzie cracks open her bank.

"Look!" she says, "I got nine dollars an' eleven cents to spend on Christmas!"

Her twelve-year-old brother Michael is not impressed. "You can't buy something for everyone with nine dollars an' eleven cents, Lizzie!"

"I'm gonna try!" Lizzie insists.

"Well, they're sure gonna be cheap presents," Michael says dismissively.

But Lizzie responds, with absolute conviction, "Nothing is cheap, Michael, if it costs all the money you have!"

At Christmas, we celebrate a God who gives us everything God has and is. The Apostle Paul writes in his letter to the Philippians that in Christ, God "empties" himself of his divinity to take the form of a "slave" — a human being. The Creator becomes one of the created; the Master becomes one of the slaves. That's the mystery of Christmas: love so constant, compassion so limitless, peace so generous. And our only fitting response to such sacred love is to mirror that love within our own Bethlehems, regardless of the costs and demands on our time, our emotions, our patience, our wallets. As Lizzy understands, the Christmas mystery is not cheap; it demands all we have. And yet, for all we are willing to give, the more joy and fulfillment we will receive in kind.

MUSIC

Do you play piano? Guitar? St. John's Music Ministry could use accompanists to substitute when our regular accompanists are unavailable. Training and guidance would be provided. Your service to this ministry would be needed only on a substitute basis, depending upon your availability. Please consider sharing your talent! Contact Arminda at quiltingblockhead@gmail.com or 908-537-2637 or come talk to us after Mass!

Do you like to sing? Join Music ministry at one of our Masses. We welcome new singers any time of the year. Let us know if you are interested in participating year round or only for special seasons, such as Christmas or Easter. Talk to us after Mass or contact Gerry Brisson at gbrisson1@hotmail.com or 908-500-8308 or Arminda Barbone quiltingblockhead@gmail.com or 908-537-2637.

LETTER TO A SUFFERING CHURCH

If you are troubled with the crisis in the church, you are welcome to pick up Bishop Robert Barron's book Letter to a Suffering Church from the Narthex. After reading it you can return it to the Narthex or pass along to someone who may benefit from it. Please contact the office if you want to discuss 832-2513 or fkenedy@ccsjn.org. We can organize a discussion session with anyone who is interested.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

The old pastor made it a practice to visit the parish school one day a week. He walked into the fourth grade class, where the children were studying the states, and asked them how many states they could name. They came up with about 40 names. He jokingly told them that in his day students knew the names of all the states.

One lad raised his hand and said, "Yes, but in those days there were only 13."
