Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist:
Dick McCall, Dana Wilson, Lorraine Schwetje, Neil Ercolano, and Maria Elena Hargain.

Deceased: Dick McCall, husband of Martha McCall, Dana Wilson, parishioner, wife of Greg Wilson, Lorraine Schwetje, mother of Kristen Butka, Maria Elena Hargain, mother of Father Luigi, and Neil Ercolano, owner of Brook Run Farm. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: The prayer of “I don’t know”

“When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins . . .

“For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened . . .” Luke 11: 1-13

She doesn’t remember the exact question she asked her father that night. Like many of the questions she asked him when she was a little girl, it had to be something about church or faith or God. But she never forgot his answer that particular evening.

As he sat on the edge of her bed, he listened intently, paused thoughtfully for a moment, and then responded: I don’t know.

What she still remembers, too, was her dad’s tone: It wasn’t I don’t know — leave me alone! or I don’t know — stop asking so many questions! Her dad’s tone that night was weightier and gentler: I don’t know. I’m only human. And then, as they did every night, father and daughter prayed together and read a story; and the next Sunday, as they always did, they went to church together.

Now an adult, she still remembers that night. She writes:

“I still chew on that moment now . . . What if my parents had never admitted I don’t know in those few minutes before prayer? I would have learned that faith meant certainty, that faith didn’t leave room for what we don’t know.”

But I have also come to realize that the answer my father gave me was important only as part of something larger. That conversation happened before a nightly ritual of prayer, continuing to talk to God, day after day. Perhaps it is because of that foundation that I remember the words so clearly. The I don’t know didn’t mean we stopped praying. Nothing fell away with it; it simply existed alongside our daily practice. The practice, not only the conversation, is why I remember that conversation as one of the most significant in my life. With it, I learned that faith could have room for doubt. That sometimes we admit what we do not know, and then it is time for prayer.”

Today’s Gospel is not simply a prayer text (although it has become one) or a formula for praying. It’s an invitation to engage God in an ongoing conversation — an invitation that comes with Jesus’ assurance that we can come to God with all our doubts and fears and questions, without feeling that we have failed God or that our faith is empty. All prayer begins with realizing the loving presence of God in our lives — a love that is a mystery in itself — and expressing gratitude for that presence. And all prayer is sustained by trust in that love, trust that enables us to “ask and seek and knock” with all our questions and doubts and wonders.

“THE WAY OF ST. JUAN DIEGO”

A one-day, 9 mile
Walking Pilgrimage

Saturday, September 21st,
10 a.m. – 8 p.m.

In preparation for the Consecration of the Diocese of Metuchen to Our Lady of Guadalupe, all youth, families and people of faith are invited to participate in this walking pilgrimage starting at 10:00 a.m. on September 21st. The walk will begin and end at Immaculate Conception Church in Annandale, followed by dinner and Mass celebrated by Bishop James F. Checchio. The cost, which includes lunch and dinner, is $20 by August 20 or $25 thereafter. The walk will take place rain or shine. Registration is required. There are registration forms available in the narthex or register and pay online at www.LightingHeartsOnFire.org/walking-pilgrimage. The deadline for registration is September 13th, so please gather together your friends, family and/or small faith group and mark your calendars for this fun and spiritual event!

PASTOR’S CORNER

One of the events that is coming up is our Tricky Tray. A very important fund raiser for St. John’s. We need some help from volunteers to help run this event. People have already started to volunteer for certain jobs and that is great but we still need a few to help coordinate the entire event to make sure that we have everything covered. If you can help please call the parish office!

Thanks for all you do in the support of our parish!

God bless,
Fr. Rick

17TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

July 28, 2019

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” (Luke 11:9)

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED FOR THE GIFT FAMILY FAITH?

Registrations are due now. There are forms in the Narthex. Contact the office with any questions 908-832-2513.

SUMMERTIME PRAYER

Come enjoy summer evening in prayer. The Rosary is a beautiful and contemplative prayer rich in Christian tradition. We invite you to join us in praying the Rosary on the patio overlooking the garden on Wednesday evenings this summer at 6:30 p.m. (relocated inside if it rains). Drop-ins are encouraged and welcomed! Rosary beads and copies of the prayers will be provided.

We already have volunteers ready to help!

Call the office 908-832-2513 or email fundraising@ccsjn.org if you have any questions.

NOTES FROM THE GARDEN

Come visit the garden--there is something new to see every day! Sit for a while and enjoy the swing in the pergola. New flowers this week include zinnias, gladiolas, and pink milkweed. The daylilies are just about at peak and really beautiful. We started picking green beans this week--more than 30 pounds in 4 days--and many, many quarts of blueberries with more to come. More green peppers are ready for harvest and the first red tomato came on Monday. Check out the tomato plants--they are heavy with produce. The first monarch butterflies started visiting last week and a mink was also spotted in the garden! Don't forget to stop by the community garden. You'll see the blueberry bushes under the netting and the community garden members are growing a wide variety of vegetables. All are welcome to visit the garden any time--just remember to close the gate on your way out. If you would like to help with the harvest contact Anne Germino at project-earth@ccsjn.org.

SAVE THE DATE

Mark your calendars, the date has been set for these events at St. John's.

PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING

Minutes for July 8, 2019

Reflection on Our Annual Goal

We, as ministers, will foster an inviting and Catholic community for all, especially to those away from the Church, by growing in and witnessing to our faith in the mercy of God.

Five Year Plan

- Fundraising was presented by Mike Connolly, Marlene Milko, Susan Kuhn, Kathleen Swindler, and Andrea Soltez. No official Five Year Plan as there was more of a need for discussion of current issues.
- Biggest Challenge is finding chairs for all fundraising events
- How do we spend our efforts to make the events successful?
- How do we get more people to use Amazon?
- Tag sale...consider instead something like "junk in the trunk" in our parking lot. Participants would pull up their car (for a fee), set up, sell and take away whatever they did not sell.
- Tricky Tray is the current priority, it is typically held in October.

New Business:

- Reflect on annual goal statement – will it be revised? We will work on this at the August meeting.
- Preliminarily scheduling of Five Year Plan presentations. More to come on this as we get them set up and fill in the schedule. Liaisons should confirm contact info is correct.

Old Business:

- We Finalize liaison assignments, subcommittees, mentors, Gmail addresses and contact info. Follow up in August
- Liaisons should confirm ministry/committee contact information.

Pastor's Items of Business:

- Religious Education...3 people being interview for the position
- Collection update- Ministers to help make sure the baskets are passed properly so we have no pews being missed/skipped. This is a work in progress.
- Parish directory? Going well

PARISH DIRECTORIES ARE HERE!

If you had your family photographed for the parish directory then stop by the Narthex and pick up your copy of the directory. They are on the green counter by the Reconciliation Room. Your name will be on it.

If you didn't get your family photographed but would like to, please give your name on the sign up sheet. When we get enough families signed up we will schedule another photo shoot day.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

- Sometimes when I am celebrating Mass, I feel like I am the only one celebrating.
- It ain't so much the things we don't know that get us in trouble. It's the things we know that ain't so.
- "When you look depressed, people remind you to keep your chins us."

Prayer Ministry

THE OUR FATHER

Who is your Father? He is perfect, holy, and worthy of adoration. But Jesus doesn't tell us to say, "Holy Father." Just "Father." He makes it clear that your Father is not far away, un-touchable, enthroned beyond your reach. He is close to you, eager to breathe his life into you. He hears your voice. He listens when you call and promises to answer. He gives you daily bread generously—all that you need for life and holiness.

The Father loves you. Always and without exception. He sees your worst sins, and still he wants to hold you close. He offers forgiveness lavishly, reconciliation unreservedly, intimacy wholeheartedly. He gives you all the tools and grace you need to become as merciful as he is. And he protects you from the evil one so that you can spread that mercy far and wide.

Jesus gave the disciples so much more than a list of tips for effective prayer. He assured them that they could approach God confidently, knowing he will always listen, always forgive, always provide and protect. And he, who is holy, will do no less for you.

Reflections like this are found in The Word Among Us. Pick up a copy from the Narthex.

MENDEL THE TAILOR

There's a delightful Hasidic story about Mendel the tailor, who goes to his rabbi with a problem. He tells the rabbi, "I try to be the best tailor I can be. If a customer says to be me, 'Mendel, you're a wonderful tailor; you're the best,' that makes me feel good. But if somebody came into my shop every day and told me, 'Mendel, you're a wonderful tailor,' or if a hundred people crowded into my shop to tell me that, it would drive me crazy. I wouldn't be able to get any work done. So my question is, does God really need to have every Jew in the world tell Him three times a day how wonderful He is? Doesn't God sometimes find it tedious?"

The rabbi answers him, "Mendel, that's a really good question. You have no idea how tedious it is for God to hear our praises all day, every day. But God understands how important it is for us to remind ourselves of all He has done for us, so in His infinite kindness, He puts up with our incessant praying and accepts our praise."

God does not need our prayers or praise – but we need to offer them. True prayer comes out of our realizing the presence of God in our lives and to articulate our trust in that presence. Prayer is not simply a formula of words or a choreography of ritual. Prayer is the awareness of God as the source of all that is good and the ultimate fulfillment of our life's journey. Prayer is not the scope and breadth of the words we utter but the sense of gratitude that compels us to give voice to those prayers. Authentic prayer enables us to realize God's love in our love for family and friends and their love for us; to see God's hand nurturing and sustaining every molecule of creation; to feel God's life-giving breath animating every moment of our existence. And, in joining others in prayer, we find support and comfort in knowing that we are not alone in our search for God, that we travel the road to God's dwelling in the company of struggling but compassionate souls like ourselves. As the rabbi explains to Mendel, the prayers we offer are themselves the gift of our loving God.
