FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK....

Dear Friends,

Last week was Teacher Appreciation Week. This year's theme was "Teachers Deliver." And they do! Teachers deliver so much to our students—inspiration, motivation and, ultimately, their futures. I am aware that we have a number of parishioners who are wonderful teachers. In fact last year, three of them were recognized and honored with awards for their excellence in their profession which they do as their vocation from God. So I wish to offer our appreciation to all our teachers from this parish community for their dedication and commitment to teaching as a ministry.

Following the teacher appreciation it is only appropriate that today is Mother's Day! A very happy Mother's Day to all mothers! One exhausted mother said: "This year, my family can skip the flowers, the gifts, and the breakfast in bed. For Mother's Day, all I want is to be left alone!" I'm sure many mothers can relate to that sentiment. Parental burnout is real. Many feel so overwhelmed and exhausted that they would be pleased to get some quiet time to themselves, to do the things that they always wanted to do but never got time for. I believe this is where Mother's Day is to be re-evaluated. The tendency seems to be to pour onto the mother all the special attention and appreciation just one day a year and then go back to treat her as a beast of burden for the rest of us! In fact, the way we honor mothers on Mother's Day should be a reminder as to how we should be showing love and appreciation for her throughout the year.

Last Sunday our children did the May Crowning of Mary, the mother of Jesus, at the beginning of the 10:30 Mass. She is a mother to all of us. Through Mary, the work of Motherhood is glorified and sanctified. On this Mother's Day, presenting all mothers on the altar, let us sing the beautiful song we sing as we often do; "Gentle woman, peaceful dove, teach us wisdom, teach us love."

It is said that every mother is like Moses. She does not enter the Promised Land. She prepares others to enter a world she will not see. Today we thank our mothers, pray for them and honor them by celebrating Mother's Day and by offering our mothers on the altar of God. Please read the reflections, anecdotes and stories in this bulletin that is dedicated to all Mothers. Happy Mother's Day!

Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Abraham Orapankal

THANK YOU GOD FOR OUR MOTHERS

Thank you, dear Lord, for our mothers: who were brave enough to give us birth, who loved us through many growing-up years, who taught us about God and love and being good, who often got no thanks, whose ears could hear the slightest cry, whose eyes didn't miss much either, whose hands held and bathed and picked up, whose hearts were often broken, who always forgave and forgot, who encouraged us when things went badly, who always had time to listen to us, who worked so hard to make things go, who make the world so much better, who deserve our love on Mother's Day and every day even for eternity.

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 14, 2017

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."

1 PETER 2:7

Everyone is given unique gifts. Many people are able to recognize their talents and abilities, but there are many people who are unsure of their gifts. This may make them feel worthless. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern how they might use their skills. No gift is too small or insignificant.

MOM, THE GOOD SHEPHERD

My mom is my shepherd; I shall not want. She makes me lie down under cool, downy comforters. She watches me play beside still waters. She restores my soul. She leads me in paths of respect, responsibility, and goodness, for I am her namesake!

Yea, even though I walk past monsters in the dark, I will not be scared, because my mom is always near me. Her hands and her voice, they comfort me. Mama sets the table and cheerfully calls me to dinner even in front of big, mean bullies. She anoints my skinned knees and broken heart with kisses. She smiles and throws me a towel when my cup runneth over. Surely God's peace, power, and mercy shall uphold me all the days of my life, for my Mother taught me to dwell in the house of God forever. Source: Christian Education 101: A Child Learns to Trust by Laurie Hays Coffman

IN HER FOOTSTEPS

It was a busy day in Costa Mesa, a California home. But then, with ten children and one on the way, every day was a bit hectic for Davida Dalton. On this particular day, however, she was having trouble doing even the routine chores—all because of one little boy. Len, who was three at that time, was on her heels no matter where she went. Whenever she stopped to do something and turned back around, she would trip over him. Several times, she patiently suggested fun activities to keep him occupied "Wouldn't you like to play on the swing set?" she asked him. But he simply smiled an innocent smile and said, "Oh, that's all right, Mommy. I'd rather be in here with you." Then he continued to bounce happily along behind her. After stepping on his toes for the fifth time, she began to lose her patience and insisted that he go outside and play with the other children. When she angrily asked him why he was acting this way, he looked up at her with sweet green eyes and said, "Well, Mummy, in Sunday school my teacher told me to walk in Jesus' footsteps. But I can't see him, so I'm walking in yours." She gathered him in her arms and held him close. Tears of love and humility spilled over from the prayer that grew in her heart, a prayer of thanks for the simple, yet beautiful perspective of a three-year-old boy.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY - Cute Answers from Kids!

Who's the boss at your house? Mom. You can tell by room inspection. She sees the stuff under the bed.

What would it take to make your Mom perfect? On the inside she's already perfect. Outside, I think some kind of plastic surgery.

If you could change one thing about your Mom, what would it be? She has this weird thing about me keeping my room clean. I'd get rid of that. And I would like for her to get rid of those invisible eyes on her back of her head.

Why did your Mom marry your dad? She got too old to do anything else with him. But my grandma says that Mom didn't have her thinking cap on.

When a frazzled mother sent her little boy to bed, she heard him grumbling to himself, "Every time she gets tired, I'm the one who ends up having to take a nap."

ALTAR SERVING

If you enjoy watching the Altar being set during Mass, and appreciate the tradition at St. John's of a family joining together for this simple service, we ask you to consider your family participating in the Mass in this way. It is a wonderful way to serve and it can be adapted to work for two people or a family of 5. If you would like to discuss before deciding please contact the office or talk to an Altar Server at Mass!

REMEMBER MOTHERS

Welcome to all and in a special way all mothers next Sunday as we celebrate Mother's Day. As every year, the Knights will be presenting carnations to Mother's following Mass on May 13th and 14th.

MARRIAGE TUNE-UP

Mother's Day "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." (Jn 15: 13) In addition to Jesus, who has given their life for you? Perhaps it is your mother, or someone who has been like a mother to you. As a spouse, be mindful of laying down your life each day for your beloved.

PARENTING TUNE-UP

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." (1 Peter 2:7) Do you or your child ever feel rejected? Sooner or later everyone has this experience. It doesn't feel good but it's not the end of the world. When appropriate, share with your child a time that you felt rejected and how you grew from it. (Susan Vogt)

SUNDAY REFLECTION: How God Created the First Mom!

By the time the Lord made the woman he was into his sixth day of creation and working overtime. An angel approached and said "Why are you spending so much time on this creature?" And the Lord answered and said, "I am making a woman who is to become the mother of all mankind. So she should have some special features: 1) Six pairs of hands, five of them invisible. 2) Three pairs of eyes, one visible pair in the front, the second and the third invisible pairs at the back and at the sides of her head. 3) A large and elastic heart. 4) A lap that can hold three children at one time and that disappears when she stands up. The angel said, "I can guess why a mom should have six pairs of hands and a large heart, but why three pairs of eyes? God said, "One pair of invisible x-ray eyes at the sides to see through closed doors when she knocks at the door asks, "What are you kids doing?" And she already knows what is going on inside. The second invisible pair at the back of her head is to see what she is not supposed to see, but has to see as a responsible mother. And of course, the third pair of normal eyes in the front is to look at a child when he makes a mistake and say without uttering a word, "Dear, I understand you, I love you." "Any other specifications?" the angel asked. God said, "She should be able to run on black coffee and leftovers. She should have a kiss that can cure anything from a bruised leg to a broken heart from a disappointing love affair. She should be able to heal herself when she is sick. She should feed a family of six on one pound of hamburger, and finally she should have eyes that shed tears of joy and pride, tears of sadness, tears of disappointment and tears of old age aches and loneliness." The Angel was impressed. "You are a genius, Lord! This woman is amazing." Is this not the picture of your mom? [Adapted from Erma Bombeck's essay entitled, When God Created Women].

MOM IS SELFLESS

A teacher asked a boy this question: "Suppose your mother baked a pie and there were seven of you your parents and five children. What part of the pie would you get?" "A sixth," replied the boy. "I'm afraid you don't know your fractions," said the teacher. "Remember, there are seven of you." "Yes, teacher," said the boy, "but you don't know my mother. Mother would say she didn't want any pie."
