GLUTEN FREE HOSTS

We have gluten free hosts available - talk to the Eucharistic ministers in the sacristy before or after Mass.

Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist: Josephine Carroll, Antonio Muniz de Souza, Linda Barry.

Deceased: Josephine Carroll, mother of Steve Carroll and Antonio Muniz de Souza, father of Marcio Souza, Linda Barry, friend of Dana Soltesz. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK....

Dear Friends,

Pride is a word that can be confusing. There is a positive sense in which we can be proud of many things: proud of our country, parents, achievements, faith, friends etc. Paul could say: "I have reason to be proud of my work for God" (Rom. 15:17). But there is a negative sense in which some people can be "puffed up" or "full of themselves" exhibiting a haughty attitude. C.S. Lewis, whose influence on Christianity is long lasting, wrote: "According to Christian teachers, the essential vice, the utmost evil, is Pride. Unchastity, anger, greed, drunkenness, and all that, are mere flea bites in comparison: it was through Pride that the devil became the devil: Pride leads to every other vice: it is the complete anti-God state of mind..... it is Pride which has been the chief cause of misery in every nation and every family since the world began" (Mere Christianity, p.111).

But our culture seems to celebrate this kind of pride as a virtue whereas humility is seen as a weakness! Thus we see pride and arrogance among many rich and powerful, celebrities and stars, and even among some religious leaders. What does Bible say? "Pride goes before destruction, a haughty spirit before a fall." (Proverbs 16:18). Pride leads to overconfidence and arrogance in one's own abilities. But it will eventually backfire on the proud because they are unable to see fault in themselves. We all are familiar with many unfortunate stories of "fall from grace" of many contemporary famous personalities.

No wonder, Jesus condemns intellectual pride in today's gospel. He knows that ordinary people with large, sensitive hearts can accept the "Good News" he preaches, while proud intellectuals cannot. Even the learned rabbis of Jesus' time recognized that the simplest people were often nearer to God than the wisest. They composed stories to show that ordinary people often practiced great love and compassion, for instance, the story of the man who lent his tools to someone in need, or the woman who helped her neighbors. Jesus says that such people will inherit Heaven rather than the learned and the wise who pride themselves on their intellectual achievements but do not love. This is why spiritual masters of all persuasions insist that pride is the devil's most effective and destructive tool! Let us take to heart what Jesus tells us today: "learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls" (Matthew 11:29)

Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Abraham Orapankal

14TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

July 9, 2017

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion of what He has already given to us.

RECYCLE PATIO CUSHIONS

If you are planning to upgrade the seat cushions for your outdoor furniture - the parish staff would appreciate the opportunity to recycle or reuse your old cushions Consider donating your old set for the office patio chairs. We have 6 or 7 high back chairs .

Christian Formation

"How precious is the family as the privileged place for transmitting the faith" Pope Francis 2013 World Youth Day

The primary aim of all catechesis is to promote a deeper faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, as well as a deeper love for him and commitment to follow him. The Catholic Church teaches that parents are the first and most important educators in the faith. During the summer months we invite all families of the GIFT Program at St. John Neumann Parish to continue family formation and Mass attendance at home or on vacation. Visit www.masstimes.org to locate a Mass at your destination. Each family will receive by mail a booklet, Promises, Projects & Prayers for Kids. We are pleased to share this resource with your family. Enjoy your summer and family time! Peace, Fr. Abraham, Renee and JoAnn

GOSPEL WEEKLIES FOR PRESCHOOLERS NOW AVAILABLE

It's never too early to plant the seeds of faith!

Since parents are the first instructors in faith to their children, we are excited to offer the preschool level Pflaum, "Seeds," for your use at home during the preschool years. These are fun, liturgically-based weekly readers you can do one on one with your child or grandchild. They make a great introduction to the Catholic faith, in addition to going to Mass and praying together as a family, that we hope you will take advantage of! Pflaum orders are placed in July, please contact Jo Ann Jarvis at jjarvis@ccsjn.org if you are interested. Suggested donation of $10 for the cost of the material, which includes the Gospel weeklies from September to May.

MARRIAGE TUNE-UP

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened..." (Mt.11:29) One grace of marriage is having a partner who is there for us when one of us feels burdened or discouraged. We may not always respond perfectly, but the opportunity is there. Is there anything burdening your beloved these days?

PARENTING TUNE-UP

"...all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now." (Romans 8:22) Indeed, we know that the natural world speaks to us of God's being and creative spirit. Choose one way to join with your child to respect creation this week - Reduce, Reuse, Recycle. (Susan Vogt)

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU

Social Ministry thanks all who supported the needy; including the elderly and veterans in our community during our July 4th Card Drive. We want you to know that 9 families each received a $50.00 food card and 21 individuals received a $25.00 food card. This will enable them to buy food to celebrate the Fourth of July. Also know that any cards or monies collected today or later will be used to assist people in need during the Summer and Fall. Thanks again and God Bless All of Us!

2017 CALIFON FARMER'S MARKET

Califon United Methodist Church and Califon Area Merchants and Professional Association (CAMPA) are once again joining together to co-sponsor a farmer's market in downtown Califon. The market will be held on the front lawn around the gazebo at Califon UMC situated next to the popular Top O' the Barn Thrift Shop and overlooking the Raritan River. The next date will be July 22nd.

POPE FRANCIS' WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Weep not for what you have lost, fight for what you have.
Weep not for what is dead, fight for what was born in you.
Weep not for the one who abandoned you, fight for who is with you.
Weep not for those who hate you, fight for those who want you.
Weep not for your past, fight for your present struggle.
Weep not for your suffering, fight for your happiness.
With things that are happening to us, we begin to learn that nothing is impossible to solve, just move forward.

WORK, PLAY, LOVE AND WORSHIP!

The Mayo Clinic announced a sure cure for getting rid of that tired feeling. Tests revealed that people are chronically tired because they live unbalanced lives. And so they took Dr. Richard Clark Cabot's famous formula for life - WORK, PLAY, LOVE and WORSHIP. These are the ultimates of life that must be held in proper balance - work, play, love and worship. The Mayo Clinic made them a symbol, four arms of equal length. They said that whenever one or more of those arms becomes a stub, then the result in unhappiness, and unhappiness is usually the fore-runner of fatigue. Thus, a business man's arm may be long on work but short on play and worship. A debutante's arm may be long on play and short on work. A spinster may be long on work and worship and short on play and love. The old saying that "all work and no play make Jack a dull boy" is psychologically sound. And so, "all work and no worship" leads to chronic fatigue. It's a simple, psychological and physical fact.

YOU SHOP & AMAZON GIVES TO ST. JOHN'S!

Our Finance Council has been keeping themselves busy not only with the judicious management of our money but also with reflections and discussions on generating income for our Church. One bright idea they have come up with is shopping through Amazon's Associate program, with 2% - 12 % commission. It is a very easy way to help St. John with no additional cost to you at all! You just buy the things you'd buy anyway, but buy them through Amazon. When you click on this link it takes you to the Amazon home page, and the only clue that St. John's is getting a commission on your purchase is the small phrase "ccsjn-20" that you will see in the middle of the Amazon URL address - everything else is transparent to the user. <https://www.amazon.com/?&tag=ccsjn-20&camp=0&creative=0&linkCode=ur1&adid=15TJKAQ2QN89EK2VDBZA&>

Once you land on the Amazon site - simply bookmark it for future use. The members of the Finance Committee, Pastoral Council and our Parish Staff have already tested it and found it easy. Thanks to our Finance Council for this initiative about which they will familiarize us more next weekend. Kindly invite your family and friends to join this effort.

YOGA IS BACK

HELP IS AVAILABLE

"In my goings about collecting items for the grand auction I came across an Indian vendor, Denesh Patel of Hindu faith, a pharmacist, who runs Greyrock Pharmacy in the strip mall at the bottom of Cregar Road where it intersects with Route 31 North. I have a business card from him. After explaining about our parish and ministries, he gave many gifts for our auction, antique picture frames, shelves for the kitchen, and other household items he had reserved in a storage facility nearby. He told me that anyone in the parish who has little or no health insurance should be directed to him at the pharmacy to see if he could help out!!" (Steve Bauernfeind)

SUNDAY REFLECTION: Please Don't Blame the Cockroach...

" . . . for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to little ones . . . Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart . . . "
Matthew 11: 25-30

At a restaurant, a cockroach suddenly flew in from somewhere and landed on a woman. Panic etched on her face and voice trembling, she started jumping about, with both her hands desperately trying to get rid of the cockroach - without actually touching it. She finally managed to push the cockroach away - but it landed on another lady at her table. Now, it was the second woman's turn to continue the drama. A waiter rushed forward to their rescue. In the commotion, the cockroach soon landed on the waiter. But the waiter remained calm. He watched the cockroach and, at the right moment, he grabbed it with his fingers and threw it out of the restaurant. Peace was restored and everyone returned to their dinners.

But consider the scene for a moment. Exactly what was the cause of the histrionics? The cockroach? If so, why was the waiter able to respond to the situation to near to perfection, without any chaos or anxiety? It was not the cockroach, but the inability of those people to handle the tumult caused by the cockroach's presence that caused the uproar.

When confronted by another's anger, it's not the shouting or tension that causes the stress - it's our inability to respond to the problem. It's not the traffic jam or the sales clerk's incompetence or the computer freeze that are disturbing, but our inability to deal creatively and effectively with the situation. More than the problem, it's our reaction to the problem that creates chaos in our lives. [From a speech by Sundar Pichai, CEO of Google Inc.]

Every life is "burdened" with disappointments, hurts and quandaries and predicaments that we can't control. Jesus invites us to embrace the sense of fulfillment and purpose that can only be realized by "learning" from his example of humility and gratitude, to take on his "yoke" of selfless service to one another as we journey together to the dwelling place of God. In embracing Christ's attitude of humility, we can begin to restore our lives to peace and hope by working our way through life's computer freezes, traffic jams, and cockroaches.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

An elderly woman at the nursing home received a visit from one of her fellow Church members. "How are you feeling?" the visitor asked. "Oh," said the lady, "I'm just worried sick!" "What are you worried about, dear?" her friend asked. "You look like you're in good health. They are taking care of you, aren't they?" "Yes, they are taking very good care of me." "Are you in any pain?" she asked. "No, I have never had a pain in my life." "Well, what are you worried about?" her friend asked again. The lady leaned back in her rocking chair and slowly explained her major worry. "Every close friend I ever had has already died and gone on to Heaven," she said. "I'm afraid they all may be wondering where I went."

A farmer, who went to a big city to see the sights, asked the hotel's clerk about the time of meals. "Breakfast is served from 7 to 11, lunch from 12 to 3, and dinner from 6 to 8," explained the clerk. "Look here," inquired the farmer in surprise, "when am I going to get time to see the city?"

DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

If you have ever considered becoming Catholic or know someone who may be interested, there is a process to help you discern whether it is what you want to do. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation. Every year teams in parishes meet with unbaptized persons and those baptized into other faiths to discuss and learn about the Catholic faith. The first stage is called Inquiry and simply put, is a time for you to ask any and all questions about God and the church. This is the period to help you find out if you are interested in becoming Catholic. So please don't think you have to know this is what you want to do. The Inquiry phase helps in that discernment. Please contact France Kennedy if you would like to find out more. Phone or text: 908-307-7879 or email fkennedy@ccsjn.org.
