BANNS OF MARRIAGE
II. Mark Alan Schenck & Elizabeth Joanne Cestone

Remembered at Mass
We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist: Bob Simms, Jacob McCreesh, Matthew DaSilva, Josephine Carroll, Antonio Muniz de Souza, Linda Barry.

Deceased: Bob Simms, parishioner and husband of Sheila, Jacob McCreesh, Matthew DaSilva, Josephine Carroll, mother of Steve Carroll and Antonio Muniz de Souza, father of Marcio Souza, Linda Barry, friend of Dana Soltesz. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK....

Dear Friends,

Did you notice the transformation in our Garden? Both our "Project Earth Garden" and the "Gift of Good Land Community Garden" are lush with all kinds of vegetables and flowers. Thanks to the hard work of so many volunteers, cultivators of the raised beds, and above all the committed leadership and intense labor of Anne Germino. Many big trays of ripe strawberries were donated to the soup kitchens in the recent weeks. Our blue berry bushes are small plants but they are loaded. 10 pounds of blueberries were harvested with many more to come in the next few weeks. Fresh blueberries were served as part of a large fruit salad at our monthly service to SHIP's Galley Soup Kitchen in Somerville. The rest were made into blueberry pie for next month's service. The lettuces, celeries, varieties of squashes, tomatoes, potatoes, peas – and what not – are almost ready, to the great satisfaction of the gardeners. The greatness of our garden is not only because it is unique to our parish, not only because we get some good produce, but also because it creates community and fellowship. In addition, it is the way we put into practice the invitation of Pope Francis in his landmark document on creation, Laudato Si. Here are some lines worth reflecting on from that document:

"Praise be to you, my Lord, through our Sister, Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with coloured flowers and herbs".

"In the Judaeo-Christian tradition, the word "creation" has a broader meaning than "nature", for it has to do with God's loving plan in which every creature has its own value and significance. Nature is usually seen as a system which can be studied, understood and controlled, whereas creation can only be understood as a gift from the outstretched hand of the Father of all, and as a reality illuminated by the love which calls us together into universal communion."

"It must be said that some committed and prayerful Christians, with the excuse of realism and pragmatism, tend to ridicule expressions of concern for the environment. Others are passive; they choose not to change their habits and thus become inconsistent. So what they all need is an "ecological conversion", whereby the effects of their encounter with Jesus Christ become evident in their relationship with the world around them. Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience."

Isn't it wonderful that Jesus who literally walked on this earth was very much aware of creation? That's why he spoke of the sun, rain, birds, animals, flowers, cultivation and harvesting. Today's Gospel is all about what a farmer does. Jesus takes the whole process of sowing seeds and uses it as a metaphor for sowing the Word of God in our hearts. If the seed has to yield a rich harvest, it has to grow in a soil that is tilled, fertilized and watered. So also, if the Word of God should produce good fruits in our lives, our hearts and minds should be open and prepared to receive God's Word. Thank God that all of us, in our own way, are making efforts to welcome the Word in our hearts, and our parish garden is a very real symbol of that!

Your brother in Christ,

Fr. Abraham Orapankal

15TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

July 16, 2017

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."
MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion of what He has already given to us.

RECYCLE PATIO CUSHIONS

If you are planning to upgrade the seat cushions for your outdoor furniture - the parish staff would appreciate the opportunity to recycle or reuse your old cushions Consider donating your old set for the office patio chairs. We have 8 high back chairs .

Christian Formation

STUDENT MASS THANK YOU

What a pleasure to see our young members celebrating Mass on Sunday with our talented music ministry! Thank you to all our singers, altar servers, and gift bearers.

“How precious is the family as the privileged place for transmitting the faith”
Pope Francis 2013 World Youth Day

The primary aim of all catechesis is to promote a deeper faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, as well as a deeper love for him and commitment to follow him. The Catholic Church teaches that parents are the first and most important educators in the faith. During the summer months we invite all families of the GIFT Program at St. John Neumann Parish to continue family formation and Mass attendance at home or on vacation. Visit www.masstimes.org to locate a Mass at your destination. Each family will receive by mail a booklet, Promises, Projects & Prayers for Kids. We are pleased to share this resource with your family. Enjoy your summer and family time! Peace, Fr. Abraham, Renee and JoAnn

BACK TO SCHOOL

GIVING TREE

The Giving Tree is blooming with tags for Back to School items and gift cards! Please take a tag or two after Mass and then return the donations to the collection bin under the tree. All items must be returned to the Narthex by Sunday, August 20th. If you have any questions please contact JT Altavilla at 908-574-9344 or jt.altavilla@yahoo.com.

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY

Week of July 23—30

If you have just a few hours to make an impact on the life of another person this summer, please consider signing up to help with Interfaith Hospitality Network at Spruce Run Church on Hill Road during the week of July 23-30.

With vacation time upon us, this is a great opportunity for you and/or your family to take an active role in helping those less fortunate right where we live. You can help in a number of ways from sharing a meal to staying overnight or just keeping them company. To see what time slots are available, please click the link to Sign Up Genius and make a difference.

SHARE YOUR BEST

CORN SEED!

Each year he entered his corn in the state fair where it won a blue ribbon. One year a newspaper reporter interviewed him and learned something interesting about how he grew it. The reporter discovered that the farmer shared his seed corn with his neighbors. "How can you afford to share your best seed corn with your neighbors when they are entering corn in competition with yours each year?" the reporter asked. "Why sir," said the farmer, "didn't you know? The wind picks up pollen from the ripening corn and swirls it from field to field. If my neighbors grow inferior corn, cross-pollination will steadily degrade the quality of my corn. If I am to grow good corn, I must help my neighbors grow good corn."

GOD'S VEGETABLE GARDEN

This is the story of the fussy vegetarian. A young woman was committed to being a vegetarian, but she was never satisfied with any of the fruit or vegetables she bought. For her, all melons were too ripe, or not ripe enough, all tomatoes were bruised or unripe, heads of cauliflower and broccoli were too big or too little. Then one day, driving down Tarpon Avenue, she drove past a new store with a long line of people waiting to get in. She looked, and the sign said, God's Fruit and Vegetable Stand. "Finally," she said, "I can get some decent vegetables and fruit." So she stood on line and waited. Hours went by before she walked through that door. She was enveloped in light, but she didn't see any apples or oranges or tomatoes or cabbage, or anything to buy. She walked to the light, and there was a counter there. And behind the counter, there stood God. She could tell it was God because of the light, and because he had an apron on with a big G on it. Anyway, she placed her order, "I would like some perfect broccoli, and some perfect carrots, some perfect tomatoes and a perfect melon. Also, if you have perfect Brussels sprouts, that would really be a miracle." "Sorry," God said, "I only sell seeds here." She went away disappointed!

Actually, God doesn't sell seeds, He gives seeds to us. The seeds are his Word in its many expressions. But we have to do something with this precious gift. It simply is not enough just to hear the Word of God. We have to let it grow within us and influence our lives enabling us live like the People of the Word.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: CHURCH DRIVEWAY SEALCOATING

JULY 17 AND 18

The church driveway and parking lots will be seal-coated on Monday and Tuesday July 17 and 18. This means the entire driveway and parking lots will be closed off for those two days. You will be able to reach the office staff via phone or email but you can only access the Church property including the garden by parking at Valley View School and walking through the path.

On Thursday, July 20, they will paint the parking lot lines and driveway arrows. We will be able to drive down the driveway and park on the grass avoiding the areas they will be painting.

CATHOLIC HEART WORKCAMP OPPORTUNITIES

Last Call

This year we are going to North Arlington, NJ from Sunday, July 23 to Friday, July 28. We have several spots that have become available. If you are entering 9th grade in the fall and would like to join us, please contact Mary Connolly ASAP at mandmconnolly@gmail.com or 908-930-0784.

HELP! If you are interested in helping to set up for camp at Queen of Peace High School on Friday, July 21, Saturday, July 22 or Sunday, July 23, please be in touch. It takes about an hour to get to the school. We need assistance building showers, cleaning the kitchen, moving desks, hanging signs, and assisting with camper check-in on Sunday. My contact information is above. Thanks!

YOU SHOP & AMAZON GIVES TO ST. JOHN'S!

Our Finance Council has been keeping themselves busy not only with the judicial management of our money but also with reflections and discussions on generating income for our Church. One bright idea they have come up with is shopping through Amazon's Associate program, with. It is a very easy way to help St. John with no additional cost to you at all! You just buy the things you'd buy anyway, but buy them through Amazon. When you click on this link it takes you to the Amazon home page, and the only clue that St. John's is getting a commission on your purchase is the small phrase "ccsjn-20" that you will see in the middle of the Amazon URL address - everything else is transparent to the user.

<https://www.amazon.com/?&tag=ccsjn-20&camp=0&creative=0&linkCode=ur1&adid=15TJKAQ2QN89EK2VDBZA&>

Once you land on the Amazon site - simply bookmark it for future use. The members of the Finance Committee, Pastoral Council and our Parish Staff have already tested it and found it easy. Thanks to our Finance Council for this initiative about which they will familiarize us more next weekend.

STAFF SUMMER READING

7 Keys to Spiritual Wellness
by Joe Paprocki

Joe Paprocki offers insight and practical reflection for spiritual health based on the wisdom of Catholic Tradition. His non dogmatic, approach to faith and everyday life is an inviting to Catholic and non-Catholic readers.

Paprocki offers seven enduring and reliable strategies for achieving spiritual wellness. He explores ideas like; seeing yourself as you really are, seeking the good in others, thinking before acting, holding on loosely, recognizing and setting limits.

7 Keys to Spiritual Wellness helps us see the Christian faith not as a collection of rules and doctrine, but as a spiritual path—a path whose guideposts for spiritual wellness are sure to lead us to a more meaningful life and to a much richer experience of our faith. Joe Poprocki is the key note speaker for the Diocese of Metuchen Catechetical Conference on October 28, 2017.

MARRIAGE TUNE-UP

Not everything married couples say to each other is kind and gentle. Sometimes it's thorny or boring. Carve out 5 minutes (or more) for deep sharing today. Perhaps something like, "A fear, need, or joy I have is..."

PARENTING TUNE-UP

When speaking to your kids (or anyone) consider these proverbs: "It is better to leave angry words unspoken than to mend the heart those words have broken." and "The tongue is the only instrument that gets sharper with use." (Susan Vogt)

SUNDAY REFLECTION: PARENTING, ACT 1

The parable of the sower. Matthew 13: 1-23

Most nights after dinner, her 3 and 4-year-old daughters call, "Mom! We need you! Come dance with us!" After a few minutes of pleading, she joins them. The dancing is more jumping around and includes loud off-key singing and crazy hair-swinging. "What we lack in rhythm we more than make up for in laughter," she says, "and I love to see my little girls this way: joyful, silly, and happy to have me around.

But she knows this won't last forever. This is Act 1 in the parent-child relationship. Act 2 will begin in the blink of an eye: the day "when they will die of embarrassment to see me dancing and certainly will not in any way encourage me to do so." She remembers dancing with her mom, too, when she was a little girl. And singing in the car and snuggling up to her mom in bed when she read Little Woman and Little House on the Prairie. Act 1. Then came Act 2: shutting herself up in her room to listen to "her" music, reading on her own, preferring the company of her friends to time with her mom. She's already prepared herself for Act 2 with her two daughters.

But she's also discovered that there's a third act in the mother-daughter relationship. She remembers: "When I was in my early 20s and living in New York City, I went home for a long weekend to visit my parents in Maine. The dinner dishes were cleared, my dad had gone to bed, and it was just my mom and me sitting on the couch together, in our pajamas, chatting about what was new with her and me and her friends and my friends. I remember snuggling into her and her stroking my hair, just like she used to do when I was a child, as we talked and talked.

"During Act 3, we went to movies again, went shopping, even went on road trips together - just the two of us - to various destinations. We talked most days, laughed often, cried some, too. By that point I was my own person, but as luck would have it, I had grown into someone who loved having her around, just as I had when I was little. "And so, while I try to savor every hug, kiss, laugh, and sigh from my daughters, knowing that they'll never be this little again and they'll never again need me with the same intensity, I also try to keep in mind that with some luck, we'll have an Act 3 where we can all dance together once more."

The "three acts" of parenthood that Laura Shea Souza writes about are "seeds sown" by moms and dads in the course of their children's life: the seeds of patience, of understanding, of forgiveness, of compassion. The parable of the sower speaks especially to parents: that Mom and Dad's own example of selflessness and humility, of compassion and generosity, are "seeds" that are planted in the minds and hearts of their daughters and sons that will mature one day into their own harvest of generosity and forgiveness - and the "seeds" of that same harvest they will then "sow" in the lives of their own children.

BE A GOOD STEWARD OF YOUR LEISURE TIME

Stewardship calls us to nurture and care for God's gifts which include taking care of the gift that is ourselves. So, make leisure a priority this July. Simplify your activities and focus on relationships, resting, recreating, and enjoying the beauty of God's world. Ease up on planning the perfect party or barbecue and instead focus on the fun of everyone chipping in to spend time together. Give yourself space to be alone in the midst of summer's fun. Be healthy in eating and drinking. Scale down. Relax. Let go. Be spontaneous. Be a good steward of your leisure time. Bask in the glory of summer's long days. This will not only prove restorative but will reveal more acutely the blessings of God's creation and help us discover in new ways the wonder of our loved ones and ourselves.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

At Sea World, a boy absolutely refused to see the show featuring Shamu, the killer whale, but he wouldn't tell his parents why. No amount of discussion or persuasion could get him to change his mind. Later, when they got home, they discovered the reason for his reluctance. An aunt had told him how exciting the show would be because "They choose children from the audience to feed Shamu!"

A farmer and his pig were driving down the road when a cop pulled him over. The cop asked the farmer, "Didn't you know it is against the law to ride with a pig in the front of your truck?" The farmer replied, "No, I didn't know that." The cop asked the farmer where he was going and he said, "To Memphis". The cop said, "I will let you off the hook this time if you promise to take the pig to the zoo when you get to Memphis." So the farmer promised he would. Several days later the cop spotted the farmer with the pig driving down the road and he pulled him over again. The cop said "I thought I told you to take this pig to the zoo when you got to Memphis." The farmer replied, "I did and we had so much fun, I taking him to Kings Island now".

2017 CALIFON FARMER'S MARKET

Califon United Methodist Church and Califon Area Merchants and Professional Association (CAMPA) are once again joining together to co-sponsor a farmer's market in downtown Califon. The market will be held on the front lawn around the gazebo at Califon UMC situated next to the popular Top O' the Barn

Thrift Shop and overlooking the Raritan River. The next date will be July 22nd.
