Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist: Theresa Dressel, Abraham John, William Weimer, and Rosemary McCoy.

Deceased: Theresa Dressel, cousin of Anne Sacco, Abraham John, family friend of Fr. Abraham, William Weimer, father of Jane Varcadipane, and Rosemary McCoy, niece of Lou and Liz Livoti. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

We human beings experience a variety of hungers that God has placed within us. God wants us to satisfy not only our own hungers but also help others with the same. Thus today's readings invite us to become humble instruments in God's hands by sharing our blessings with our needy brothers and sisters. When physical hunger is satisfied, then we are challenged to satisfy the deeper hungers present in every human being: hunger for God, for love, mercy, forgiveness, companionship, peace and fulfillment.

The First Reading from the Second Book of Kings shows how God, through the prophet Elisha, fed about 100 people with 20 barley loaves. The Gospel is about Jesus feeding over five thousand people using a boy's gift of five barley loaves and two dried fish.

Both incidents tell us that God works marvels through ordinary people and meets the needs of people through the services provided by members of the community.

Our parish is an excellent model of this way of sharing. Our Social Ministry activities, Giving Tree opportunities, Shoebox ministry, Twinning with St. Mary's Parish in Coeburn, VA, change for change jars, SHIP and a host of other helping events and initiatives are testimony to our commitment as a parish to this mission of sharing and caring. It is so wonderful to see many families entering the Church with grocery bags for this very purpose. The produce from our Project Earth Garden has been enjoyed by the hungry brothers and sisters in the soup kitchens. Last Sunday evening, it was so encouraging to see few of our parishioners – Fred and Kristen Heimal, Liz and Lou Livoti and Anne Germino – getting soaked in the heavy downpour while picking the ripe blueberries to give to the poor and hungry.

What about hungers other than physical hunger? The Fathers of the Church recognized the miraculous feeding of Elisha as a type of, and prelude for, Jesus' feeding of the multitudes in today's Gospel, an event that itself foreshadowed Jesus' gift to us of Himself in the Eucharist, which continues to nourish believers. This nourishment is of a non-physical nature. People hunger for love and acceptance, for peace and justice, for healing and forgiveness, for friendship and fellowship. Our parish is certainly a community conscious of providing these too through the Bereavement Ministry, Prayer Ministry, Eucharistic Ministry for Home-bound, etc. On the one hand we can be grateful to God for the great sense of hospitality, acceptance and welcome that we all feel among ourselves as well as offer to guests and visitors who come here; but on the other hand, we need to make more efforts to reach out to those who are in the peripheries, those who silently carry many crosses, those who long for greater participation and acceptance. The prayer service that we will conduct here in our Church on August 31, (World Opioid Overdose Awareness Day), is a healing initiative in addition to what we already have with our other ministries to satisfy the deeper human hungers.

Yes, let us take another look around us and see how we can involve ourselves in our efforts to gratify both the physical and non-physical hungers of humanity around us.

Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Abraham Orapankal

URGENT !!! TAG SALE COORDINATORS NEEDED!

Seeking a few good men and women to coordinate this year's Tag Sale, scheduled for Saturday, September 24th. We need a couple of organizers and several strong people to assist with lifting furniture and other items. Please contact the parish office at 908-832-2513 or Marlene Milko / Susan Kuhn at fundraising@ccsjn.org to see how you can help! (Past organizers will be available to help offer guidance.)

SUMMER ENVELOPES...?

We sincerely thank our parishioners who mail or deliver their weekly envelopes to the parish office while they are out-of-town on vacations this summer. As many of you understand, our parish expenses and obligations do not take a vacation when you do, so it is very helpful to be able to rely on the continued support even when you cannot personally attend Mass here. May God bless you and your families. Have a safe and blessed summer.

YOUTH GROUP TUESDAY NITE VOLLEYBALL

17TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

July 29, 2018

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" JOHN 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes is the only miracle which is recorded six times in the Gospel. It carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. No gift is too small or insignificant!

9 HABITS OF STRONG CATHOLIC FAMILIES

Today's world supplies us with a chaos of ideas. It promotes anti-values and spreads ideas ridiculing the Catholic faith and virtues. The last 20 years was a period of unprecedented propaganda of mind mingling ideas emanating from many direct channels such as internet and TV networks. Like it or not, all of this is meant to reach every one of us, children especially, and it does literally disconnect children from family. Parents are replaced with a wide range of false idols offering alternative sets of so-called values. What's worse, such propaganda confuses even us parents! Consider incorporating one or all of these habits to strengthen the bonds within your family.

Internal compass - Deepen your understanding of the Catholic system of values and virtues. Learn about traditions and customs and share this knowledge with your family. Let these values and virtues become part of your daily life. Share stories with each other of successes and challenges during a family meal.

Common Cause - Create a family mission statement of vision around Catholic values. Set aside time periodically to check with each other on living the mission.

Be for real - Be your best version to your loved ones.

Two together-Make time as a couple and come back to the family renewed.

Kindness counts - promote random acts of kindness within the family to show and express love for each other.

Listen openly - Listen with your mind and heart, to hear what the other person is saying. Look for the common good in all situations.

Words that connect - Words are powerful they can connect or divide. Choose words wisely, look for words that communicate empathy and understanding.

Be joyful - Make time to play and laugh together!

Recharge - Respect the gifts given to you by the Lord. Make time to strengthen your spirit, body and soul.

BACK TO SCHOOL GIVING TREE

The Giving Tree is blooming with tags for Back to School items and gift cards! Please take a tag or two after Mass and then return the donations to the collection bin under the tree. All items must be returned to the Narthex by Sunday, August 19th. If you have any questions please contact JT Altavilla at 908-832-2943 or jt.altavilla@yahoo.com.

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY—YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE

Our next opportunity to assist the Interfaith Hospitality Network by helping families in Hunterdon County who find themselves in need of temporary housing will be July 29-August 5. Housing is provided by the Spruce Run Lutheran Church on Hill Road in Lebanon Township and there are many ways to help...

This is a great opportunity to help those less fortunate while school is not in session, and can be a great activity to do with friends, neighbors, scout groups and others looking to log some community service hours. If you have not volunteered before, we can arrange to have you paired with a more seasoned volunteer, and determine the best fit for where you would like to help. Check to see what time slots are available and what is needed by checking Sign Up Genius at this link: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30e054eafad22a20-family7> or contact Debbie Hunt at dhuntfaml@comcast.net for more info.

300-CALORIE-A-DAY DIET!

Some years ago I had a friend who was on a 300-calorie-a-day diet under a doctor's supervision. 300 calories! That boggles the mind! I inhale 300 calories just smelling the aroma of a good pizza. But my friend on the three-hundred-calorie-a-day diet lost sixty pounds, and as a result reached his near-ideal weight in a very short time. But one cannot subsist indefinitely on a 300-calorie-a-day-diet. Sooner or later there must come and end to the dieting, for starving oneself in this manner is highly dangerous. And it did happen that he became ill and the doctors told him to get off that austere diet! In like manner, to starve oneself spiritually can be equally dangerous. Perhaps that is what Jesus was getting at when He spoke those strange words in John, Chapter 6: "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." (John 6:35)

2018 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Lighting a Fire in the Heart of Our World

Thanks to the dedication of our faithful parishioners, pastors and parish appeal coordinators, we exceeded our Bishop's Annual Appeal goal for the second year in a row with pledges of over $7.8 million from nearly 26,000 households. Achieving our $7.2 million goal for the 2018 Appeal allowed us to distribute funds to the ministries as projected.

Your extraordinary generosity enables us to continue advancing our mission. Money raised over goal will help cover tuition costs for 6 more seminarians than originally budgeted for, address the needs of a growing number of retired clergy, and enhance our communication strategy. Thank you for also providing for these urgent needs. As you can imagine, the needs are great!

It's Not Too Late to Give: Donations are still being gratefully accepted for the 2018 Bishop's Annual Appeal. Money raised over goal will help provide for more urgent needs. A parish receives 50% of the amount collected over the parish goal. Parish rebates can be earned through October 2018, so there is still time to fulfill your pledge.

To see how Appeal funds are being allocated or to make a gift, go to <https://diometuchen.org/BAA>.

Your wonderful response is a reflection of our commitment as a diocesan family to bring Christ's message of hope and love to everyone we meet. Together we are Lighting a Fire in the Heart of Our World.

DID THIS MIRACLE REALLY HAPPEN AS NARRATED?

The traditional teaching of the Church is that Jesus literally multiplied the bread and fish to feed his hungry listeners. Let us look at some other interpretations and see their credibility. One: At the beginning of this century in his classic book, The Quest for the Historical Jesus, Schweitzer suggested that what we have here is a "sacrament" rather than a full meal. All the people received was the merest crumb of food, and yet, somehow, with Jesus present among them, it was enough. That, however, does not explain the baskets full of leftovers from the five loaves and two fish.

A few Bible scholars suggest that the "miracle" may be interpreted also as Jesus' success in getting a group of selfish people to share their personal provisions with others. According to this interpretation, it appears strange and unnatural that the crowd had made this nine-mile long expedition to such a desolate village without taking anything to eat. When people set out on a journey, they usually took their food with them in a small basket called a kophinah or in a bigger wicker basket. But if they had done so in this case, each one might have been unwilling to share what he had brought with others. If such were the case, Jesus might have deliberately accepted the five loaves and fish from the little boy in order to set a good example for the crowd. Moved by this example of generosity, the crowd might have done the same: thus, there could have been enough for all. This view was propounded by the famous preacher-novelist Lloyd C. Douglas, author of The Robe. This explanation argues that the real "miracle" occurred when the example of the boy responding to Jesus turned a crowd of selfish men and women into a fellowship of generous sharers. Again, such a fanciful interpretation fails to explain the huge left over bread! Rejecting both interpretations, we accept the literal interpretation of the miracle which makes the miracle a Messianic sign with Eucharistic reference, pointing to the Divinity of Christ and it offers an example of God's love for us, expressed in superabundant generosity.

MOVIE NIGHT

Our first Summer Movie Night happened last Friday. The movie, I Can Only Imagine was well received by over twenty parishioners who were in attendance. If you were not able to attend but are interested in that movie, email fkennedy@ccsjn.org, so we can schedule a second showing. Need to hear if there is interest.

ANY ADULTS INTERESTED IN VOLLEYBALL?

Sign up in the narthex or call or text France at 908-307-7879. We will throw together an evening game if there is interest.

MARRIAGE TUNE-UP

As you're listening to your beloved explain a problem, ask yourself: "Why is this important to them?" One challenge in marital communication is not understanding the emotion and motive behind the message. Ask questions, like: "What makes you feel that way?" (from Smart Marriages)

PARENTING TUNE-UP

"Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" (John 6: 5) Some families ask this question every day. Hopefully you have enough healthy food to eat - but not everyone does. Ask your children to join you in feeding the hungry this week through a donation, giving food or service to a food pantry, etc. (Susan Vogt)

SUNDAY REFLECTION: MARIA'S MITE FOR THE POOR

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" John 6: 1-15 (16-21)

Maria is a white woman in her late 50s. She cleans toilets at a major sports arena. Every day she comes to work lugging through the security line three duffel bags bursting with plastic Tupperware. She says little; she never smiles; she is dressed in whatever she can find at the St. Vincent de Paul thrift store. On this particular day, a new security guard is on duty when Maria comes to work. He gives Maria and her duffel bag of Tupperware the "all clear" and waves her through. After several days, the security guard asks, "Excuse me, ma'am, I'm just curious . . . what are these containers for?"

Maria's scowl quickly turns to a smile and begins to tell her story: Maria was homeless three years ago. For years, she lived under a highway overpass just a few miles from the arena. She spends her time outside of work caring for a sick friend who can barely move on his own. After every game, Maria fills the Tupperware in her duffel bags with leftover chicken fillets, burgers, and other uneaten treats. She brings it all to the homeless shelter where she used to stay. "The reason I took this cleaning job was so I could have access to all this leftover food," Maria explains. "Usually arenas just throw it away, but I know people would really enjoy it."

The security guard is moved by Maria's story - and generosity. "Maria, what keeps you going? What sustains you?" he asks. "The goodness of people," Maria says simply. "It's like a shade went up on my window. When I was homeless, all I could see was how bad I was inside and that I didn't deserve a good life. When the shade lifted, I could look outside myself. I saw goodness that I never saw before .. [I] just believe in a loving God and I'm doing my part to share the good news." [From "The examined life: What sustains you?" by Jessie Bazan, U.S. Catholic, May 2018.]

Like the boy in today's Gospel who gives the little he has, Maria makes use of the opportunities she has been given for the good of those who live in even harder circumstances. The multiplication of the loaves and fish did not start with nothing: Jesus was able to feed the crowds because one boy was willing to share what little he had; from his gift, small though it was, Jesus worked a miracle. Eucharist is possible only when self defers to community, only when serving others is exalted over being served, only when differences dissolve and the common and shared are honored above all else.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

More than just feet!: When visiting parishioners in a nursing home, Fr. John usually breaks the Consecrated Host while giving communion since many are ill and unable to eat the full Host. Once while visiting Mrs. Smith, he broke the Sacred Host and gave her a small piece. But she was upset and insisted: "I don't want just the feet of Christ! I want the whole body of Jesus Christ!"

"What would Jesus do?" I heard about a little boy who got into a heated argument with his sister about who was going to get the last brownie, and his mother overheard this discussion and came in to try to resolve the fuss. Her two children, both extremely upset, each wanted that last brownie. So, sensing the opportunity to teach a deeper spiritual truth, the mother looked at her children and asked that very relevant question..."What would Jesus do?" Well, that little boy immediately answered, "That's easy. Jesus would just break that brownie and make 5,000 more!"
