Mission Statement

Catholic Community of St. John Neumann

FOUNDED on the teachings of Jesus Christ,
NOURISHED by the hospitality of the Califon Christian Communities,
FORMED with a commitment to Social Ministry, and STRENGTHENED by the Holy Spirit

The Catholic Community of St. John Neumann is a jubilant people on a continuing spiritual journey of hope:
TO CELEBRATE and DEEPEN our faith
TO SHARE our unique gifts, talents and treasures
TO CHERISH all life
TO LIVE in openness, acceptance and love.

Annual Parish Goal

We, as ministers, will foster
an inviting and spiritual Catholic community for all,
especially to those away from the Church,
by growing in and witnessing to our faith in the mercy of God.

Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist: Josephine Marple, Silvia Bursit Romero, and William Holena.

Deceased: Josephine Marple, mother of Cyndy Behrens, and William Holena, cousin of Joe Stanski. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER: Nametags

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." John 13:31-33a, 34-35

She pins the nametag the admissions office has given her to her polo shirt with the school logo on it. Two years ago she was in their place: she was a new student, leaving home to begin the college chapter of her life. She knows those conflicting feelings of excitement in embarking on something new and fear that you might fail; anxious to be on your own — and anxious that you might crash and burn. But she made it safely and successfully through her first two years, and now the school has asked her to be part of the orientation for the incoming freshmen class. For her, this nametag is a sign of welcome and hope at all the possibilities before them.

He scribbles his name on the sticker. That in itself is an act of courage. But he wants people to know where he stands. He knows he will face a lot of heat for being part of this demonstration, but this issue speaks to his conscience and he knows he will regret not standing up for the poor, the disenfranchised, the vulnerable, the belittled. Just sticking this nametag to his jacket as the march begins is a call for justice.

Putting on nametags as they come into the house is a strange thing to do. They grew up in this house. Mom and Dad have lived here for most of their 50 years of marriage. Now they come back regularly, leaving their own families, to come home to help their mother. Dad has Alzheimer's and Mom wants him to be at home as long as possible. A few months ago they began wearing the nametags to help their dad remember: I'm Doreen, your daughter. I'm Richard, your son. Even: I'm Paul, your next-door neighbor. They can't help but tear up as they place the tags over their heads each time they visit, but they realize that wearing this nametag is the cost of love.

A simple thing like a nametag can be the sign of God's love in our midst: love lived by Jesus in his time among us, love perfected in his death and resurrection. Such love often asks us to do what is difficult and counter-intuitive, requiring of us a humility and generosity that places the needs of others before our own. In the Gospel, Jesus reveals a God of compassion and forgiveness, a God who breathes life into us and puts this marvelous creation into motion out of a love that is too complete and perfect to comprehend. In his "commandment" to love, Jesus articulates the only adequate, meaningful response we can make to God's love: to try to love as God loves. When we can see beyond our own fears and doubts, when we are able to embrace the needs and hopes of another — spouse, child, or friend — that love becomes a reality.

SPRING CLEANUP THANKS

Our Annual Spring Cleanup was a great success thanks to all who came out to help. We accomplished many of the tasks we set out to do. The windows at both the church and residence are washed. All of the pews in the Worship space were also washed. The benches were cleaned out and sorted. The Sacristy Closets, shelves and draws were organized. The kitchen pantry has been sorted and organized as well as the Food Pantry and closet in the Narthex. The Utility, Pump and Electrical Rooms were completely emptied, cleaned and rearranged. The Barn and the Tent Shed were emptied sorted, purged of old and broken items and reorganized. The Archive Room has been relocated to another space which is better suited for the contents and more.

We would like to thank the following people who helped with the many tasks that needed to be done. Dave Baumann & Rachel, Maggie Baumann, Bill Behrens, Veronica & Casey Bush, Mary & Pete Cangelosi, Mary & Mike Connolly, Veronica Drucker, Nadine Fotta, Barbara Gates, Fred & Kristen Heimall, Brent Herrig, Wayne Infusino, France Kennedy, Jennifer Anderson & Ray Klacik, Tom Klawunn, Kasia, Klaudia & Kristian Kowaleski, Liz & Lou Livoti, Sharon Lohrmann, Barbara & Bob Martalus, Jim & Joann Murray, Art Owens, Barbara Pannone, Hunt & Linda Patterson, Abigail Rogers, Jenna Schimanski, Ann, Alex & Ryan Senger, Annette Uss. Hopefully we haven't forgotten anyone. Know that we thank you all!

PASTOR'S CORNER

The Auction/Dinner Dance is coming on June 1st. We are counting on everyone's participation to support the parish.

I am looking forward to my first Mass under the Tent, early at 4pm. I Hope to see you at the Auction.

God Bless,
Fr. Rick

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 19, 2019

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34)

It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes strength and courage to love someone when we feel unappreciated, used or feel our opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage to "love my neighbor" when he may be someone I don't like, someone I don't know or someone that doesn't look like me.

PART-TIME RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DIRECTOR

Renee Ciszewski will be moving to New Brunswick, we have begun our search for a new Religious Education Director to oversee our GIFT Family Formation Program and guide our Sacramental preparations. Office hours are flexible. If you are interested, please contact Father Rick at 832-2513 or frick@ccsjn.org.

TAI CHI

Ever wanted to try Tai Chi? Now is the time. A new 6 week session is starting May 15th at 6:30pm in the Church. Tai Chi tones muscles, improves your balance and helps improve meditation focus techniques.

NOTES FROM THE OFFICE

- We are looking for a slightly used pull out couch for use upstairs in the office building.
- There are many platters and plates and other kitchen items on the table in the Church Kitchen. Please see if any of them belong to you.
- Someone left a charger on the Fab 5 table in the Narthex the day of Spring Cleaning. We have it in the office, so give us a call if it is yours.

Christian Formation

2019-2020 GIFT FAMILY FAITH REGISTRATION

Please visit the parish office for new student registration, and contact Renee Ciszewski at reneec@ccsjn.org. If you have your forms from our April session. They can be returned completed with payment to the parish office. Completed forms and payment are due by June 30, 2019

GOD BLESS OUR CONFIRMANDI

"For I know the plans that I have for you,' declares the LORD, 'plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope."

Jeremiah 29:11

Please return your rice bowls to the church narthex in the CRS collection box and Thank you for your generous participation! For it is in giving that we receive.

OUR COMMUNITY SPRING GIVING TREE

Once again this year we are helping the Three Agencies that we provide for with Our Spring Giving Tree. Please read and follow the instructions regarding our collection of items. Please bring in your items by June 2nd. We thank you in advance for your support of all our endeavors to assist the needy.

SPRING PLANTING--PROJECT EARTH GARDEN

Join us in the garden on Saturday May 18 from 10 am to 5 pm for spring planting. Come for a little while or stay the whole day as we begin the 2019 growing season. All ages are welcome! The produce grown in the Project Earth Garden is donated to local soup kitchens and food banks. Contact Anne at projectearth@ccsjn.org for more information.

COMMUNITY GARDEN BEDS STILL AVAILABLE

We are filling up quickly but there are still some garden beds available in the Community Garden at St. John's. Contact Anne at projectearth@ccsjn.org for more information or to sign up.

THE BIGGEST LIE BOOK DISCUSSION

May 21 at 7:30pm

Have you read the parish book from Christmas "The Biggest Lie"? We are having a book discussion on May 21 in the Office Upper Room, all are welcome! The focus will be on the end of the book to discuss transformation during this Easter season. So pick up the book, it is a quick read and worth the look.

PUT YOURSELF IN THIS PICTURE:

It is normal weekday and you have to get up for work. What kind of expectation do you think you will have? Probably nothing different than most every other weekday,-breakfast, commuting, work, dinner, bedtime. Nothing special. Now imagine winning a an all-expense paid week at a resort. How do you think you will wake up on the day of your departure? Probably excited, right? Maybe you are anticipating lots of days in the sun, gourmet meals, and a seemingly endless array of new adventures waiting for you. That's quite a different set of expectations, isn't it? Let's apply this kind of thinking to our spiritual lives: What are your expectations this Easter season? Are they ordinary or high? Are you thinking, "Well, Lent is over I had a good Easter. Now it's time to get back to my routine"? Or are you expecting God to draw you even closer to him this Easter season and help you experience even more of his life and his love?

HOW TO ANSWER THE PHONE LIKE A GROWN-UP . . .

The phone rings for the sixth time in less than an hour. She knows who it is. It's her mother — again. It's 8 o'clock on a cold spring night. It has been a long day: her five-year-old has been a handful since she got up, and she has been on crutches for seven weeks, recovering from surgery.

A stroke claimed her mother's brain, leaving her dogged by paranoia and in a fog of dementia. Every call is a challenge: the same conversation again and again, the same reassurance that her mom is not be evicted from her home, the same insisting that she had just been to see her mother just the day before.

She held it together for the first five calls, but she doesn't think she can handle a sixth. But she picks up the phone again. Her patience deserts her and she quickly finds herself yelling at her mother—or the woman who used to be her mother.

Worn out, she flops on the couch, frustrated and angry—at herself.

That's when her five-year old comes over and asks, "Can I talk to Grandma Ellie?"

She hands over the phone to her daughter.

"Hi Grandma!"

She hears her mother exclaim through the receiver.

"Sweetheart! How are you? Did you go to school today?"

What is this? All she said was "Hi Grandma" and her mother sounds like a person fully alert to the heartbeat of a normal day.

"Yes Grandma, and today was share day and I brought my Wonder Woman bracelets."

"Can you put it on speaker?" she whispers to her daughter.

She obliges, and out of the phone comes a waterfall of good cheer. Her mother tells her how much she loves her and how lovely her voice sounds. Then:

"I hope I'll see you soon?" Her mother makes her plea for a promise of companionship.

She hears her mother's voice differently now. She softens as she watches her little girl handle her fragile grandmother with such deftness.

"Oh, that's wonderful darling!"

"Tell me, did you go to school today?" She already asked that, but her daughter doesn't miss a beat.

"Yes Grandma, I went to school and we had share day. I brought my Wonder Woman bracelets."

"You did? How wonderful!"

"Do you want me to sing you a song? I know three songs from 'Annie'."

And then the little girl sings.

It is an epiphany for her:

"I listen to my daughter crooning to her grandmother, caring for her with exquisite patience. I spend so much time wishing she had a 'real' grandmother, wishing she knew my 'real' mother. In this moment, I see that she does have a real grandmother, and she does have a real relationship with her . . .

"When they hang up, after many kissing noises, I tell my daughter it is bath time. She wildly protests, but I draw the bath anyway. I am still Mommy after all, and she is still five.

"And yet tonight, she taught me how to answer the phone like a grown-up."

Jesus' commandment to love can be most difficult when it comes to those we love most: when our patience is all but gone, when our hurt is most raw, when our frustration and exhaustion make us most susceptible to striking back. But, as this mom learns from her five-year-old, patient, humble, generous love grows stronger the more it is tested, endures and remains steadfast the more it is pulled, continues to heal and forgive the more it is engaged. Our very identity as disciples of Christ is centered in such persistent and constant love; our faithfulness in imitating the compassion and forgiveness of the Risen One is lived in our openness of heart and spirit to love selflessly, completely and unconditionally, as God has loved us in his Christ.

MAKING A PRAYER REQUEST AT ST. JOHN'S

Prayer is the way we talk with and listen to God, and the St. John Neumann Prayer Ministry is here to support you in times of need. If you would like the Prayer Ministers to include your request in their prayers, there are three ways to reach out to them:

- Fill out a Prayer Request Card, which can be found at the Prayer Station in the Church. It is located on the left side as you enter the Church proper from the Narthex.
- Email prayerministry@ccsjn.org..
- Call the Parish Office at 908-832-2513 and speak with someone about your request

All requests for confidentiality are honored, and should be noted when making the request. We all know how powerful prayer can be, and many have experienced the peace, guidance, healing and answers to their needs that prayer can bring. As a community we support one another in prayer.

CATHOLIC HEART WORKCAMP OPENINGS

Due to some recent cancellations, we have spots open for CHWC this summer. We are going to Dover, Delaware from Sunday, June 23 to Friday, June 28. If you are currently in 8th grade through Senior in high school you are eligible to attend. If you'd like more information, please contact Mary Connolly at mndmconnolly@gmail.com or 908-930-0784.

BECOME A ST. JOHN'S PRAYER MINISTER

All parishioners are invited to become a St. John's Prayer Minister. This is a calling that is available to everyone: the young, senior citizens, those with busy lives, and anyone who is looking for a way to serve the parish community in a prayerful way. You will receive a monthly Email with prayer requests, and additionally as requests are made, which include those who have been recommended to the Prayer Ministry. We ask that you integrate the requests into your regular prayer practice. Please contact Bonnie Garcia (at bonniegarcia210@yahoo.com) if you are interested, or have any questions regarding this special ministry.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

- People are funny. They want the front of the bus, the middle of the road, and the back of the church.
- Many folks want to serve God, but only as advisers.
- A Bible that is falling apart probably belongs to someone who isn't.
