THANK YOU

St. John's would like to make a special thank you to Artemis Fraine (and Phoenix) for her help in the office this summer. She has been volunteering her time until she will return to college in a couple of weeks. Thank you, again, for your generous gift of your time and help.

Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist: Barry Catanzareti, Jennie Melhem, Heinz Barben, Fr. Cannice Dooly, and Joan Marie Mignogno.

Deceased: Barry Catanzareti, father of Mary D'Avella; Jennie Melhem, mother of Nadima Melhem; Heinz Barben and Fr. Cannice Dooly, friends of the Nacamuli Family; and Joan Marie Mignogno, cousin of Jim Simila. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may their families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

21ST SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME: "Hitting the hole"

"Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough."

Luke 13: 22-30

"... ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for 18 long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?"

Luke 13: 10-17

In football, it's called "hitting the hole."

The "hole" is created by offensive blockers who move defenders out of the way to clear a path for the running back carrying the ball. The running back has to attack the "hole" with as much speed, ferocity and determination as possible. No matter how narrow the "hole," if you see daylight, you run toward it.

Countless hours of practice are spent by offensive lines in creating the "hole" and runners in learning to bob and weave and jump through that "hole." Backs who are too cautious, who hesitate to put their bodies on the line to make it through, who are too easily shoved back short of the "hole" have very short careers in the NFL.

To score in football you have to be able to "hit the hole."

Call it the "hole," call it the "narrow door," but anything worth devoting our time and resources to, every situation we want to change for the better, every dream and goal we want to realize in our lives can only happen through the "door" or "hole" of hard, dedicated, selfless work. The "narrow door" that Jesus speaks of is the demanding path of limitless love, unconditional forgiveness, sacrificial selflessness; it can only be entered by letting go of our fears, our control, our pride, our self-absorption. By struggling through the "narrow door," we move beyond easy answers and immediate gratification to discover the meaning and purpose of this life God has given us. And, more often than not, we can be the means for creating the "hole" for someone else to clear.

PASTOR'S CORNER

We still need teachers for Religious Education. This is one of the most important ministries in the entire Church. Passing on the faith is our call as disciples of the Lord Jesus. Please, pray about this in your own personal life. You don't need to think that teaching the faith to youth requires a complete knowledge base of the faith. Each class has the books guided by the requirements of the Diocese of Metuchen. Working with the material requires only a generous heart that wants to share a love of the Lord with young people!

God Bless,
Fr. Rick

21ST SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

August 25, 2019

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last."

(Luke 13:30)

Our standards in society are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, "what have you done with the gifts I have given you?" How will you respond?

MAKING A PRAYER REQUEST AT ST. JOHN'S

Prayer is the way we talk with and listen to God, and the St. John Neumann Prayer Ministry is here to support you in times of need. If you would like the Prayer Ministers to include your request in their prayers, there are three ways to reach out to them:

- Fill out a Prayer Request Card, which can be found at the Prayer Station in the Church. It is located on the left side as you enter the Church proper from the Narthex.
- Email prayerministry@ccsjn.org.
- Call the Parish Office at 908-832-2513 and speak with someone about your request

All requests for confidentiality are honored, and should be noted when making the request. We all know how powerful prayer can be, and many have experienced the peace, guidance, healing and answers to their needs that prayer can bring. As a community we support one another in prayer.

Prayer Ministry

BE A LIVING WORD

It's through our actions that we show people what it means to live the good news. It's in the rough-and-tumble of everyday life that the Spirit can make us into living words of God. How does this happen? Think about your own experience of faith. Recall the people who have taken you under their wings, especially when you were struggling or felt directionless. God gave them to you so that you could see what it looks like to live for him. Their commitment to prayer and their willingness to care for you touched you and drew you to the Lord. Let the examples of these people teach you how to be a living word yourself. Look for small ways to reach out to the people in your life, and believe that God will bless you. Even a tiny act of love can soften a heart.

"Jesus, help me to become your living word."

Reflections like this are found in The Word Among Us. Pick up a copy from the Narthex.

A DELAYED MEETING

Every day the pastor of a busy Pittsburgh parish saw them walk by the church: a stooped-over woman with a scarf around her hair, shuffling alongside the man and their dog. But the pastor realized one day that he hadn't seen her for a while. Now it was just the old man and the old black lab, both getting on in years.

All these years the pastor saw the old man, he would wave, and then get on to the next service or meeting. He never saw the man or woman in church.

One day the pastor was running late. Getting out of his car and rushing into the building, he found himself directly in the path of the man and his dog on their daily walk. He hustled past the old man with a quick, "Hi, how ya doing?" The old man stood there looking at the pastor with yellowed eyes and said nothing. The pastor had a choice: get to his important meeting or be a real minister who stops, turns around, introduces himself and asks this man about his missing wife. The pastor decided to keep moving — and felt terrible for the rest of the day.

A few weeks later, the pastor saw the man again. The pastor stopped and began an apology he had been rehearsing since that afternoon. But the old man interrupted him with a waving hand and said, "I know how busy you folks are 'cause I see all the cars around this church all the time."

The pastor couldn't accept his kindness and continued to apologize for his rudeness. He apologized for not knowing his name after all these years and gently asked about the woman who used to walk with him. The old man smiled and glanced up at the bare winter tree limbs. "That was my wife. She died a while back. Now it's just ol' Sancho and me. But we're getting along pretty well," and jiggling the leash, added, "Aren't we, boy?"

They continued to talk a bit, like neighbors. As they talked, the old man looked at the pastor with those yellow eyes and seemed to sense the clergyman's quandary.

"I've never been a churchgoing kind of guy. It seems hypocritical to start now that I'm so close to being dead myself. Still, it's a comfort knowing that I live near people who believe in stuff like heaven. I lean a lot these days . . . if you know what I mean."

The pastor understood. And he understood in a way he hadn't before what it meant to "love your neighbor," what it meant to be Jesus' disciple, what it meant to be a pastor.

This pastor learned a powerful lesson about both being church and living the sabbath. Our very reason for being a church is centered in the compassion and peace of the Gospel Jesus who gathered us together as the people of God. And the sabbath — the day God sets aside as a day of thanksgiving — is most fittingly observed as a day to express such holy gratitude in works of generosity as well as words of praise. In today's Gospel, Jesus' healing of the woman does not undermine the holiness of the sabbath — on the contrary, Jesus' action irrevocably links sabbath prayer and ritual to the unlimited and unconditional mercy of God; Jesus' action underscores the call of the synagogue community to be more than a place of ritual observance but a place where the mercy and peace of God are found by all who come to its door. May our church be such a community of peace; may the sabbath spirit of grateful praise extend into every day of our busy week.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

A woman took her three year-old granddaughter, Denise, to her church's Thanksgiving celebration. Cans and boxes of food and pumpkins were stacked around the altar; and she explained to Denise that the food was for poor people who didn't have enough to eat.

When the Choir began to process toward the altar, Denise cried out: "Look Grandma! Here come the poor people now!"

Parish & Diocesan News

DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

If you have ever considered becoming Catholic or know someone who may be interested, there is a process to help you discern whether it is what you want to do. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation. Every year teams in parishes meet with unbaptized persons and those baptized into other faiths to discuss and learn about the Catholic faith. The first stage is called Inquiry and simply put, is a time for you to ask any and all questions about God and the church. This is the period to help you find out if you are interested in becoming Catholic. So please don't think you have to know this is what you want to do. The Inquiry phase helps in that discernment. Please contact France Kennedy if you would like to find out more. Phone 908-832-2513, text: 908-307-7879, or email fkennedy@ccsjn.org.
