Deceased: Ruth Shump, mother of Carol Crescenti and Betty Legg, friend of the Janks Family. May they find peace and comfort in the embrace of the Lord and may thier families find strength in the Lord and comfort and support from family and friends.

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: Tiger's comeback

"No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what is left behind is fit for the Kingdom of God."
Luke 9: 51-62

Whether you play golf or not, you had to cheer for Tiger Woods' extraordinary comeback at this year's Masters' Tournament. The 43-year-old golfer pulled off what many are calling the greatest comeback in sports history. Tiger Woods' winning his fifth Masters' title and 15th major tournament by one stroke ended a decade-long championship drought.

Between his 14th and 15th victories, Tiger Woods suffered a devastating series of personal and physical defeats: his infidelity cost him his marriage and made his life fodder for the tabloids; he tore ligaments in his knee, and a series of back operations left him in agonizing pain and addicted to prescription painkillers.

What turned Woods around, he said, was his children's "infectious happiness." In their own way, ten-year-old Charlie and 11-year-old Samantha got their dad back on top. They loved him unconditionally and completely. Until this year, Charlie and Samantha had never been to Augusta. They knew that their father was a legend in the sport, but they only saw the tension and despair it brought him, not the glory. Woods was determined to recover and return to the top of his game — but by balancing his competitive drive with his dedication to Charlie and Samantha.

While pundits doubted he'd ever play again, his commitment never wavered. What many fail to appreciate is the patience required to do what Tiger did: the long hours in the gym and on the golf course to regain his physical stamina and focus. But through his darkest days of hopelessness, of working through the kind of infuriating physical pain that back injuries create, the unqualified love and support of his family kept him pushing forward in his rehab — not for the sake of the sport, but for the sake of his family; not to be a great golfer, but to be a great father.

"I was very fortunate to be given another chance to do something that I love," Tiger said, after donning his fifth Masters' green jacket. "But more importantly, I've been able to participate in my kids' lives in a way I couldn't for a number of years."

Jesus' responses to the three would-be disciples sound, at first, insensitive, almost cruel. But Jesus is challenging us to recognize that discipleship requires us to make clear, unambiguous choices and set focused priorities if we are to realize in our lives God's vision of compassion, peace and justice. Consciously or unconsciously, we let so many agendas, interests and expectations monopolize our time and attention and energy to the point where we lose sight of what is authentically important and affirming and meaningful in our lives. To follow Jesus requires us to let go of our own needs and wants, our fears and doubts, in order to free ourselves to do truly great things for the love of God.

COME EXPLORE JOHN'S GOSPEL !

Register to enjoy the Gospel of John this summer! We are excited to offer this scripture video series on this intriguing gospel - your very own Vacation Bible School! BOOK OF INTENTIONS

You are invited to include your prayer intentions in the Book of Intentions at the prayer station on the left as you enter the worship space. You can include the names of someone who has passed, someone who is ill, or a prayer for someone in need. We have renamed the book of Remembrance to be more inclusive of our prayer needs.

PASTOR'S CORNER

The Church has entered "Ordinary Time" which will take us all the way to December when the Season of Advent begins. The Spirituality of this Liturgical Season is the "Formation of the Disciple." These are the weeks that we, the disciples of the Lord, open our lives to the teachings of Jesus. The direction of these weeks is to listen deeply and apply the Gospel message to our everyday lives. May we all take the time to "sit at the feet of the Lord" and be renewed by His Word!

God bless us all!

Fr. Rick

13TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

June 30, 2019

"For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." (Galatians 5:13)

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

NOTES FROM THE GARDEN

The strawberry harvest at St. John's was great! Many, many quarts of strawberries were delivered fresh to Elijah's Promise Soup Kitchen, SHIP soup kitchen in Somerville and the guests of the Interfaith Hospitality Network who were hosted by Spruce Run Lutheran and St. John's last week. Another 20 quarts have been harvested in the last few days. They have been frozen and will make delicious desserts for the soup kitchen in the coming months. The blueberry bushes are loaded with fruit. Plan to join us for the harvest! The first snap peas came in this week and many other vegetables are well on the way. Come out and see what is growing in the garden. Spend some quiet time and enjoy the gifts of God's earth.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE PENNUCCI FAMILY

St. John Neumann's welcomes Elizabeth Pennucci into the faith community! Elizabeth was baptized on June 2. We join her parents, Mike and Danielle in celebration.

TAG SALE AND TRICKY TRAY LEADERS NEEDED

We are looking for volunteers to run both the Tag Sale and the Tricky Tray. Both of these are important fundraisers for St. John's.

The Tag Sale is usually the 3rd Weekend of September and runs along with the Califon Town Wide Tag Sale. They say one person's junk is another person's treasure and this is a great way for you to clean out your basement or garage and it would be sold at the tag sale. The proceeds would then go to St. John's for this fundraiser.

The Tricky Tray is usually held in October. The date can be selected with your availability in mind. This event has been lots of fun in the past. There is something for everyone of all ages to be won. There are door prizes and the kitchen will be open to purchase refreshments.

We need your help! We do have previous volunteers for both events who can guide you through the process and teams of parishioners who are always ready to help. Call the office 908-832-2513 or email snj@ccsjn.org if you are interested or have any questions.

Would you like to volunteer?
Call us today! We need you! ©JPPC

EVENING OF THE SOLSTICE

Fifteen gathered last week on the solstice to enjoy a pause from everyday life. The evening offered a options for individuals to spend time with God. After walking the labyrinth, adoration in the Eucharist Chapel and journaling we enjoyed a short faith sharing, sharing food and spiritual conversation. We plan to offer another evening later in July. If you are interested in the next evening contact kennedy@ccsjn.org.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

- Some people just can't enjoy life; the first half of their lives are spent blaming their troubles on their parents and the second half on their children.
- "Young man, the secret of my success is that at an early age I discovered I was not God."
Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.

Prayer Ministry

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

We can be like the characters in this week's reading. We want to follow Jesus wherever he is going, but some of us are not as ready as others. Others are unwilling to leave the comfort of the known to enter the wide and unknown world of discipleship. Jesus does not know where he is going to sleep that night, much less where he is going to find a meal. Thankfully, we know that God is patient. God keeps on calling. God is the proverbial "hound of heaven" who continually invites us into discipleship and service. God will keep calling. The next time God calls you, pause before you respond. Get beyond the "Yes, but first" and just say yes. Lord, you lead, and I will follow.

Reflections like this are found in The Word Among Us. Pick up a copy from the Narthex.

BAPTISM

Anyone who is expecting a birth of a child or have a child to be baptized contact France Kennedy this week at fkennedy@ccsjn.org or (908-832-2513) to register for the preparation program and discuss arrangements.
