Mission Statement

Catholic Community of St. John Neumann
FOUNDED on the teachings of Jesus Christ,
NOURISHED by the hospitality of the Califon Christian Communities,

FORMED with a commitment to Social Ministry, and STRENGTHENED by the Holy Spirit

The Catholic Community of St. John Neumann is a jubilant people on a continuing spiritual journey of hope:
TO CELEBRATE and DEEPEN our faith
TO SHARE our unique gifts, talents and treasures
TO CHERISH all life
TO LIVE in openness, acceptance and love.

Annual Parish Goal

We, as ministers, will foster
an inviting and spiritual Catholic community for all,
especially to those away from the Church,
by growing in and witnessing to our faith in the mercy of God.

Remembered at Mass

We stand together in the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. The following will be remembered during the Holy Eucharist: Dawn Farley and Paul Vitale.

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT: Portraits of a small Southern Town

Jesus heals the man born blind.

John 9: 1-41

Newnan is a small city 40 miles southwest of Atlanta. It prides itself on its quiet charm and small-town friendliness. But the good people of Newnan were stunned two years ago when a neo-Nazi group decided to hold a rally against illegal immigration and the removal of Confederate monuments. The leader of the group said they preferred to hold the rallies in predominately white towns. As it happened, only a few dozen white nationalists attended the rally.

But the experience made the residents of Newnan realize how much their little city had changed in the 21st century — and many in the community wanted to embrace that change. So, a year after the fizzled Nazi rally, the town put up 17 large-scale banner portraits: images of the ordinary people who make up Newnan.

The banners hang from brick buildings around downtown. There's Helen, an African-American woman who for years worked at a sewing factory. There's Jineet, a waitress who arrived in Newnan carrying her Mexican traditions and dreams. There's Wiley, a white factory worker who packed blankets at a local mill until his death in 2017. And there's Aatika and Zahraw, sisters born in Georgia of Pakistani parents — both girls wearing hijabs in their portrait.

The portraits were meant to be inclusive, to upend preconceptions and unravel cocoons people had created within the community. The portraits did that — but also exposed old tensions and the suspicions of Newnan's newest citizens. Newnan's population has grown from 12,000 twenty-five years ago to almost 40,000 today. The group that commissioned the banners knew that the picture of the two Muslim sisters would be especially controversial, but they refused to pander to irrational fears.

The portraits, which will hang in Newnan until June, have already had a lasting effect on the town, prompting deep conversations between people who had never met. "The truth is, these conversations are hard and uncomfortable and awkward but we need to lean into it," points out the pastor of the local Presbyterian church says.

One of the community leaders who commissioned the installation concurs.

"People needed to open their eyes and see what a beautiful diverse place we live in."

Just as the Newnan community came to realize, the "light of truth" both illuminates — and blinds. It reveals the love of God in our midst, but in that same light, our unChrist-like behaviors and attitudes are seen for what they are. What we "see" in the light of Christ can be difficult to realize: suddenly we see beyond labels and stereotypes, self-interest and old scores to recognize the love of God we have failed to see or have refused to see. This Lent may we dare to embrace the light of God in his Christ, a vision of faith that illuminates the darkness of selfishness and hatred with the light of justice and compassion.

DIRECTIVES ISSUED BY BISHOP CHECCHIO IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19 AS OF MARCH 16, 2020

Our Lord is with us through this all. As the coronavirus pandemic evolves, we must remember that Our Lord sacrificed Himself for us, and He does not abandon us in our need.

Lent reminds us of this and draws us closer to Him through our own sacrificial practices. We did not know what sacrifices this Lent would bring as we began Lent this year. We pray that the joys of Easter will likewise be heightened for us too! The Catholic faithful of the Diocese – priests, religious and lay faithful – are advised to keep informed and updated regarding the progress of the coronavirus pandemic during this global, national and state emergency. We will continue to monitor the situation and continue to communicate with you. As the situation evolves, more resources & updates will continue to be posted on our diocesan website: <https://diometuchen.org/coronavirus>; and on our social media pages: @diometuchen.

I continue to ask that you avoid crowded areas, maintain good hygiene practices, keep appropriate distances outside the home and if feeling sick, stay at home. I ask that all the faithful remember the elderly and other persons at risk in their families and communities, and reach out to them by phone to see if help is needed. Out of concern for the safety and health of our local community, I have asked that the following directives be implemented no later than March 18, 2020:

Temporary Suspension of Public Masses

All public Masses throughout the Diocese of Metuchen will be temporarily suspended beginning no later than March 18 and resume no earlier than April 3, 2020, when the situation will be re-evaluated as circumstances unfold. Despite the suspension of public Masses, a private Mass will be celebrated daily at 7 a.m. in the Cathedral of Saint Francis of Assisi and can be viewed at that time on their website: <http://www.stfranciscathedral.org>. Televised or online celebrations of the Mass and other religious programming are available for use of the faithful on several television channels.

Since the Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life, all priests of the Diocese of Metuchen must celebrate Mass privately for the good of all the Christian faithful entrusted to their care and for all people during this critical time. Priests are reminded of the obligation to offer Mass for the intentions of those who have made an offering for the Mass. Weekday and other Masses can still be celebrated to fulfill intentions but, the faithful should not be present.

Remember the words of Jesus to the Twelve as they were tossed on the waves of an uncertain sea, "It is I. Do not be afraid" (John 6:20). The Lord is faithful and always calls on us to trust. With such a situation, we are called to more prayer, as are all of the faithful.

Please note that this is a fluid situation. We do not know how long the restrictions imposed on New Jersey residents will be in effect. Please be patient and look for regular updates from the Diocese of Metuchen. For the latest up-to-date information and resources, please visit <https://diometuchen.org/coronavirus>.

PASTOR'S CORNER

These are very difficult times with the virus so please, make sure that you read the Bishops Directives. It is very upsetting that we have to suspend the celebration of Public Mass but let us commit ourselves to daily prayer for the world at this time. As the Bishop has stated this is a very fluid situation and we will take things as they unfold. Together as God's family we walk through this together trusting in the love of our Heavenly Father.

God Bless
Fr. Rick

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

March 22, 2020

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart."

(1 Samuel 16:7)

How often do we invest our time, talent, and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car, and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent, and treasure here on earth.

WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT

Although we are not coming to Mass Weekly at this time, we are asking our parishioners to please continue to donate if possible. Our donations are all we have to sustain us and this will be a difficult time for all. One suggestion is to use our on-line giving program as listed below.

COMMUNITY GARDEN SIGN-UP

Sign-ups for a raised bed in the community garden for the 2020 growing season will take place in the Narthex on April 18 and 19 after all of the weekend Masses. We have 32 beds available--28 traditional 'low' beds and 4 'high' beds for those who have physical limitations. There is no monetary charge to use a bed but each member will be required to contribute 12 service hours of help in the garden. If you have any questions or need more information contact Anne Germino at project-earth@ccsjn.org.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS SCHOLARSHIPS

The Knights of Columbus St. Joseph Council offers high school seniors who are parishioners of St. John Neumann Church, an opportunity to apply for a Joseph F. Labuta scholarship.

You may access the scholarship by accessing <http://kofc10627.org> and following these directions—Click “Programs & Activities” on the left menu—Click “SCHOLARSHIPS” under “Family & Youth Activities” on the right menu—Click the “Scholar Cap” icon to access the St. John Neumann Scholarship criteria and document needs.

Deadline for qualifying students is May 1, 2020. The address to send the completed scholarship is: Knights of Columbus #10627, 59 Main Street, High Bridge, NJ 08829. All information on submission of the application is included. Good luck to all applicants.

PASTORAL COUNCIL MINUTES: MARCH 9, 2020

In Attendance: Father Rick, Tom Klawunn, JoAnn Murray, Hunt Patterson, Bob Sobey, Gary Cucchiara, Joe Stanski & PPC candidate Regina DeStefano

Prayer/Reflection: Hunt Patterson

Five Year Plans:

Stewardship Committee members Anthony DeStefano and Sharon Lohrmann presented. Over the past year, Stewardship coordinated the revised Parish Directory and two Stewardship Weekends. With only two people, it is felt there is no need for the committee moving forward, as things can be done on a volunteer basis. For example, ministries independently schedule their own coffees.

New Business:

Some parishioners thought that passing the plastic bowls is not a good idea. It was suggested that bowls be placed inside the Narthex doors so that offerings can be dropped when entering or leaving.

Old Business:

Stewardship Weekend – Four (4) new Pastoral Council members will be needed to replace retiring members JoAnn Murray, Lynn Johnson, Hunt Patterson and Tom Klawunn. New members are installed at Pentecost, which falls on May 31st.

Parishioners who expressed interest through this weekend include Mike Connolly, Jim Oelkers, Brent Herrig, Kathleen Swindler, Regina DeStefano and Regina Farrell. There are two more meetings for them to sit in on to see what we do and determine if they would like to join for 3 years.

Additional Handicapped Spot – Will Property Management get an estimate? Was sponsorship of a handicap spot as a fundraiser item referred to Fundraising? More is needed on this.

Pastor's Items of Business:

There has been no word from Deacon Enoch concerning Legion of Mary presentation dates.

AED training was discussed, it needs to be determined if there is there sufficient coverage? April 26th training is scheduled at St. Joe's.

PPC Ministry Liaison Reports:

Fundraising reported the beer tasting on May 3rd has been postponed / cancelled.

Next Meeting: April 13th, Tom Klawunn or Lynn Johnson

Closing Prayer: Hunt Patterson

THE PRECIPICE

On Christmas Day 2011, Gary Gately was clutching the railing of Manhattan's George Washington Bridge, staring into the cold, black waters of the Hudson River — and into the face of eternity. Depression, addiction, a marriage that disintegrated all drove him to the precipice.

But Gately did not jump off the bridge ten Christmases ago — and, to this day, he ponders why he didn't.

For seven years Gary Gately kept the darkness of his depression to himself, save for family and close friends. But now, in the wake of our nation's suicide epidemic, the award-winning Baltimore-based journalist whose work has appeared in The New York Times and The Washington Post has decided to tell his story. Suicides have surged 30 percent since 1999 and now claim an average of 202 Americans a day, more than two and a half times as many lives as homicides.

So what happened that made him climb down from the precipice that Christmas day — and what enables him to continue on, day after day?

Gately writes in America Magazine [November 11, 2019] that he thinks it was the "sunset, my son's whispers echoing, I love you, Dad, and a ghost, that of an editor who died in 2010, Anne Zusy. Sunset over the Hudson paints Englewood Cliffs all oranges and crimsons and purples, and I just gaze at it, savoring the beauty of last light. Then I look to the Manhattan skyline, and my mind meanders to interning at The New York Times. I hear the voice of Annie, echoing through the decades. Annie, the editor who had hired me and mentored me and saved me so many times, is saying: 'Look, don't worry, O.K.? Have some fun. You're not meant to be miserable. God loves you, and he wants you to be happy . . .'

Gately writes that "only light can pierce this darkness, and only love can shine that light. That means people who care — even when you have given them every reason to conclude you cannot be saved — can reach you: family, friends, loved ones, a priest, a coach, a volunteer on a suicide hotline, a therapist who recognizes that you do not snap out of depression that makes you want to die but that there is a path out.

"Love is the answer. Nothing else could have saved me when I could no longer save myself. Others, their words, even words spoken decades ago, gave me enough hope to choose life over death."

Perhaps the greater miracle in today's Gospel is Jesus' opening the "vision" of those around the blind man to recognize the presence of God in their midst. The light that is Christ should reveal his love and grace in every human heart; such light should illuminate the dark places and dispel the shadows that isolate us from the love of family and friends. This Lent may we dare to embrace the light of God reflected in his Christ and so become reflections of that light in the care we extend to the suffering, the support we offer to the troubled and despairing, our hearts always opened to those struggling to cope with life's darkest moments.

So Lent is here. I see the color purple in the Church. But things surely have my mind focused elsewhere. Can anyone say virus? So maybe we have to take a step back. And consider what Father Rick said at Mass last week. If we just can find 5 or 10 minutes to spend in daily conversation with God, our prayer life could improve, our focus could improve, our acceptance could improve. Lent can be a time for growth. As we worry about what this virus will bring, let us take a moment to start with the gratitude that we have this life, this gift from God. Maybe we just need to take a few minutes a day to focus on what is important in our life. And not let it slip away like this lent is slipping away, without doing little things that matter.

Prayer Ministry

HOW IS YOUR EYESIGHT?

If you were blind, you would have no sin. (John 9:1-41)

How's your eyesight? What do you see when you look at the world around you? That seems to be the issue in today's Gospel. As the story opens, we meet a man whom everyone assumes is a sinner because he is blind (John 9:2). But by the end of the story, Jesus says that those who claim they can see are really the ones in darkness.

What did these Pharisees claim to see in this man? A sinner—both because he dared to challenge their authority. And what they say moved them to berate him and throw him out of the synagogue.

A similar thing happened when they saw Jesus. Because he had performed a healing on the Sabbath, they saw him as another sinner. No one who was righteous would dare break the Law of Moses! Again, what they saw moved them to persecute him all the more.

But what did Jesus see in the blind man? Not a "sinner" to be condemned and expelled, but a child of God in need of healing and salvation. And what he saw moved him to act with mercy.

And what did the blind man see in Jesus? Not a "sinner" who broke the Sabbath, but the Messiah who brings freedom and restoration. And what he saw moved him to bow down in worship.

So let's ask again: how is your eyesight?

"Jesus, open my eyes! Help me see as you see."

CATHOLIC HEART WORCAMP

DEADLINE EXTENDED

If you are interested in joining us at CHWC this summer you now have until March 31 to contact me. We are going to Saranac Lake, NY from June 21-26. You must be entering 9th grade in the Fall to attend. Please be in touch if you have any questions or if you are interested. Mary Connolly at mandmconnolly@gmail.com or 908-930-0784.

NOTES FROM THE OFFICE OF ST. JOHN'S

The Parish Office is open for you to:

- Pick up a hard copy of the bulletin. We will also email a copy during this time
- Buy store cards
- Drop off raffle tickets or mail by this Friday March 20th
- Drop off Easter Flower Offering Intentions
- Assist in signing up for Parish Giving

PASTORAL COUNCIL INVITATION

The Pastoral Council is a consultative body to the Pastor in developing and implementing the vision and mission of the parish. It currently has ten members, including Fr. Rick. Four parishioners are needed to replace those members that will complete their 3-year terms in May. If you would like to consider joining the Pastoral Council, please speak to one of the members who will be representing the pastoral Council at the Stewardship Weekend coffees on February 29th and March 1st. Interested parishioners are also invited to attend the March 9th Pastoral Council meeting, held at 7:30 p.m. in the Office Center. For more information, contact Fr. Rick or any Pastoral Council member.

MAKING A PRAYER REQUEST AT ST. JOHN'S

Prayer is the way we talk with and listen to God, and the St. John Neumann Prayer Ministry is here to support you in times of need. If you would like the Prayer Ministers to include your request in their prayers, there are three ways to reach them:

- Fill out a Prayer Request Card, which can be found at the Prayer Station in the Church. It is located on the left side as you enter the Church proper from the Narthex.
 - Email prayerministry@ccsjn.org.
 - Call Parish Office at 908-832-2513 and speak with someone about your request
- All requests for confidentiality are honored, and should be noted when making the request. We all know how powerful prayer can be, and many have experienced the peace, guidance, healing and answers to their needs that prayer can bring. As a community we support one another in prayer.

2020 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

By now you have received a letter from Bishop Checchio inviting your participation in the 2020 Bishop's Annual Appeal. The diocesan ministries supported by the Appeal directly impact many of the parishioners here at St. John Neumann. Your gift provides formation opportunities for our catechists, youth and young adults. Among other important ministries, your sacrificial gift supports our renewed efforts in Evangelization & Communication.

If you have yet to make your pledge to this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal, you will have the opportunity to do so next weekend, March 21/22, which has been designated as Bishop's Annual Appeal In-Pew Weekend. Please prayerfully consider a gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal to help our parish reach its goal. If we can exceed our goal, 50% of the amount collected over goal will be returned to us in the form of a parish rebate. Just as important as our financial goal is our goal of reaching 100% participation. Every gift, no matter the size, is important and greatly appreciated. Thank you.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

These actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced in church services.

- The eighth-graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the Church Basement Friday, at 7pm. The congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.
- Weight Watchers will meet at 7pm at the First Presbyterian Church. Please use large double door at the side entrance.
