THE TRINITY

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY: “Adam: God’s Beloved”

“. . . the Spirit of truth . . . will guide you to all truth.”

John 16: 12-15

Father Henri Nouwen was one of the great spiritual writers and teachers of our time. In 1985, exhausted and disillusioned from his crushing teaching and speaking schedule, the Dutch priest withdrew from his teaching post at Harvard and joined the L’Arche community in Trosly, France, the first of over 100 communities founded by Jean Vanier where those with developmental disabilities and those who assist them live together in the spirit of the Beatitudes.

At Trosly, Father Nouwen met Adam Arnett. Adam could not speak or even move without assistance. Grippled by frequent seizures, he spent his life in obscurity. In his last book before his death in 1996, Father Nouwen describes how he became Adam’s caregiver, responsible for feeding him, washing him, dressing him, giving him his medication, transporting him in his wheel chair, getting him to therapy. Having never experienced the world of the intellectually challenged, Nouwen was terrified at first — but through Adam, the priest came to a new and deeper understanding of his faith and what it means to be among the beloved of God.

Father Nouwen writes in his book Adam: God’s Beloved:

“Adam’s humanity was not diminished by his disabilities. Adam’s humanity was a full humanity, in which the fullness of love became visible for me, and for others who grew to know him . . . Adam couldn’t say, ‘I love you,’ he couldn’t embrace me spontaneously or express gratitude in words. Still I dare to say we loved each other . . . We were friends, brothers, bonded in our hearts. Adam’s love was pure and true. It was the same as the love that was mysteriously visible in Jesus, which healed everyone who touched him.

“Adam was so fully alive to me, and he shed light on all these questions. This experience cannot be understood by a logical explanation, but rather in and through the spiritual bonding of two very different people who discovered each other as completely equal in the heart of God. From my heart I could offer him some care that he really needed, and from his heart he blessed me with a pure and lasting gift of himself.”

Today’s Feast of the Holy Trinity invites to realize the many ways and the many people in which the love of God is revealed in our lives. For Father Nouwen, such love is present in the innocence of Adam, whose helplessness opened up the dormant compassion and love in Father Nouwen and his L’Arche community. May our own hearts and minds be opened to the Spirit of God revealing the love and hope we are capable of offering, however small and ordinary and unassuming; may the Spirit instill in us the wisdom to discover the goodness in all things and make faithful and hope-filled use of that goodness to transform our lives and world in God’s life and love.

Bible Study

COME EXPLORE JOHN’S GOSPEL !

Adult Vacation Bible School !

Have you ever wondered about John’s Gospel? Three of the gospels are similar in content and structure – they are the synoptic gospels – Mathew, Mark and Luke, and then there is John. We are excited to offer this scripture video series on this intriguing gospel. Sign up in the narthex or email the office (fkennedy@ccsjn.org). We are planning to start the 2nd week in July. We will discuss the schedule due to summertime – so please sign up to be included in discussion.

COME RETREAT ON THE SOLSTICE!

June 21 -6pm

Mark your calendar and come spend the evening to pause and give yourself some time to contemplate. We will enjoy spiritual conversation, labyrinth, moments of meditation and socializing with food and drink. Sign up in the Narthex or email fkennedy@ccsjn.org. Finger foods are appreciated.

PASTOR’S CORNER

This week we begin the season of “Ordinary Time” in the Church’s Liturgical Calendar. However, it should be called extraordinary time. These are the weeks that we sit at the feet of Jesus and listen and learn about his teachings on the Kingdom of God. Ordinary Time takes us all the way to December when we start the Season of Advent. Let us take advantage of these weeks by taking to heart that we are disciples who follow Jesus through his word.

God Bless,
Fr. Rick

MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

June 16, 2019

“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth...”

(John 16:13)

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us know and live the truth. To prepare ourselves, we need to open our hearts to receive this gift before we can give it. Develop a daily prayer routine. Talk and listen to the Holy Spirit. This is best done in silence, when we can hear His response.

PART-TIME RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DIRECTOR

Renee Ciszewski will be moving to New Brunswick, we have begun our search for a new Religious Education Director to oversee our GIFT Family Formation Program and guide our Sacramental preparations. Office hours are flexible. If you are interested, please contact Father Rick at 832-2513 or frick@ccsjn.org.

MISSING SOMETHING?

- There are many platters and plates and other kitchen items in the Seton Room. Please see if any of them belong to you. We will be donating them to the Top of the Barn.
- Someone left a charger on the Fab 5 table in the Narthex the day of Spring Cleaning. We have it in the office, so give us a call if it is yours.
- We are looking for a slightly used pull out couch for use upstairs in the office building.

Social Ministry

NOTES FROM THE GARDEN

We had a beautiful day for spring planting on May 18. Many hands made light work and a new mechanical seeder for carrots worked great. Plan a visit the garden to see what we are growing this year. The amaryllis planted by the First Communion children are sending up buds--come take a look. We have been picking loads of asparagus--10-15 pounds per week since mid-April. Cutting will continue until June 1. They will be served fresh at SHIP's Galley Soup Kitchen twice this month. Allium, pansies and poppies are in bloom right now. Asiatic Lilies and roses are not far behind. We will have our annual strawberry harvest in early June. Many of the folks who have community garden beds help with this task but picking is open to all members of the community. Please contact Anne Germino at project-earth@ccsjn.org by May 28 if you would like to help. All of the strawberries are donated to SHIP or Elijah's Promise Soup Kitchen in New Brunswick. We will need help with picking as well as delivery to the soup kitchens.

Parish News

CONGRATULATIONS SIENNA TAYA SWIDERSKI

St. John Neumann's welcomes Sienna Taya Swiderski into the faith community! We join her parents, Joe and Diana and sister Adriana in celebration. Sienna was baptized on Saturday, June 8th.

TAG SALE AND TRICKY TRAY LEADERS NEEDED

We are looking for volunteers to run both the Tag Sale and the Tricky Tray. Both of these are important fundraisers for St. John's.

The Tag Sale is usually the 3rd Weekend of September and runs along with the Califon Town Wide Tag Sale. They say one person's junk is another person's treasure and this is a great way for you to clean out your basement or garage and it would be sold at the tag sale. The proceeds would then go to St. John's for this fundraiser.

The Tricky Tray is usually held in October. The date can be selected with your availability in mind. This event has been lots of fun in the past. There is something for everyone of all ages to be won. There are door prizes and the kitchen will be open to purchase refreshments.

ARE YOU NEW TO THE PARISH?

Become Part of Our Church Family

Come Discover St. John's

We hope you want to be part of the parish. We have awesome benefits, opportunities to help others; help you raise your children to be giving, well-grounded adults; makes it easy to get letter to become godparent or confirmation sponsor; and eventually helps with your EZ Pass to Heaven! Email the office at fkennedy@ccsjn.org.

We need your help! We do have previous volunteers for both events who can guide you through the process and teams of parishioners who are always ready to help. Call the office 908-832-2513 or email sjn@ccsjn.org if you are interested or have any questions.

Would you like to volunteer?
Call us today! We need you! #HPPC

COUNTRY WESTERN AUCTION & DINNER DANCE THANK YOU!

Our Auction on June 2 was a fun time for all! With all of the crazy weather lately, we couldn't have asked for a better evening. Attendance as great the dinner was amazing as were the decorations

The $5,512.50 prize for the 50/50 raffle was won by the Baumann Family. The Fab 5 Winners are: Zelinski - Weber Grill, Debbie Kelelmen - Snow Blower, Sally Ader - Patio Set, Barbara Pannone - Ride on Car and Lori D'Armiendo - Bose Speaker.

Our 33rd annual auction success yielded a profit of approximately $50,000.00. We have many to thank, starting with Susanne Erz who stepped up to take on the challenge of chairing this very important fundraiser for St. John's. Our thanks go out to:

Prayer Ministry

HOLY TRINITY

As the Father and Creator, God loves you as the apple of his eye. He wants to relate to you as your ABBA, a "Daddy" who teaches you and cares for you. As God the Son, Jesus died for you and rose from the dead so that you could have new life in him. Even when you sin, he wants nothing more than to place you on his shoulders like a lost lamb and carry you home. And as the Holy Spirit, he wants to inspire you, guide you, and empower you with gifts to help you serve his people.

So how is your relationship with the Holy Trinity? Do you tend to focus only on one Person and "forget" to deepen your relationship with the others? If you want a better relationship with the Father, the Son, or the Holy Spirit, just ask God to reveal himself to you more deeply. You might just discover some new facet about him!

Reflections like this are found in The Word Among Us. Pick up a copy from the Narthex.

BOOK OF INTENTIONS

You are invited to include your prayer intentions in the Book of Intentions at the prayer station on the left as you enter the worship space. You can include the names of someone who has passed, someone who is ill, or a prayer for someone in need. We have renamed the book of Remembrance to be more inclusive of our prayer needs.

THE CARETAKER OF THE WELL

In the folklore of Haiti, there is a story about a severe drought on the island. All the streams dried up and the wells were parched. There was no place to get water. The animals met to discuss the situation and decided to ask God for help. God responded by creating a well that would provide unlimited water, as long as one of the animals would serve as the caretaker and welcome all who would come in need.

The lizard Mabouya volunteered to be caretaker — but he soon became intoxicated with his newfound power. Mabouya became a gatekeeper, not a caretaker, and sent everyone in need away.

Eventually, God replaced the lizard with the frog, who croaked to all, "Come! This is God's well! The hole in the ground is yours, but the water belongs to God."

Today's Feast of the Holy Trinity calls us to realize the hand of God in every molecule of creation, in every cell of our being — life that God has brought into being out of a love so great and complete that we can hardly imagine it. Our only response to our creation and the world that sustains us is to humbly and gratefully acknowledge God's goodness by becoming well-springs of that goodness to one another, to make it possible for all our brothers and sisters to find their places at God's table.

*A dad is someone who wants to catch you before you fall
 but instead picks you up,
 brushes you off,
 and lets you try again.*

*A dad is someone who wants to keep you from making mistakes
 but instead lets you find your own way,
 even though his heart breaks in silence
 when you get hurt.*

*A dad is someone who
 holds you when you cry,
 scolds you when you break the rules,
 shines with pride when you succeed,
 and has faith in you even when you fail...*

BAPTISM

Anyone who is expecting a birth of a child or have a child to be baptized contact France Kennedy this week at fkennedy@ccsinj.org or (908-832-2513) to register for the preparation program and discuss arrangements.

SMILE WITH YOUR FAMILY

- My father used to say, "You must have a terrible conscience if you can't sleep in church."
- I don't know why some people change churches—what difference does it make which one you stay home from?.
- To err is human; to blame it on somebody else is even more human.

What's My Name?

The #WHATSMYNAME Movement asks everyone to simply ask drivers "What's my name?" before entering their vehicle to make sure it is the car they are supposed to enter.
