

Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun.

Examples: you he, she, it, we, us, our, me, I, them they, him, her.

Choose the pronoun to replace the underlined word or words in each sentence.

1. Taya is hungry. Taya will enjoy her breakfast.
a) her b) she c) you d) it
2. Mae knew that Garnett and Robert were behind the rock.
a) our b) you c) they d) them
3. Taya, I told Taya not to go out alone at night.
a) you b) her c) our d) we
4. Mikey Shaw was on Mikey Shaw's fishing boat.
a) I b) his c) mine d) them
5. When can Mae and I go to the lighthouse?
a) she b) its c) us d) we
6. Garnett thinks the treasure should be Garnett's.
a) our b) his c) theirs d) you
7. Taya was upset that Taya's parents had not told Taya they were moving.
a) her, her b) her, they c) we, her d) them, they