

Tense

Sentences tell us what is happening and also when that action is taking place. Verbs have tense to tell us the timing of the action. Verbs change their form when the tense changes.

Garnett followed Mae. Past

Garnett follows Mae. Present

Garnett will follow Mae. Future

Underline the verbs and write their tense (past, present or future) after each of these sentences. The first one has been done for you.

1. The wild weather will damage the lighthouse. Future

2. The tide will come in soon.

Tense: _____

3. Taya's new home is a cottage with a blue door.

Tense: _____

4. We can go out to the lighthouse this afternoon.

Tense: _____

5. Mae looked at the painting above the fireplace.

Tense: _____

6. The fishing boats will go out again tomorrow.

Tense: _____

7. My new red jacket has a hood.

Tense: _____

8. We explored all around the headland.

Tense: _____

9. On rainy days Mr Bayliss works on his computer.

Tense: _____

10. The bright light will warn ships of the dangerous rocks.

Tense: _____