

Writing a match report

A match report, should be a brief overview of the game in full, broken into quarters, referencing any key points , game play and players in the match.

Match Report Submission Deadlines:

For Saturday games: by 23:59 on the Monday immediately following the game.

For Midweek games: by 23:59 on the Friday immediately following the game.

All reports should be submitted to rdnlpublicity@outlook.com

Hints and tips to writing a match report for your own game:

- Have a chat the end of the game with your team talk about some of the key plays of the game
- Take a picture of your own score card and that of the opposing team

A post game team talk and the info from the cards gives you enough info to write a good report, mention players within your own team and well as the opposition who played well or where integral to the final score

No negative comments or personal attached on any, player or official of the game will be tolerated

Example of match report

Team X v Team Y

Date

Team X were on their game right from the off and scored 5 goals before Team Y got themselves on the score sheet. Team Y took a little time to settle with everyone out of position and fielding 2 borrowed players, once the GA charlie brown from Team Y settled in shooting accuracy improved. Great play by Team Y, but they were still trailing to Team X 12 goals to 5 at the end of the first qtr.

The 2nd qtr saw Team X extend their lead , with betty boo and Daisy Duck playing GS and GA not missing a goal. Team Y defence fought hard and got lots of great interceptions , Team Y still struggled to convert . At half time Team X where still in the lead 23 – 9

Team Y moved players around for the 3rd qtr, this bought in a new shooting combination and this saw Team Y's highest scoring qtr and only losing the quarter 6 – 5. 3rd quarter score Team X 29 – 14 to Team Y.

The final qtr Team Y worked hard , but they were unable to catch the lead the Team X gained in the first qtr and denying Team Y the extra point.

The final score Team x 41 – Team Y 20
