

TO COMPLETE THE PLAYER REGISTRATION FORM

An RDNL player registration sheet should be completed for each team and handed in at the registration table OR emailed to rdnlregs@gmail.com, along with a printout of proof of each players' affiliation, before the first match of the season.

All players must be England Netball members and affiliated prior to playing.

Each team must register a minimum of 7 players. There is no maximum. Continue on extra sheets if needed.

New and Additional players who wish to register after the start of the season must complete the RDNL player registration sheet (selecting additional player with a ✓). All sections must be completed. A PHOTO SHOULD BE TAKEN of the completed form and this should be emailed to rdnlregs@gmail.com along with a copy of their proof of affiliation before they take to court.

Completed Registration Forms should be emailed to rdnlregs@gmail.com. The email must be titled MIDWEEK + TEAM NAME or SATURDAY + TEAM NAME

For information regarding registration, please refer to the rules for more details.

RDNL would like to take pictures and/or video footage throughout the season for use on RDNL website , images/video taken may also be used to promote netball via local/national media and printed publications.

Registration to RDNL: Is also your consent for the use of photos and/or video footage taken of you, for information or promotional purposes. Photos/Videos will be used on the RDNL website, in the promotion of netball in local/national media new and in promotional publications produced by RDNL.

Photo/Video Consent for Teams with Junior Players (Under 18years old): It is the Team's responsibility to gain Parental Consent to use photos/video footage of any junior players.

If you DO NOT consent to your photo/video footage to be used.

Please put a cross in the box titled Photo Consent when completing the registration form

Conditions of Use: This form is valid for the current RDNL season. Your registration and consent will automatically expire at the end of the season. We will not include details of any child or adult in an image or video on our website, promotional or in printed publications. A full name will be used in match reports and for player of the match. We will not include the full name of an RDNL Member used in promotional material/literature.

We will not include personal email or postal address or telephone numbers on any video footage, or on our website or in printed publications. We may use group (team or match) images with very general labels such as "Team Name", "Division Winners", or "Defence Training"