Razzlers Vs Thunderbirds 5

16/1/2019

POM: Sarah Widdows (TB5)

POM: Lucy Farrell (Razzlers)

Both teams took to a while to settle into the first quarter with a particularly unsettled start for Razzlers however they managed to finish the first quarter ahead by one. T'Birds worked the Razzlers attack hard with some great interceptions from their GK.

Both teams came back into the second quarter more settled. T'birds showed great play down the court working it well from their defence to attack and with superb holding from T'Birds GS they managed to keep Razzlers on their toes, although they fought hard to keep their lead. Both the Razzlers GA and GS had some great shots with the score at half time being 13-12 to Razzlers.

The battle continued into the third quarter with the score staying close. T'Birds were still feeding the ball well into the D with their shooting becoming more precise. Razzlers GK and GD continued working hard, with some fantastic rebounds from Razzlers GK ensuring that Razzlers had the chance to keep their one goal lead. Razzlers attack took every opportunity to work the ball up the court and into the D with on point shooting and rebounds from Razzlers, even with the continuing pressure from T'birds defence. Third quarter ended 21-20 Razzlers.

Both teams put all their effort in for the last quarter, the passing between the T'birds attack was smooth ensuring that the shooters had every opportunity, which they took to keep the pressure on Razzlers. Razzlers carried on with their defence and good efforts in working the ball up the court. Razzlers C made some great drives to get into space to receive the ball and feed into the D. Razzlers GS and GA kept working round the D to get in position to shoot and go for the rebounds.

T'Birds kept working hard until the final minute of the game to finish the game with a draw, final score 27-27.

Player of the match to T'Birds Sarah Widdows who ensured a smooth transition from the defensive end to their attacking end, never stopping moving and working hard and Razzlers Lucy Farrell who constantly kept working for the best shooting position and getting the rebounds.

Final Score: Razzlers 27 – Thunderbirds 5 27

Razzlers Vs RG7 Comets

14/11/2018

POM: Amy Mulroy (RG7 Comets)

POM: Alice Mills (Razzlers)

In the first quarter RG7 Comets came out fighting scoring 10 goals to the Razzlers 3 goals. This was due to fluid play from RG7's attack, including their POM GA Amy Mulroy. Razzlers were hampered by unforced errors resulting in some excellent turnovers from the RG7 defence.

In the second quarter there was some sharper defence from the Razzlers, especially by their POM Alice Mills, playing GD. However, the Razzlers could not capitalise on these interruptions to RG7's attack and RG7 pulled away with the score standing at 18-5 at the mid-way point of the match.

A change of playing position for some of the Razzlers at half time meant that there was some more vibrancy in the Razzlers attack which combined with more accuracy from the shooters meant that the Razzlers were able to gain a few goals. The RG7 attack was relentless and there was excellent play as RG7 moved the ball down the court and into their shooting positions, finishing the quarter on 27 goals.

In the final quarter Razzlers continued fighting but they were no match for RG7 with the final score standing at Razzlers 15 – RG7 34.

Final Score: Razzlers 15 - RG7 Comets 34

Thunderbirds 2 Vs Razzlers

03/10/2018

POM: Phillipa Legg (TB2)

POM: Polly Gardener (Razzlers)

Both teams started strongly taking their own centres. After a few offside calls Razzlers pulled into the lead by 1 goal for the first quarter.

The second quarter saw excellent play from Thunderbirds 2. Their defence ensured only a few balls made it into the shooting end. They made good use of Razzler's mistakes and stormed ahead 17-9 to finish the second quarter.

During half time Razzlers regrouped and came out with some better play strategies. Advice from the side line helped and the play became less frantic. The third quarter saw some superb play around Razzler's shooting end as the TB2 defence applied heavy pressure. After a couple of turnovers thanks to Razzler's GD the scores began to equalise (17-13)

Both teams made positional changes going into the last quarter. It was a fast game with lots of turnovers. However a build up of small Razzlers errors, picked up by some sharp umpiring, meant that TB2 were able to cement the win 29-20.

Final Score: Thunderbirds 2 29 Vs Razzlers 20
