Sweaty Nettys Vs RG7 Comets

27/2/2019

POM: Jo Starling (RG7)

POM: Amy Chesswas (Sweaty)

An excellent match between Sweaty Netty's and RG7 comets with both team's fighting and playing very strongly. RG7 lead the way in the first quarter with excellent shooting from both their GS and GA and strong defence. This resulted in the first quarter ending on 11 goals to RG7 and 4 to Sweaty nettys.

The second quarter saw RG7 secure their lead even further despite Sweaty's attempts to add pressure throughout the court. Due to Melissa Johnson suffering an injury it meant the second quarter was cut short but the end score was 13-17.

With Sweaty's changing positions round it meant RG7 were able to continue their lead in the third quarter with some excellent interceptions from their defence. The third quarter ending 27-20.

In the last quarter Sweaty's proved they weren't going down without a fight and with some crucial interceptions and consistent shooting were able to bring the game to a nail biting 32-32 finish.

A competitive and great game of netball from both teams.

Final Score: Sweaty Nettys 32 – RG7 Comets 37

Thunderbirds 5 Vs Sweaty Nettys

27/2/2019

POM: Rachel Vaughan (TB5)

POM: Melissa Johnson (Sweaty)

This was a rearranged fixture to finish the first half of the season. Both teams started and were raring to go.

The first quarter was evenly matched both teams starting and converting their centre passes and it continued forward that way. TB5 took an early slight lead and ended up turning over a few of the Sweaty's centre passes. The first quarter ended with TB5 leading by three goals.

Second quarter again very evenly matched. Both teams came on with the fighting spirit. This quarter saw many centres being turned over for both sides and Sweaty's scoring on TB5 centres and vice versa. TB5 held on to their three goal lead for this quarter also.

The third quarter, Sweaty's made some changes and their WA and WD ended up swapping positions to see how that would effect their game and whether it would make a difference. The goal lead for TB5 still continued with them being 4 goals up this quarter.

The final quarter saw Sweaty's making another change and swapped their WD and GK. This quarter saw Thunderbirds 5 fighting and turning over the Sweaty's centre from the moment the quarter started. Both teams continued to fight and the defence for Thunderbirds were intercepting and working the ball back to the shooters who were having a great game in terms of conversion. The final quarter saw the goal lead increase by 7 for TB5.

Final Score: Thunderbirds 5 29 - 22 Sweaty Nettys

Sweaty Netty's Vs Panthers

05/09/2018

POM: Olivia James (Sweaty Nettys)

POM: Nikki Barrie (Panthers)

The first match of the new season saw Sweaty Nettys enter the court with full determination, managing to get a good interception on Panthers first centre and scoring the first goal. Time away from the court did not phase Sweaty's GS Amy Chesswas as she continued to effortlessly swish the ball into the net. Ended 8-4.

Sweaty's high spirits continued into the next quarter, putting pressure on Panthers to cause a few loose balls. However, Panthers WA Nikki Barrie's agile movements around the court kept the attacking team strong and allowed the ball to be fed into the circle to close the gap. Ended 11-9.

Panthers came out fighting in this quarter with superb defending by GK Claire Smith making it difficult for Sweaty's to get the ball into the circle. However, Sweaty's GD Olivia James also put up a good front and defended the ball well managing to keep the score equal. Ended 14-14.

Panthers maintained the momentum in the final quarter, and with some great shooting by Angela O'Neil and Diana Williams managed to edge ahead and seize the win. Ended 16-20.

A friendly and competitive game played by all.

Final Score: Sweaty Netty's 16- Panthers 20
