TRBL Vs Business Moves

11/5/2019

POM: Malvina Mitchell (TRBL)

POM: Rebecca Haines (Business Moves)

After a 20 delay with the posts the games were underway.

B'Moves has the first centre this was soon to be stolen by TRBL but this steel wasn't converted first off, Moves intercepted the ball but after what felt a long time TRBL scored the first goal. First quarter was end to end and both teams battling for every ball, a fast paced quarter with both teams up for the fight.

2nd quarter carried on from the first, both teams fighting for every ball, TRBL GA Nikki Coleman found form in this quarter with some accurate shooting scoring everything thrown at her from TRBL's best player WA Malvina Mitchell always available for a pass from her defence and first time ball into her shooters. despite strong pressure from GK Sandra Fulford and GD, TRBL went into half 8 goals up.

3rd quarter saw a change in the B'Moves attack with GA Rebecca Haines moving to GS, the changed worked in B'Moves favour, both Moves GA and WA managed to find Rebecca with ease and now with her eye in and earning best player from TRBL was scoring everything thrown at her.

TRBL fought for every ball in the defence with GD Donna Hancock making some vital interceptions trying to stop B'Moves flow. B'Moves pulled back 2 goals so TRBL lead by 6 going into the last quarter.

4th quarter B'Moves come out fighting even though their WD hurt her shoulder she was still applying pressure round the circle edge. TRBL knew all they had to do was to score their own centres for the win. B'Moves never game up and got back within 5 goals but it was not enough.

Final Score: TRBL 47– Business Moves 42

TRBL Vs Volume

6/4/2019

POM: Lou Grainger (TRBL)

POM: Katie Antcliffe (Volume)

Despite TRBL missing 5 key players and with a team that have not played together and players out of position, didn't stop them from getting off to a flying start. Their GA and best player Lou Grainger finding form early on with some fast paced passes from her C Izzy Kemp sinking everything thrown at her winning this quarter 14-5. Volume applied the pressure in the shooting circle but nothing stopped Lou in this quarter.

2nd quarter Volume upped their game taking 3 goals in quick succession, their GK and best player Katie Antcliffe intercepting the balls into TRBL stopping them in their flow. These turn overs were played safely to their attack who despite under pressure from GD Leanne Smith who was out of position Volumes GA Vicky Heath who now had her eye in scored the turnovers. There were periods of this quarter that was a game of centre court with both teams turning the ball over for the other team to apply pressure and turn the ball back but ending 13 28 at half time

More of the same from TRBL who had no subs but with changes from volume and fresh legs they did find Vicky GA and Liz GS sinking the goals but with Rachel Caswell GK putting pressure on the rebounds TRBL were able to convert with lou Grainger England nets goals form unstoppable quarter 3 ended 39/19

Volume did enough in the last and final quarter to get themselves a point converting 28 against the needed 26 goals of TRBLs 51

Final score 51/28 to TRBL, lovely gain joint cheer and fantastic sportsmanship between the sides.

Final Score: TRBL 51 – Volume 28

TRBL Vs Volume

8/12/2018

POM: (TRBL)

POM: (Volume)

Tilehurst started with a few out of position today Claire Beasley normally GD playing C likewise with volume, Vicky McLaughlin GS for volume, natural position GD/WD. Considering this it was a low scoring first quarter for all involved Tilehurst coming out ahead though with good shooting from Lorraine Hancock and Nikki Coleman.

Volume continued to feed the circle well but Sophie Lightowlers GD played out of her skin getting her arms to most balls fed to GA/GS well covered by Rachel Caswell GK keeping the score to x v x going into the half time break Sophie Lightowlers doing so well earning her POM status

After the third and a change from Tilehurst saw Donna Hancock move to C and Claire Beasley still out of position move to WD. Volume seemed to get their flow and started to put the pressure turning over lots by their man of the match Katie Antcliffe GK who stopped the ball being fed over head with her fabulous interceptions, volume really pulled back into the game here and capitalised on Tilehurst change.

Going into the last quarter a change back to the starting line up for Tilehurst saw them manage to maintain their early lead they made and come out on top but Volume persisted and pushed for half and throughly deserved their point scoring.

Final Score: TRBL 32 – Volume 16

TRBL Vs RG7 Black

3/11/2018

POM: Donna Hancock (TRBL)

POM: Laura Callaway (RG Blacks)

On a sunny November morning, RG7 Black unfortunately started two goals down due to the late arrival of their umpire. They then struggled to settle in the first quarter, only scoring two goals.

Tilehurst, on the other hand, got off to a flying start and maximised some of RG7's mistakes, dominating the first quarter with some good feeds into the circle and some accurate shooting from GS Lorraine Hancock and GA Natalie Tucker to lead 19-2 at the break.

The second quarter was a more even 15 minutes with RG7 bringing on a new WA, Carla Humphries, and their previous WA, Charlotte Ellis, moving to GA. They fought hard to keep up with up with Tilehurst's quick pace and fluid play to only trail in this quarter by 3 goals (12-9), after making some good interceptions and more accurate passing to keep the pressure on. This left the score at half time as 31-11.

Both teams made some changes at half time. Tilehurst stepped up another gear in the third and fourth quarters with some excellent interceptions by Sophie Lightowers and Donna Hancock (Tilehurst POM) and their new shooting pair of Nikki Coleman and Natalie Tucker worked exceptionally well together. Despite the continued effort and positivity by all of the RG7 players and the defenders of Laura Hunt and Laura Callaway (RG7 POM) making some good tips, they struggled to make any significant impact on the score. Tilehurst were too strong for their opponents and sealed a comfortable win with the final score standing at 69-22.

Final Score: TRBL 69 – RG7 Black 22
