Confidentiality Agreement

Throughout the counseling process, confidentiality is maintained for clients. This standard procedure and practice is for all clients, regardless of age or background, except in the following circumstances:

- a) You instruct me to tell someone else and provide written permission of this
- b) I determine you are a danger to yourself (e.g. self-harm or suicide), to others or someone is a danger to you
- c) I am ordered by a court to disclose information
- d) The law is going to be, or has been, broken
- e) Abuse of children is a mandatory reporting offence, which I am bound by law to report
- f) For supervision and education purposes (basic information only shared in this instance, not names or details that would in any way disclose or identify you, the client)
- g) Where confidentiality cannot be maintained, as your counselor I will take all steps possible to inform/discuss my intention with you.

Please note, any data collected from the outcome measure questionnaires (for both monitoring and research purposes), has all identifying personal information removed.
