Time of Reconciliation, Liturgist Kara Casanova

Leader: When our faith is rooted deeply in you, God, our lives reflect your kingdom values of justice and righteousness. But sometimes our lives become so entangled with the values of the world, that your values take second place.

All: We all, like sheep, have gone astray. Lord, have mercy.

Leader: Merciful God, remove from our hearts and minds all that prevents our lives being firmly rooted in you.

All: We all, like sheep, have gone astray. Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For the times when we have acted against your commandments, served only ourselves, and acted as if we no longer have hope in your promises, we ask your forgiveness.

All: We all, like sheep, have gone astray. Lord, have mercy.

Leader: We confess our sin to God in the silence of our own hearts.

Moment of Silent Confession

Leader: Sisters and brothers, believe the good news of the gospel: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

All: Thanks be to God!

✠ Response Gloria Patri #805

All: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end, Amen, Amen.

Lighting of the Advent Candle

Reader: Today is the first Sunday of Advent, so we light the first candle on our Advent wreath: the candle of Hope.

Reader: Thousands of years ago, the Israelites felt hopeless, as if their entire nation was nothing but a withered-up dead plant, or the stump of a fallen tree. But the prophets proclaimed God’s promise that a messiah would come. They proclaimed Hope for the people.

Reader: Hundreds of years later, their prayers were answered with the birth of Jesus, also called “Emmanuel,” a Hebrew word which means “God is with us.” Today is the first day of Advent, in which we remember those hundreds of years of hopeful waiting.

Reader: As we light the candle of Hope we give thanks for the prophets of today who dare to speak words of Hope, who resist the evil in the world, and who call us to a life of faith.

Reader: Let us pray: God, so many in your world have lost Hope. Sometimes it feels as if you aren’t with us, but are far, far away.

All: Open our eyes to your presence. Open our ears to your word. Open our hearts to your Hope.

Reader: Help us live into your Hope so we may be your light shining in the dark places of our world.

All: We pray this in Hope, and in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Reader: God’s Hope lives on, around us and within us. We are called by God to share that Hope with the world. So this week as we pass the peace, instead of “Peace be with you,” please say “Hope be with you.” If you like, you may respond with, “and also with you.”

Prayer of Dedication

Pastoral prayer/Lord's prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever, Amen.*
