

Christian Moore

For 20 years Christian has worked in the film and television industry out of Europe and the US as a producer for various companies including Associated Television International, Universal, Warner Bros, and MGM. During this period he built Leavesden Film Studios and Prague Studios where films such as Bond, Star Wars, Harry Potters were all made. In 2007 he moved from Los Angeles to Monaco and changed direction to become Chairman of TV7 Media Network based in Eastern Europe and during this period also became a board member of Luxemburg Fund Partners SA . In 2013 he created along side Alan Howard the Star One Media Fund financing tall the major studios. Currently he is senior advisor to Cabinet Gullotta, a well-established law firm servicing the media and technology space and joined the advisory board of Ikove Capital a technology company in mid 2016. Currently he is the president of SSI Media a Monaco based company creating and distributing television channels globally. Christian is also President of the Monaco Ambassadors Club under the patronage of HSH Prince Albert of Monaco.