Closed on Mondays

This wonderful osteria style restaurant is located in the heart of one of the most traditional hamlets of Bellagio just outside the gates of the Villa Melzi Gardens. Offering both in and outdoor seating, the outdoor seating overlooks the small harbour and the characteristic sail boats, the menu has a very special touch to it thanks to the masterful hands and magic of the young head chef Matteo Gramatica.

Reservation: Recommended

Average price: Euro 35.00 / 40,00 w/o beverage (All Credit Cards accepted)

Closed: On Mondays (From November closing days are Mondays and Tuesdays)

Speciality: Mediterranean cuisine; homemade pasta; lake fish.

Closed until March

Located at the top of the Serbelloni steps opposite the Trattoria San Giacomo, this restaurant has both in and outdoor seating. The outdoor seating is on a large terrace covered with a beautiful Wisteria filled Pergolato overlooking the Salita Serbelloni. Lake fish dishes are very popular here – another favourite of ours is the mixed antipasti which are also served.

Reservation: Suggested

Average price per person: Euro 35.00 w/o beverage (All credit cards accepted)

Closed: On Mondays and during the winter.

Speciality: Fresh lake fish.

Closed from 1st November

This restaurant offers the most fantastic views across the three branches of the lake. It is a great place for outdoor eating or simply enjoying a drink and soaking up the incredible natural beauty around you. Just sitting here on the terrace overlooking the small harbour with the Alps in the distance is so hard to beat. The speciality here is a dish made with fillets of perch, fresh from the lake, on a bed of rice. Other excellent pasta dishes are also served here. It is a great lunch place with a garden area in front of the restaurant. Casual atmosphere.

Reservation: Preferred

Average price: Euro 30.00 w/o beverage (All credit cards accepted)

Closed: November through February

Bellagio is one of the more popular destinations on Lake Como and the quiet hamlet of Pescallo, located about five minutes' walk from the town center, gives visitors a real sense of its historic past. The jumble of candy-colored houses of this former fishing village surround a quaint harbor, where modern and traditional boats still bob quaintly today. La Pergola sits right up on the shore and offers guests traditional Lake Como dishes in its historic restaurant. The vaulted ceilings and restored fresco at the staircase are just a few of the reminders of the building's past as a 16th-century Benedictine convent. Meals are served in the shade of grapevines on the lakefront terrace, with lake fish playing a prominent role. The pan-fried perch with La Pergola's signature curry sauce is a favorite of locals and visitors alike.

Reservation: Recommended in high season

Average price: Euro 35.00 / 40,00 w/o beverage (All Credit Cards accepted)

Closing day: Tuesday

Specialities: Mix of Lake appetizer (Missoltini, marinated fish, smoked trout, lake patè), rice with fillet of Perch and curry sauce; cark chocolate warm cake with pear cream and vanilla ice cream.
