The Brooke Astor Story:
Hard Learned Lessons That Inform Elder Justice

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29th, 5:30 PM
Northeast Harbor Library

In 2006, after years of increasing concern, Mr. Marshall, with the help of many others, sought a petition for guardianship (which was awarded) for his grandmother, Brooke Astor, who was a victim of elder abuse by her son, Philip's father.

Through her life, Brooke Astor was known for her decades of philanthropic work in New York, earning her the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1998 from President Clinton.

Mr. Marshall now tells his story and works to help the greater cause of elder justice.
