A cancer diagnosis is not the end, but a new beginning

According to the National Cancer Institute, nearly 40 percent of all Americans will be diagnosed with cancer at some point during their lifetimes. The good news is that more and more of us are surviving for longer and longer. The bad news is that cancer - and its medical treatment - often leaves survivors facing harsh new realities in their lives. And sadly, healthcare has not kept pace with the psychological, social and emotional needs of survivors.

The number of people living beyond a cancer diagnosis is expected to reach 19 million by 2024. The need for survivor care has never been greater. The time to act is now.

Since 2013, You Night has helped survivors adapt to - and embrace - their life after cancer. You Night is a year-round program that addresses the emotional and mental effects that women experience after a cancer diagnosis. Over 150 cancer survivors in St. Tammany and New Orleans are now a part of the YouNight sisterhood.

With your help, YouNight will make 2017 the year that we roll out our programs across the country, helping thousands of women cancer survivors. We want you to be a part of our mission.

Moving forward through sisterhood

You Night creates fun and empowering group experiences for women who are looking for a sisterhood of support. You Night teaches cancer survivors how to overcome the physical and psychological challenges of cancer treatment through teamwork, coaching, and skills training... all while they build strong interpersonal bonds with other survivors. You Night rebuilds self-esteem, appreciation for their own bodies and a joy for living, through structured experiences and sisterhood.

Our signature program

The signature You Night program is available in select cities, including St. Tammany Parish and New Orleans. You Night's structured six-month curricula of coaching and healing culminates in a graduation ceremony that is a celebration of life - a fashion show spot-lighting the survivors, attended by their friends, families and, importantly, their caregivers. The entire experience is gifted to the participants.

You Night transcends the traditional support group model in many ways: by introducing a scheduled program of skills education; by setting timed goals for health improvement; by cultivating a sorority of survivors; by integrating care givers, professional coaches and family; and by moving the entire experience out of the healthcare system.

A sisterhood of support designed around year-round empowering programs

A Unique, Therapeutic Group Experience

You Night's very public demonstration of our participants' renewed confidence provides a healing moment not just for the survivors, but also for those who have helped them through the disease: the many physicians and healthcare workers who have treated them, and the circle of friends and family who continue to support them.

Our program was recently featured in a nationwide Capital One Commercial, seen by over 2 million people. WATCH:

"You Night was an extremely positive experience for me. After a year of holding my head high to be the "tough survivor", it gave me a chance to emotionally let it all out with people who truly understood and had "been there, done that". I was encouraged to let go of "the stone that weighs me down" ... and to cast it out has really refreshed my focus. God gave me a second chance to finally realize that being focused on my hair was so misplaced as I am just lucky to be here and HAVE hair. I also have come to the conclusion that I have hidden behind all that hair for years, and there really was a pretty person under there and still is. I am wearing makeup and walking tall even for work. I wake up every morning and thank God for my blessings and You Night is at the top of the list. I wasn't in a sorority during college since I worked full time, but I am now experiencing having "sisters". My experience was game changing and I would recommend it to anyone going through or has gone through cancer."

Emily Barre' -- You Night New Orleans Class of 2016

Your Support Will:

- Provide Scholarships to our You Night participants for the complete 6-month program
- Grow the outreach to both patients and their care-givers
- Off-set participant costs for our annual weekend retreat, open to all adult female cancer survivors
- Roll-out informational, empowering experiences that reach a nationwide audience

Legacy Partner Testimonials

TITLE SPONSOR: Center for Restorative Breast Surgery

"You Night does for my patients what I can't do for them ; I can encourage them, operate on them, but I can't be the one that helps the community recognize them for what they are. They are the inspiration, they are the real leaders; they are what I want to be and what I want my kids to be.

Of all the causes I give to You Night is a special one; it is very personal thing because I know the people and I know the patients. You Night hits home for me because I know most of the women in there, my colleagues and I take care of them. These people are like family to me, it feels like a family reunion." -Scott Sullivan, M.D., FACS

PRESENTING SPONSOR: Center for Women's Health, Southern Institute for Women's Sexual Health

"I brought my whole staff and my partners and I was really not prepared for the magnitude of the event.

When I watched these women and saw so many of my patients walk on the stage it was amazing. One thought that I had as I sat there watching was "beautiful inside and out". - Katherine Williams, M.D. , Center for Women's Health, Southern Institute for Women's Sexual Health
