

Above & Beyond

Developing Potential

Arts and Crafts Risk Assessment & Session Plan

June 2016

Review Date: June 2017

Arts and Crafts - RISK ASSESSMENT
What are the Hazards?	Who may be harmed and how?	What are you already doing to minimise risk?	What Further action is necessary?	Action by whom?	Action by when?	Completed
Resources faulty or poor quality	Everyone	Visually checking kit every session.		Above & Beyond Instructor	Before Every Session
Participant injured during activity e.g. burn, allergic reaction etc.	Everyone	Qualified first Aider present at session with first aid kit including eye bath and burn kit.		Above and Beyond Instructor	Before every session
Sharp blades		Controlled use of sharp blades – counting of all blades handed out.			Before every session
Any Medical Conditions the Instructor should know about?	The participant with the condition	Collecting consent forms	Awareness - For Example Diabetes - are glucose levels good; is the session taking place through a meal time? Asthma – is the person’s inhaler to hand?	Above and Beyond Instructor Above & Beyond Instructor	Before every session

Items marked with a * can be established with a cover letter and consent/medical/health form obtained before the session.

Above & Beyond will supply Activity & Medical Consent form

Below are examples to include in your information to parents/carers

- When attending the session participants should be dressed appropriately. Do not wear expensive clothing.
- Please complete the attached Activity & Medical Consent form stating any illness or medical condition we should be aware of.
- Water and Drinks should be available during the session.
- All equipment is provided and all Above & Beyond Staff.

No more than 12 Young People

Session Plan.

- Introductions
- Group activity briefing
- Safety Talk
- Initial Demonstration of activities.
- Ongoing support and encouragement during whole activity session.
- Help to clean and pack equipment away.
- Award of Participation Certificates.