

2018 Miss Denver Fair

This year's Miss Denver Fair will be crowned Tuesday, September 11 on the stage in the Denver Memorial Park at 7:30 p.m. Please come to our fairgrounds and see who will be Miss Denver Fair 2018. Best wishes to these candidates from the Denver Fair Committee.

Kathryn Voler

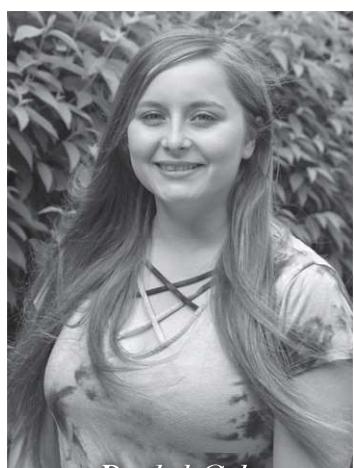

Kathryn Voler is the 18-year-old daughter of John and Melissa Voler of Reinholds. She is currently attending Cocalico High School, where she is the Secretary of Student Government, a member of National Honor Society, Tri-M Music Honor Society and Choralaires. After high school, she hopes to attend a four-year college or university where she plans to major in either law or something else in the communications field. Kathryn is also an active member of Faith United Evangelical Lutheran Church, where she helps in the nursery, reads as lector and participates in Peter's Porch to help feed the homeless. She is also an active volunteer within her community as a supply drive coordinator, a Denver Elementary School tutor and helper at the Denver Lions Club food stand at the Denver Fair. Kathryn is currently employed at both the Subway sandwich shop in Ephrata and Stoudt's Wonderful Good Bakery in Adamstown. In her free time, she enjoys reading, writing, acting, singing, traveling and being with friends and family.

Sandra Gideon of Denver. She is currently attending Cocalico High School, where she is a member of the National Honors Society (NHS), Tri-M Music Honor Society, Concert Choir, Choralaires, Chamber Choir, Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, Jazz Band, Marching Band, tennis and bowling team. She was also selected to be a part of County and District Choir and County Band as well. After high school, Rebecca Rebecca is the 17-year-old daughter of Rev. Sandra Gideon of Denver. She is currently attending Cocalico High School, where she is a member of the National Honors Society (NHS), Tri-M Music Honor Society, Concert Choir, Choralaires, Chamber Choir, Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, Jazz Band, Marching Band, tennis and bowling team. She was also selected to be a part of County and District Choir and County Band as well. After high school, Rebecca hopes to attend Messiah College or Susquehanna University to major in Music Education. She is also an active member at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Adamstown, where she helps with the music and volunteers with other programs. She also sings in the Berks Youth Chorus (BYC). In her free time, she enjoys traveling around the world and in the country, dabbling with 16 instruments and hanging out with friends.

Rebecca Gideon

Rachel Gehr

Rachel Gehr is 17-years-old and is a significant member of her society. She spends her time participating in the Cocalico High School Marching Band. She also participates in the Cocalico Playmakers and the Cocalico High School Swim Team. Rachel has been employed for over two years as a lifeguard at the Ephrata Recreation Center and outdoor pool. Along with lifeguarding in Ephrata, she also volunteers her skills at Camp Conquest as both a lifeguard and camp counselor. Her favorite things to do are go to camp, swim, act, spend time with friends and family. Rachel is also very involved in her church. She helps out with the nursery and the children's church. She also is involved with her youth group by attending every Sunday night. Rachel has been selected for Operation Barnabas where she will learn how to be a better leader in her church and her society. She plans on attending CTC to begin her career in event planning and once graduated, she plans to study to receive a Bachelor's Degree in Hospitality and Management.

*Sponsored by Adamstown Veterinary Hospital
(717) 484-0440*