

Tyler Hardiman, 8

Tyler is a sweet, kind energetic 8-year-old that has big dreams. Tyler started at 6 years old having a lemonade stand to raise money for a police officer he never met, who was battling cancer. He raised $1600 for the officer and his family. The next year at 7 years old he wanted to have a lemonade stand for Project New Hope of Worcester who helps Veterans and their families. Tyler's dream is to go to the army one day, so he wanted to give back to those who have served his country, He raised $2600 when is goal was just $100. Tyler raised $4,000 on August 25, 2017 with another lemonade stand to benefit Project New Hope! Tyler is a boy with Big Dream, and high hopes!
