Author's Talk – 9.30am - 11.30am

Ilka Tampke will discuss the research and development of her historical novel SKIN, and explore what we really know about the fascinating culture of Iron Age Britain. She will also share insights into her writing process and journey to publication.

Workshop – 12.30pm - 3.30pm

What are the elements that create powerful writing? Character, setting, plot, structure and voice must all work in harmony to make your stories sing. Come along to a friendly, supportive workshop, where we will analyse each element of fiction using inspiring examples from great writers. Bring your laptop or pen and paper and be prepared to write.

Bookings contact 0427 030 321 or burdypie@gmail.com
