Experience

Hayden is a chartered accountant with over 7 years experience working in public practice. He completed the Chartered Accountants program with a small tax and accounting firm located in Osborne Park in 2011.

Hayden is originally from the small town of Ballarat in Victoria, where he graduated from a Commerce/ Management double degree at the University of Ballarat in 2008. Whilst at university Hayden won the best student award for three different subjects; Financial Management, Corporate and Financial Accounting, and Organisation Law.

Hayden began at ROCG as a senior accountant in May 2011. In July 2014 Hayden took on the role of Client Services Manager and has been expanding his portfolio ever since. His specialties include business/corporate and personal taxation, financial accounting, and business valuations. Hayden works with some of our largest clients across a broad range of industries.

In his spare time Hayden enjoys going to the gym, working on cars and motorcycles and playing tennis.
