Beautifully illustrated CDs that make music a discerning gift

CDG 1288 NEW
Jazz Era
Music from the 30s - 50s
 Immerse yourself in the golden era of jazz. Discover three decades of wireless classics from some of the great jazz singers and composers, including Louis Armstrong, Ella Fitzgerald and Glen Miller. Your foot is sure to start tapping to these infectious rhythms from a variety of jazz styles.

CDG 1285 NEW
Unforgettable
50s iconic classics of Nat King Cole
 Nat 'King' Cole owed his stellar international reputation to his soft baritone. This album of his later vocal hits, from 'Unforgettable' to 'Mona Lisa' and 'Million-dollar baby' reveals a wonderful musician at work. A film star and idol of the 50s, he was feted by public and politicians alike, not least for his pioneering TV shows.

CDG 1218
As Time Goes By
Sophisticated songs from the 40s
 A set of gentle standards which sound as slick and sophisticated today as they did when they were first heard and played during the decade of the Second World War. Imperishable ballads and artists lit up the dark days of the war and brought joy to millions of listeners around the world.

CDG 1183
We'll Meet Again
Romantic songs of the war years
 Touching, moving, sentimental – and always memorable. These are the songs for the forces sweethearts, left behind when their men went to war. Misty eyes and aching hearts abound in some of the best songs from the 1940s. Featuring Vera Lynn, Dick Haymes, Dinah Shore, Vaughn Monroe and many more.

CDG 1276
Keep the Home Fires Burning
Songs from The First World War
 Original recordings from the period. Humour, irony and superb musicianship abound in these lovingly restored recordings from a century ago. Iconic artists such as John McCormac and Al Jolson keep the home fires burning in both England and the United States.

CDG 1082
Some Corner of a Foreign Field
Poetry and music of the Great War 1914-1918
 The horrors of the Great War produced some of the finest British poetry of the century. Poignant readings are combined with music of great power in a moving album, full of humour, irony and terror in equal measure.

CDG 1182
Doing a Grand Job
Favourite songs of the 40s
 Every citizen – man, woman and child – was involved in the war effort: in the fields, in the home, and in uniform either at the front or behind the scenes. This is a nostalgic collection with a hint of a woman's perspective of the war, with humour and silliness mixed in with fear, love and longing.

CDG 1264
Bless 'em All
Humorous songs from World War II
 From Flanagan and Allen to Spike Jones and George Formby this classic selection of witty wartime songs shows British humour at its best from the absurdity – and rudeness – of 'Der Fuehrer's face' to the inanity of 'Mr Wu'. There's plenty of sophistication too, though, as well as a whole host of saucy double meanings!

CDG 1227
Fascinat' Rhythm
Favourites from the 20s
Frolics for flappers and fun-filled songs from the roaring 20s! The rhythms, melodies, witty lyrics and inspired orchestrations are captured afresh in these beautifully restored original recordings of artists including Fred Astaire, Josephine Baker and George Gershwin. Put on your dancing shoes and take to the dance floor!

CDG 1286 NEW
Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy
Favourite wartime songs
A lot of the music from World War II was cheerful and fun, including the tracks chosen for this special album featuring all the musical stars of the period. There's an emphasis here on the end of the war and the celebrations which naturally followed.

CDG 1247
Laid Back Jazz
'Time on My Hands' and 'Easy Living': wouldn't we all like a bit of that?! Maybe we'll have 'A Ghost of a Chance' with this lovely album of timeless, super-cool jazz from the likes of George Shearing, Dave Brubeck, Errol Garner and many more names from the decade or so of jazz post-World War II.

CDG 1145
Cheek to Cheek
Dance music from the twenties & thirties
Classic songs with sophisticated tunes, sung by some of the most famous names in the business, make up this album of splendid music which will make those toes itch to be dancing! Astaire, Ellington, Crosby and Fitzgerald are just some of the major stars to be heard in beautifully restored original recordings.

CDG 1236
Swing
Essential Dance Classics
Hot rhythms and sophisticated arrangements were the hallmarks of swing, a dance band phenomenon that took off in earnest in the mid 30s. These original recordings, mainly from New York and Los Angeles, feature some of the biggest dance band stars of the day: Benny Goodman, Gene Krupa, Jack Teagarden and many more.

CDG 1280
I Got Rhythm
Music from the 20s & 30s
Music from the swinging twenties and thirties, perfect for cocktails and dancing. Broadway hits and unforgettable melodies by Gershwin, Cole Porter, 'Fats' Waller, Scott Joplin and others invite us to sit back and enjoy or even get up and shake a leg or two!

CDG 1144
Ain't Misbehavin'
Songs from the twenties & thirties
Classic love songs by the best singers in town merge with some great dance favourites for more foot-tapping fun and frolics! Famous bands and famous stars from Dietrich to Crosby and from Armstrong to Dorsey create a sophisticated mood of elegance and style.

CDG 1248
Sunday Morning Jazz
Some of the best of 1950s jazz, chosen to be both cool and cheerful – ideal for a lazy Sunday morning. Dave Brubeck, Herbie Steward, Chet Baker and many more in a hour long programme of fine melodies and rhythms. Put your feet up, have a coffee, read the paper and enjoy!

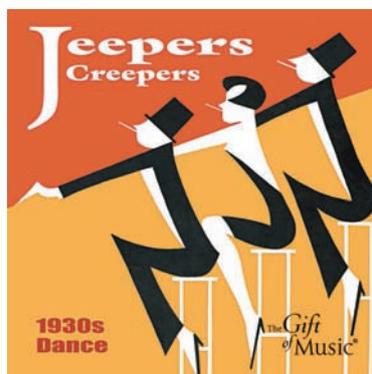

CDG 1253
Puttin' on the Ritz
Songs from Hollywood movies
 Songs from the golden age of Hollywood movies (1920s-50s) by some of the most famous stars. Marlene Dietrich, Judy Garland, Fred Astaire, Gene Kelly, Marilyn Munroe, Doris Day, Frank Sinatra and others – from Puttin' on the Ritz and Singin' in the Rain to High Society and South Pacific.

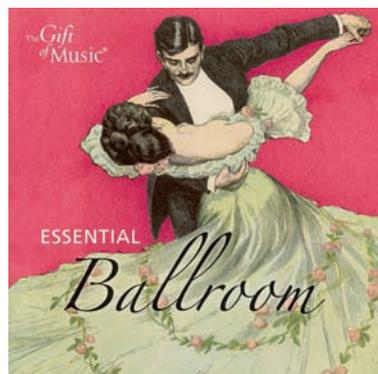

CDG 1195
Late Night Jazz
 Our second jazz collection is deliberately easy listening; relaxing and enjoyable, with strong melodies and a gentle swing. Sinatra, Holliday, Ella, Nat and many more stars in possibly the ultimate fantasy night club programme! Relax into the small wee hours with numbers like Sweet Lorraine, or enjoy April in Paris, and dream a little dream with Armstrong.

CDG 1200
In the Mood
Big band magic
 A celebration of the great names who personified the swing years with the recordings that are associated with them. Great performances from Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman and, of course, the great Glenn Miller feature songs still as popular today as ever, including 'In the mood' and 'Take the 'A' Train'.

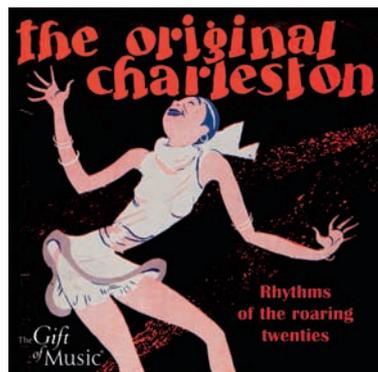

CDG 1249
Jeepers Creepers
1930s dance
 Jeepers creepers! Smooth, witty and confident music from the golden years of the British and American dance band. Society favourites and broadcasting legends combine in a sophisticated programme featuring some of the great names of the day.

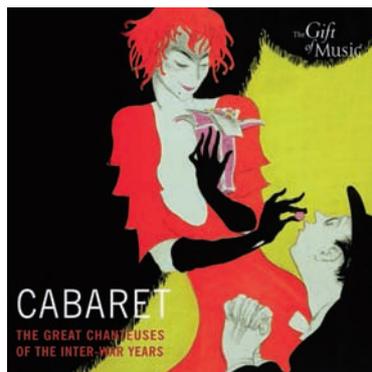

CDG 1265
Essential Ballroom
Classic ballroom dances
 Shall we dance? - The rhythms and speeds of traditional ballroom dancing are encapsulated in this remarkable CD. If you've followed it on television, and want to have a go yourself this is the album for you

CDG 1197
White Tie & Tails
Romantic hits of the 30s
 The 1930s were golden years for popular music as the Roaring Twenties made way for the Tranquil Thirties. Our selection of standards concentrates on the songs and ballads that characterize the wealth of lovely material that was popular during those years.

CDG 1171
The Original Charleston
Rhythms of the roaring twenties
 Josephine Baker – she of the famous banana skin costumes! – and many more famous musicians of the twenties in music for dancing and smooching away the evening, whether it's at the cabaret, or at home by the fireside.

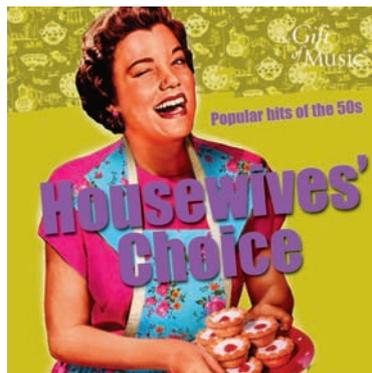

CDG 1186
Cabaret
The great chanteuses of the inter-war years
 A darkened room, a small stage, a single spotlight, cigar smoke and the hint of absinthe: welcome to the cabaret! Classic recordings of Greta Keller, Edith Piaf and Marlene Dietrich, lovingly restored in The Gift of Music studios. Highlights include 'Falling in love again' and 'Speak to me of love'.

CDG 1228 Big Band Classics

Enjoy the legends of the big band era! This selection of some of the finest bands of the twentieth century is designed to inspire and relax in equal measure, from 'Boogie Woogie' to 'Stardust' and from 'Moonlight Serenade' to 'Tuxedo Junction'. The album highlights the incomparable Glenn Miller with some of his most famous numbers.

CDG 1226 Housewives' Choice

Popular Hits of the 50s
'Housewives' Choice' was a popular BBC radio show which enjoyed its heyday in the 1950s, playing thousands of records a year to the homes of Britain. The wide mix of musical styles is reflected in this selection of songs, featuring the stars of the age: Guy Mitchell, 'Nat' King Cole, Tony Bennett, Doris Day and many more.

CDG 1191 Music! Music! Music!

Favourite songs of the 50s
If it wasn't rock'n'roll in the 50s, it was great ballads and tunes! If it wasn't rebellious, it was cheeky and witty or romantic. We've chosen a selection from the great records of the day: Doris Day, Dean Martin, Nat King Cole and other stars singing songs like 'Whatever will be, will be', 'Unforgettable' and 'Memories are made of this'.

CDG 1176 The Way We Were in the 60s

Our favourite tunes and songs
Memories of Twiggy and the mini recalled by a wonderfully nostalgic selection of favourite hits from the crazy decade of fun and new-found freedoms. Famous artists from The Supremes to Gerry and the Pacemakers in a programme of light-hearted fun.

CDG 1084 The Way We Were in the 50s

Favourite songs and golden memories
The 50s saw a new age of optimism, with music that was carefree and happy. With this album we remember hits that we sang to, danced to and romanced to. What great stars there were: Nat King Cole, Doris Day, Guy Mitchell and a host of others.

CDG 1217 Drivetime Jazz

Rhythms for the road
Sound the horn and clear the road! Cheery jazz classics to make your journey seem shorter – or to blow away the frustrations of the traffic jams and congestion of modern motoring. The jazz greats are here: Armstrong and Hawkins, Bix and Benny, Bessie and the Duke, with the rhythm you need for that drive!

CDG 1131 Essential Jazz Classics

Iconic performances from the best of the best
The best of New Orleans jazz, brought together in a single album which celebrates those early years: the good tunes, foot-stomping rhythms and rich harmonies which marked out jazz as a unique and new art form created to charm and delight the ear.

CDG 1080 The Way We Were in the 40s

Memorable melodies of a dramatic decade
A scrapbook of cherished tunes, recalling the changing mood of the 1940s, from the comradeship of the war to the peace of the late 40s. This album is brimful of music and memories.

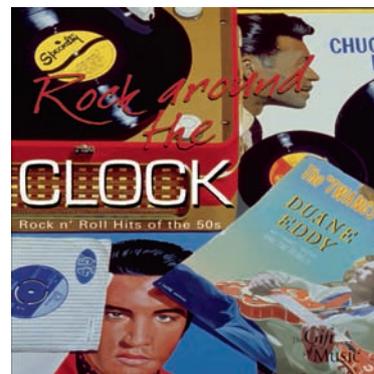

CDG 1224
Far Away Places
Nostalgic songs of travel
A musical voyage around the world featuring some of its favourite songs and melodies performed by some of the greatest names. Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, Gracie Fields, Judy Garland and more lead us on a journey around the globe: Galway, Russia, Siam and Sorrento, Morocco, St Louis and Paris are just a few of the exotic destinations.

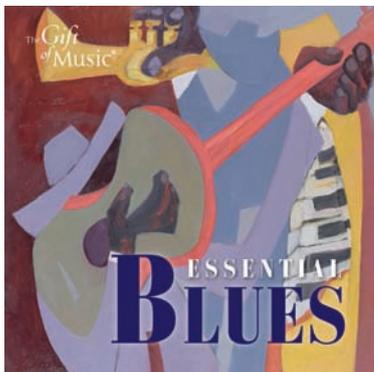

CDG 1254
Essential Ragtime
Hits from Scott Joplin and other American composers
An album of ragtime fun to get your fingers and toes tapping. Brilliant piano music by Scott Joplin and other light hearted American composers of the day. Highlights include 'The Entertainer', 'Maple Leaf Rag', 'Solace' and 'Elite Syncopations on American pianos of the period.'

CDG 1240
Vera Lynn
Anthems and hits from the stunning career of 'The Forces' Sweetheart', including several not heard before on CD. 'We'll Meet Again' and 'The White Cliffs of Dover' are essential recordings here, but tracks such as 'My Prayer' prove Vera Lynn was a great singer as well as a much-loved British entertainer.

CDG 1196
Rock Around the Clock
Rock 'n' roll hits of the 50s
The sounds which defined a generation and a new world of pop. A fine selection of some of the most famous rock and roll tracks of all time. Rhythmic and dynamic music from Elvis, Duane Eddy, Little Richard, Chuck Berry, Bill Haley, Buddy Holly, Jerry Lee Lewis and more, from 'Heartbreak Hotel' to 'Great Balls of Fire'!

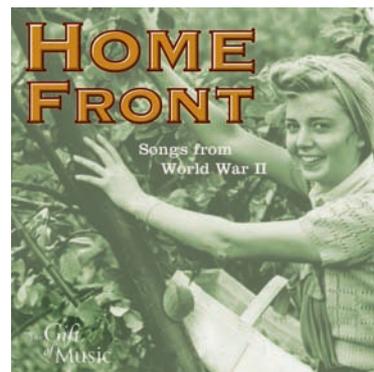

CDG 1274
Essential Blues
This new collection brings together some of the most famous songs and musicians from the blues tradition. BB King, Bo Diddley, John Lee Hooker and many others sing of troubles and heartache through a series of wonderful tracks which have a remarkably uplifting feel.

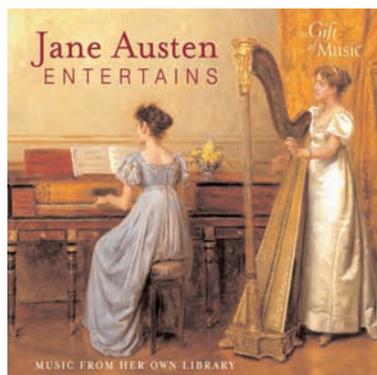

CDG 1239
Bing Crosby
One of the most popular stars ever, Bing Crosby dominated the musical scene of late 40s and early 50s, with hundreds of millions of record sales, a radio play history like no other, and a strong presence on the silver screen. 'The Old Crooner's sound was universally recognised.'

CDG 1262
Flying High
Songs of flight from the 40s & 50s
Let your imagination 'fly you to the sky' with this atmospheric collection of songs and music with a flying theme. Nostalgic reminders of the glory days of the RAF and its finest aircraft, including the immortal Spitfire, combine with some of the most famous songs and tunes of the twentieth century.

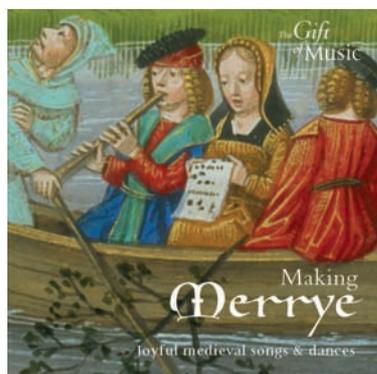

CDG 1085
Home Front
Songs from World War II
The war was not just fought on the beaches, but on the home front as well. But it wasn't all doom and gloom, as this album of cheerful and inspiring wartime favourites shows. Who can ever forget songs like 'Bless'em all', 'Run Rabbit, run', or 'There'll always be an England'.

CDG 1187
Jane Austen Entertains
Music from her own library
'Aunt Jane began her day with music...much that she played from was manuscript, copied out by herself...' Her manuscripts survive, and this programme is drawn from them: a mixture of the light and fashionable music of the day for flute, voice and piano, recorded in her home at Chawton in Hampshire.

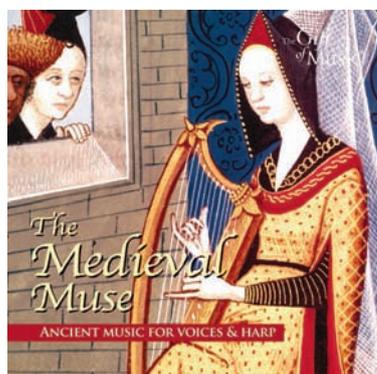

CDG 1283
Magna Carta
Music of medieval England
A special CD to mark the 800th anniversary of Magna Carta, a turning point in English history. The plainchant and carols on this recording are some of the greatest glories of the medieval world. Their origins in the oral tradition make the surviving manuscripts, much like Magna Carta, especially precious.

CDG 1062
Making Merry
Joyful medieval songs and dances
Lively medieval music from England, France and Italy, from 'Mi very joye' and the 'Agincourt Carol' to the 'Montard Brawl'. Period instruments and voices combine to create a complete musical portrait of the late medieval world.

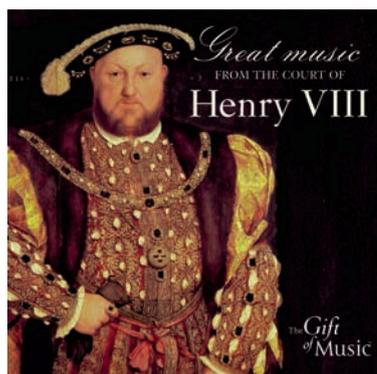

CDG 1192
Good Company
Great music from a Tudor court
A musical journey back in time – to the world of the jesters and music makers of the royal chamber. Stately dances, gentle lute music and wistful love songs make up this programme of beautiful and elaborate sixteenth-century music from the Tudor courts of Henry VIII and Elizabeth I.

CDG 1259
The Medieval Muse
Ancient music for voices & harp
Haunting and sensuous songs from the first millennium and the early Middle Ages include the uplifting visions expressed in music by the first known woman composer, Abbess Hildegard of Bingen, the voice of the ninth-century lyric poet Notker and the magnificent tenth-century 'Song of the Sybil'.

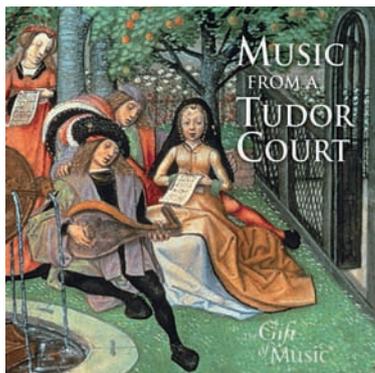

CDG 1241
A Pageant of Medieval Music
Cheerful dances & songs
Cheerful dances and songs from all over Europe of the middle ages and early renaissance. From bear dances to Spanish songs, from brawls to revels, here is a happy, cheery album of dynamic medieval music recorded using instruments and playing techniques of the period.

CDG 1148
Great Music from the Court of Henry VIII
Superb singing from one of England's exceptional vocal ensembles, alongside music for lute and clavichord, in a programme of music from the court of Henry VIII, bringing to life the pages of a musical manuscript which belonged to the King himself, and which includes many of his own compositions.

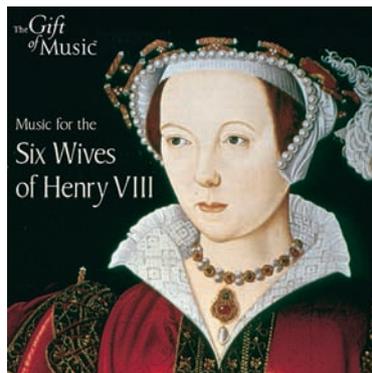

CDG 1052
Great Music from the Court of Elizabeth
Glorious music from the rich and glamorous court of Queen Elizabeth I, mostly composed by her favourite musician, William Byrd. Viols, flutes, recorders, lutes and voices combine in an evocative programme of songs and dances reflecting the tastes of England's first golden age.

CDG 1250
Music from a Tudor Court

Elegant lute duets
Delicate lute duets which conjure images of a courtly scene. Musicians play quietly in the corner of a garden, where the colours and scents are reflected in the twists, turns and melodies of this elegant music. Includes music by Dowland, Francesco da Milano and others.

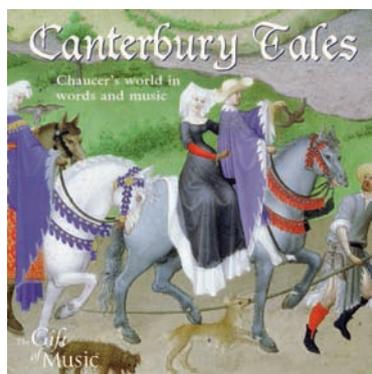

CDG 1010
Music for the Six Wives of Henry VIII

Henry VIII was a musician and music lover. This album of cheerful songs and dances brings together some of Henry's own compositions with the best Renaissance music from England and the Continent, reflecting the taste of each of Henry's wives and giving a lively impression of Tudor court life.

CDG 1234
Jane Austen Piano Favourites

'The Piano Forte often talks of you; - in various keys, tunes & expressions I allow - but be it Lesson or Country dance, Sonata or Waltz, You are really its constant theme.' (From a letter by Jane Austen to Caroline Austen, 1817.) A further selection from Jane Austen's music library plus other popular piano pieces of the day.

CDG 1081
Canterbury Tales

Chaucer's world in words and music

The lively and colourful world of Chaucer's pilgrims is captured in extracts from the Prologue to the Canterbury Tales, intermingled with atmospheric music of the period: songs, dances and instrumental pieces complement the compelling rhythmical language of the master poet.

CDG 1117
Flower of Chivalry
Tranquil medieval music featuring The Hilliard Ensemble

An emphasis on peace and calm in this selection of medieval music, including gentle songs by one of the greatest composers of the age, Guillaume Dufay, whose music charmed the ears of the Burgundian court in the fifteenth century. Plus harp music by King Henry VIII.

CDG 1111
Music for a Great Castle

Colourful medieval music

Raise the drawbridge! Music for dancing in the keep, for meditation in the chapel and for feasting in the great hall. A collection of medieval and renaissance music which presents a musical tour of a great castle. Trumpets, drums, flutes, harps, recorders and lutes provide a rich and colourful programme.

CDG 1221
A Gift for a King
Music for Henry VIII

A collection of glorious sacred music which was presented as a gift to Henry VIII at the Field of the Cloth of Gold in 1526 by the city of Florence. Music by the great European composers of the day which was known to Henry and heard in his great chapels throughout the land, in an atmospheric recording by Oxford's finest mixed-voice choir.

CDG 1055
Music of the Middle Ages

Songs, laments and dances

Music found in medieval manuscripts that evokes the age of chivalry and courtly love. This richly varied programme includes plainchant and instrumental pieces played on a psaltery (small harp) and portative organ of the kind often seen in medieval paintings.

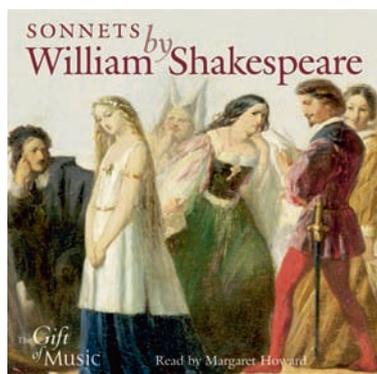

CDG 1118
Trafalgar
A celebration of Horatio, Lord Nelson

'England expects that every man will do his duty'. Robust and hearty music for a national hero taken from the sea songs and concert hall favourites of Admiral Lord Nelson's time, specially created for the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Trafalgar.

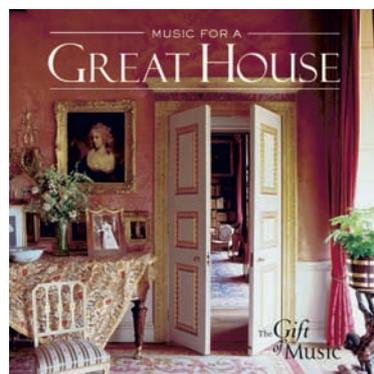

CDG 1006
Songs for William Shakespeare
Songs from his plays

The finest songs from Shakespeare's plays, from Johnson's arrangement of 'Where the bee sucks' in 'The Tempest' to Morley's famous version of Feste's song, 'O mistress mine', from 'Twelfth Night'. Carefully researched and played on instruments of the period.

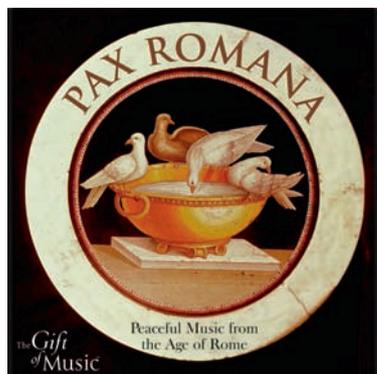

CDG 1123
Sonnets by William Shakespeare

Read by Margaret Howard
Subtle, clever, witty and deeply profound, Shakespeare's sonnets have captured the imagination of readers for generations. Here they are brought to life, with suitable musical interludes, by broadcaster Margaret Howard and Bernard Palmer.

CDG 1104
Music for a Great House

Handel, Telemann & Mozart
The splendours of a great house, its vistas and grand entrances, are captured in this programme of music from the Baroque to the Romantic, from ceremonial trumpets to drawing room virtuosity, including Handel, Telemann, Schubert, Mozart and others.

CDG 1149
Pax Romana

Peaceful music from the age of Rome
The Romans loved music and used it both in peace and at war. This unique programme recreates the sounds that might have been heard in a Roman villa in fifth- or sixth-century Europe, using a wide variety of instruments which were known at the time. A peaceful album, purely instrumental.

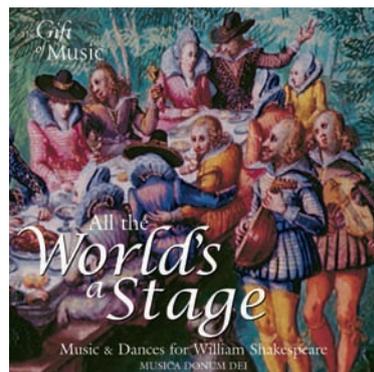

CDG 1114
Travels with my Lute
Fine renaissance music

The gentle lute played by Lynda Sayce, one of Britain's leading virtuosos. The best lute music of the Renaissance, contrasting the different regional musical styles which emerged during the golden period of lute composition. Played on a variety of different lutes.

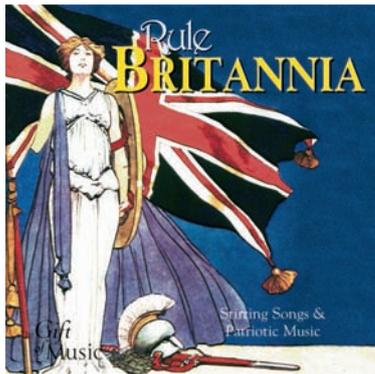

CDG 1199
Suites & Solos
Handel's Water Music

A collection of chamber music from Georgian England by the leading composers of the day. The programme includes a chamber version of Handel's 'Water Music' and popular music from London's pleasure gardens.

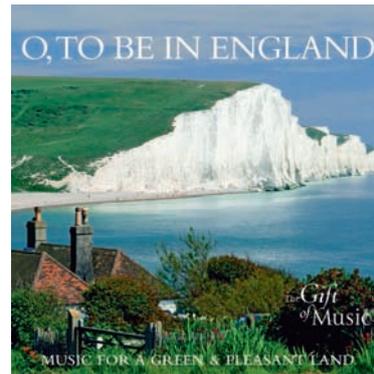

CDG 1110
All the World's a Stage
Music for William Shakespeare

Music from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries composed for Shakespeare's plays or to celebrate his work. A wide range of instrumental sounds and some splendid singing create a fascinating programme of dynamic and cheerful English music, performed by one of Britain's leading ensembles.

CDG 1126
Rule Britannia
Stirring songs & patriotic music
Music chosen for its thrill factor: from trumpets and drums to soaring choral voices, this programme has a 'Last Night of the Proms' feel. It features the great and the good of English music of the past including Handel, Holst, Elgar and Walton.

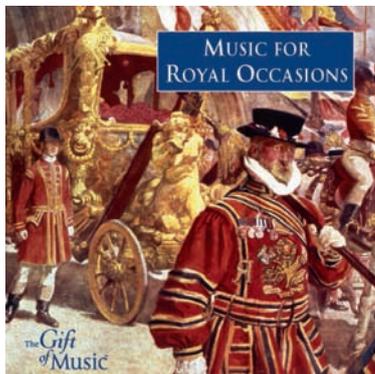

CDG 1213
O, to be in England
Music for a green and pleasant land
A fine collection of moving and wistful orchestral works which celebrate the English landscape and its natural beauty. English composers have always excelled at pastoral music with a hint of nostalgia: from 'The Lark Ascending' to the strains of 'Tintagel' this evocative selection features some of this pleasant land's finest music.

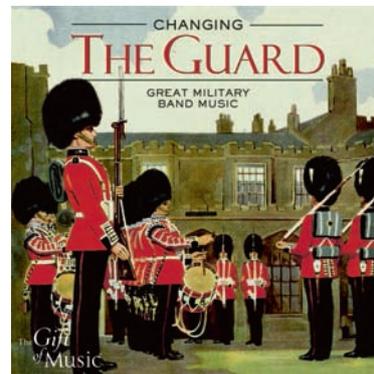

CDG 1272
Spirit of England
A musical landscape
From Greensleeves to Jerusalem this selection of music in celebration of England's green and pleasant land will evoke fond memories of summer holidays, end-of-term assemblies and listening to the wireless alongside a nostalgic pride in our country and its unique heritage.

CDG 1263
A Royal Fanfare
Music for coronations & royal ceremonial
Grand music for coronations, for ceremonial occasions, for matters of state and for formal dancing is brought together in this special album. 400 years of quintessentially British music, from Matthew Locke to Eric Coates, centred around the peerless style of Sir Edward Elgar, whose 'Pomp and Circumstance' marches are familiar to us all.

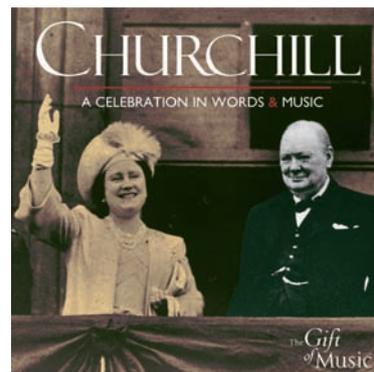

CDG 1053
Music for Royal Occasions
The monarchy remains as popular as ever. Here is a programme of music for royal occasions, from coronations to weddings. Choirs, orchestras, military bands, organs and fanfare trumpets perform stirring music with plenty of good cheer, in a hearty programme of great British tunes.

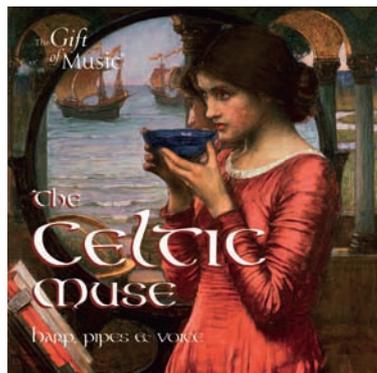

CDG 1127
Changing the Guard
Great military band music
'They're changing the guard at Buckingham Palace...' and this is what they might play: a superb mix of marching tunes and popular songs, played here by a mighty tour de force of virtuoso bandmen chosen from amongst the best bands from Her Majesty's Armed Forces.

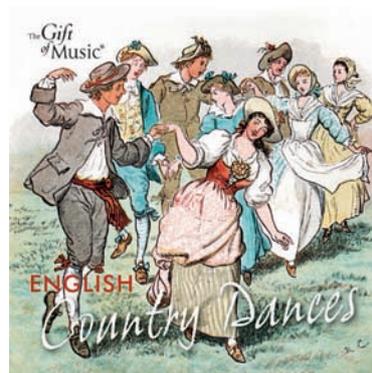

CDG 1189
Music for London
Brass bands, cathedral choirs and theatre music are all typical musical sounds of London, whether you are watching the Changing of the Guard, visiting Westminster Abbey or having a night out on the town. A wide range of songs and instrumental numbers express in musical terms the diversity and range of sights experienced in London.

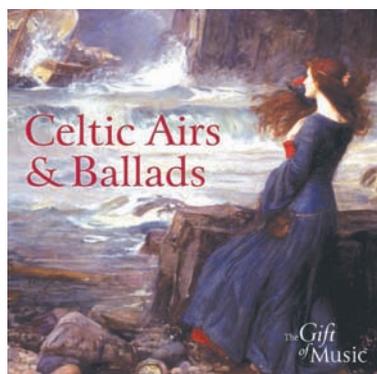

CDG 1125
Churchill
A celebration in words and music
The voice of the great man himself in a selection of his most famous speeches, combined with music of the period: songs of hope, and cheerful little numbers in amongst the stirring words of Britain's most famous Prime Minister.

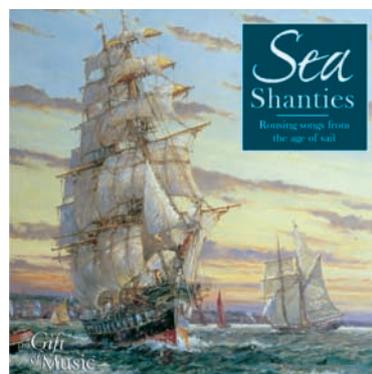

CDG 1270
The Celtic Muse
Harp, pipes & voice
Fine traditional music from the farthest reaches of the Celtic lands. Authentic, atmospheric and relaxing melodies for harp, pipes and voice express tales of love, nature, home and heroic deeds.

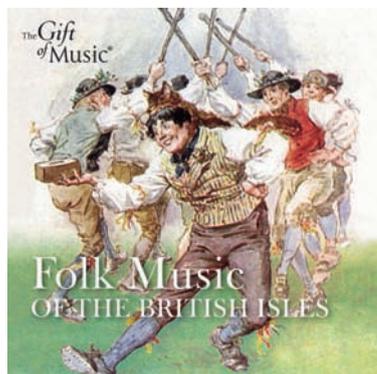

CDG 1246
English Country Dances
Cheery English dances from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in vibrant arrangements from The Broadside Band. From the Long Dance to the Country Dance, the shawms and sackbuts, recorders and hurdy-gurdies present a series of tuneful, rhythmic pavaues and galliards.

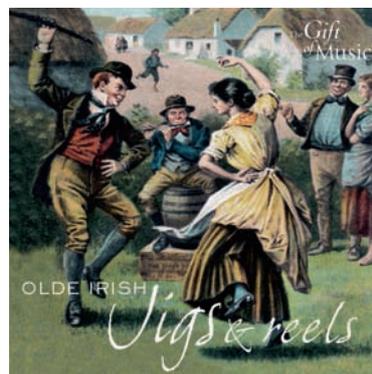

CDG 1047
Celtic Airs and Ballads
Haunting songs of love and life, of lands and seas, of heroes and saints, full of the mystery of our Celtic past. With authentic instruments and the voices of the greatest folk musicians in the British Isles.

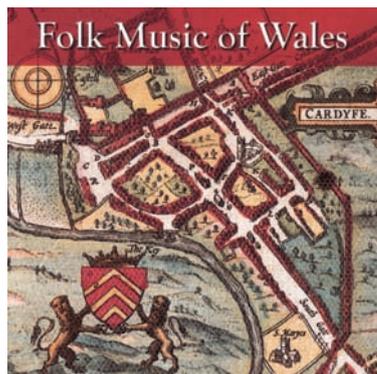

CDG 1024
Sea Shanties
Rousing songs from the age of sail
The armchair sailor will find plenty to fire the imagination in this cheerful collection of songs from the sea. Sea shanties were often sung to help with the repetitive and back-breaking tasks needed to sail a big ship – good rhythms, good tunes and good words.

CDG 1277
Folk Music of the British Isles
Traditional folk music
Some of the best of British folk music representing each country of the British Isles. England is represented by various countryside traditions such as hunting and poaching! Then follow some of Ireland's best-known tunes and some vigorous Scottish dances. From Wales we have lullabies and ballads.

CDG 1175
Olde Irish Jigs and Reels
Sparkling performances from some of our leading folk musicians in medleys of great Irish tunes. Feet will be tapping within seconds, in a powerful evocation of the spirit of Ireland expressed through its music. Jigs, reels, hornpipes and polkas and a selection of Irish songs.

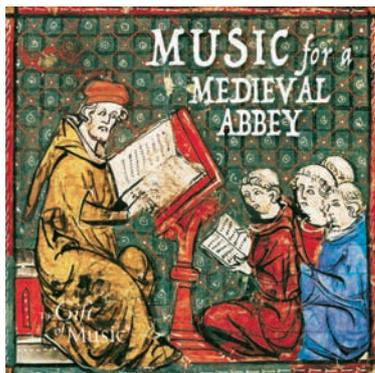

CDG 1019
Folk Music of Wales
Lullabies, legends and country dances mix with genteel drawing room music on this album. Harp, voices, dulcimer and oboe bring a richness of sound to largely instrumental versions of many Welsh folk songs.

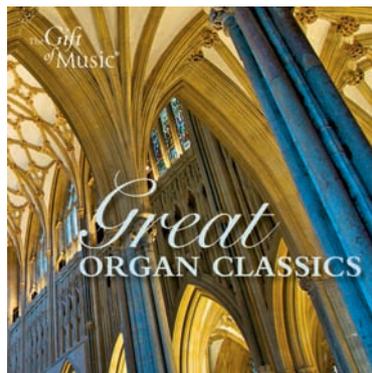

CDG 1016
Folk Music of England
A selection of England's rich heritage of folk music sung by top artists from Oxford, one of England's leading folk music centres. Foot-tapping tunes and rhythms will keep you smiling long after the disc has ended!

CDG 1018
Folk Music of Scotland

CDG 1017
Folk Music of Ireland

CDG 1289 NEW
Music for a Medieval Abbey
Chant for calm reflection
 Timeless music evokes the tranquillity of a medieval abbey. Sung mainly by girls' voices accompanied by medieval instruments, this music creates an atmosphere of calm reflection and showcases the extraordinary creativity of Europe's cloistered orders.

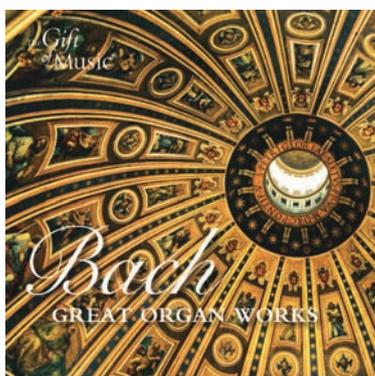

CDG 1233
Great Organ Classics
 Virtuoso sounds from the King of Instruments! Famous toccatas by Bach and Widor frame an album of fast and furious organ music interspersed with gentle melodies from great organists of the past. Martin Souter presents the magnificent organ of Winchester cathedral in a thrilling sonic spectacular.

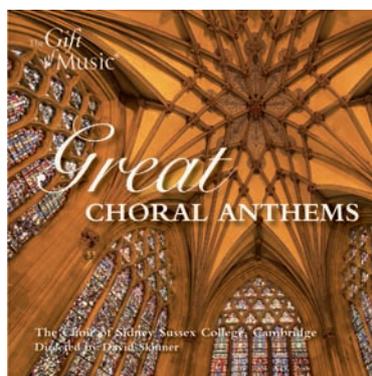

CDG 1282
Vespers
Timeless music for contemplation
 Vespers is the ancient office of prayer, celebrated every evening throughout Christendom. Here, in this beautiful and reflective recording, plainsong chants are sung in praise and contemplation and contrast with the magnificent organ works of Dupré and the splendour of choral music by David Bevan, John Sheppard and John Duggan.

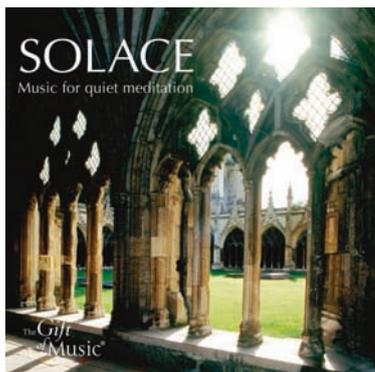

CDG 1107
Sanctus
Music for quiet contemplation
 Haunting and evocative words and music that bring us echoes from the world of the monks of Lindisfarne, the Saxon monastery on Holy Island off Northumbria, with early English church music and Northumbrian pipes.

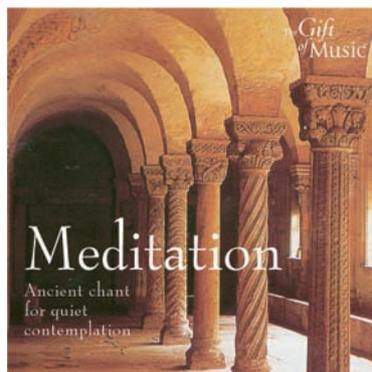

CDG 1273
Bach Great Organ Works
 Johann Sebastian Bach, possibly the greatest composer in history, composed a huge amount of organ music, much of which has remained some of the best-known pieces of all time. It retains a dynamism and joy which has never been equalled. Includes 'Tocatta and Fugue in D minor'.

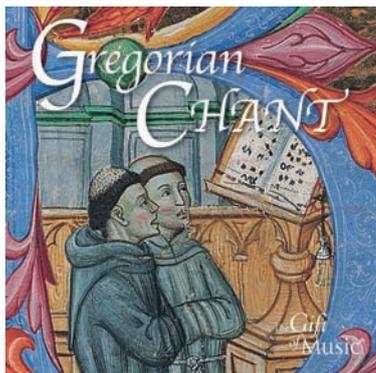

CDG 1275
Great Choral Anthems
In quires and places where they sing
 These words from the Book of Common Prayer of 1662 have led to a massive amount of creativity. This selection of glorious works is mainly from the Victorian and Edwardian periods and includes famous works often heard at Coronations and other national events.

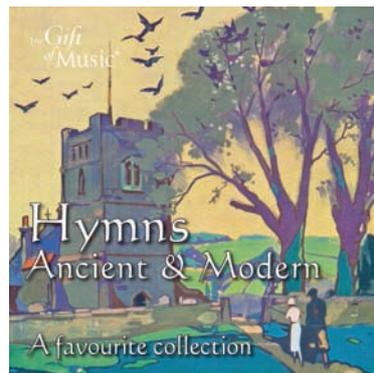

CDG 1260
Solace
Music for quiet meditation
 Timeless plainsong from a medieval abbey centred around one of the most popular mass melodies, 'Cunctipotens genitor Deus'. The music was used for major feasts and church celebrations and its eternal beauty perfectly captures a need for calm and contemplation: solace indeed for those hours where peace is needed by the listener.

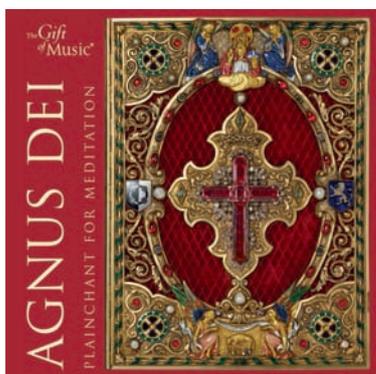

CDG 1026
Meditation
Ancient chant for quiet contemplation
 Restful sounds of timeless plainchant to soothe away the stresses of modern life. Music from long ago, from a less hurried age, when there was time to stand back and contemplate. Let your imagination roam and let meditative thoughts begin!

CDG 1278
Gregorian Chant
Calm music for meditation
 Timeless sounds from an earlier age. Men's voices sing a selection of ancient plainchant to soothe the distractions of the modern age. Single lines of melody build up an almost hypnotic effect which calms and quiets the busy mind. The music is taken from some of the earliest-known settings of words used in the early centuries of the church.

CDG 1287
Hymns Ancient & Modern
A favourite collection
 A favourite collection of timeless Victorian favourites, all taken from an early edition of Hymns Ancient & Modern, one of the most popular and influential hymnals. Hymns include O God our help in ages past, There is a green hill, Rock of ages cleft for me and Jesu lover of my soul.

CDG 1163
Agnus Dei
Plainchant for meditation
 An atmospheric medieval mass recorded by men's voices. A sumptuous sound bringing the inner peace of this timeless music – Gregorian chant – which formed the bedrock of the liturgy of the early church and whose calm intensity still speaks to us with equal clarity today.

CDG 1216
Magnificat
Beautiful and calming choral music
 This programme of beautiful and elaborate sixteenth-century choral music from across Europe was inspired by the music collection of a French ambassador to the court of Henry VIII. It features magnificent music by some of the greatest composers of the age, recorded in Italy in a rich and resonant acoustic.

CDG 1251
Great Choral Classics
Palestrina
 Sublime, magnificent church music by one of the greatest composers of the Renaissance. Often imitated, but never bettered, the calm grandeur of his motets for four, five, or even eight voices has inspired generations of listeners, who have sought out his music's mellifluous perfection.

CDG 1180
Kyrie
Chant for quiet meditation
 Timeless music from the early church, its rites and its rituals, creates an unhurried atmosphere of calm. Vocal plainchant and instrumental music combine to evoke the medieval world in sound with fine performances from The Oxford Clerkes and the stunning musicians of Le Basile.

CDG 1120
Voices of Tranquillity
Music for the Sherborne Missal
 A meditative album of music linked to the Sherborne missal, an important manuscript associated with Sherborne Abbey which celebrated its 1300th anniversary in 2005. Sung by Magdala, Oxford's leading mixed-voice choir, it contains both gentle plainchant and magnificent full-bodied choral music.

CDG 1051
Music for Great Cathedrals
The soaring sounds of choral music
 Soaring anthems and motets from the golden age of English choral music, by Byrd, Taverner, Gibbons, Tallis and others, composed in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries to be sung in the glorious acoustics of Britain's greatest cathedrals and churches.

CDG 1027
All Things Bright

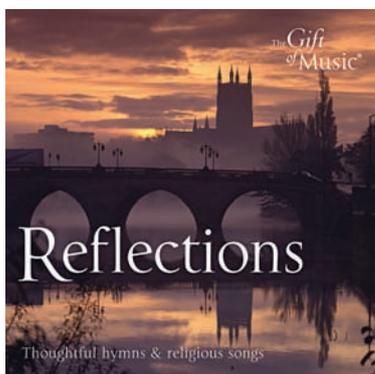

and Beautiful

A collection of favourite hymns
Favourite English hymns from Sunday school days, taken from Victorian hymn books. A traditional choice of hymns including many which will be remembered from occasions such as weddings and christenings.

CDG 1150
Evensong

A meditation for the close of the day
The timeless liturgy of the Anglican church has produced a wonderful tradition of Evensong. This album captures beautiful choral music by Bernard Rose, one of the twentieth century's most brilliant exponents of this special art form, with bible readings by Margaret Howard.

CDG 1257
Reflections

Thoughtful hymns & religious songs

Thoughtful hymns & religious songs
A reflective and moving collection of hymns and other music with a religious theme. Organ, piano and harmonium accompany an intimate choir of singers who perform these favourite melodies from 'Abide with Me', 'All through the Night' and 'Count your Blessings' to 'In the Chapel in the Moonlight' and 'The Lost Chord'.

CDG 1121
Hymns for all Seasons

Hymns for the Church's year
A selection of hymns for the church's year, from Advent to Trinity, recorded in the churches and chapels of the city of Oxford. A glorious celebration of an English tradition, with reminders of old favourites from times past, and some familiar and heart-warming tunes and words.

CDG 1030
Music for a Church Wedding

Well known music to choose for a church wedding

Well known music to choose for a church wedding
An album of music for a special day. Use this lovely collection of organ music to make personal choices for your own celebration and listen to it afterwards as an atmospheric reminder of a unique moment in your life. From Bach to Wagner, there's something to suit everybody.

CDG 1177
Sacred: Music for the Christian Faith

A selection of music for the major festivals and the daily liturgy of the Christian church, drawn from the traditions of both the Western and Eastern churches, Catholic and Protestant. Music for the Eucharist and for evening prayers, performed by choirs, solo singers and instrumentalists.

CDG 1092
In Pastures Green

A meditation in psalms, poems and music

A meditation in psalms, poems and music
A treasury of favourite psalms, cherished music and poetry, from the immortal 23rd psalm to Thomas Hardy's poignant evocations of English rural churches. The poetry is complemented by well-known favourites such as 'Crimond' and Vaughan Williams' magnificent 'Tallis Fantasia'.

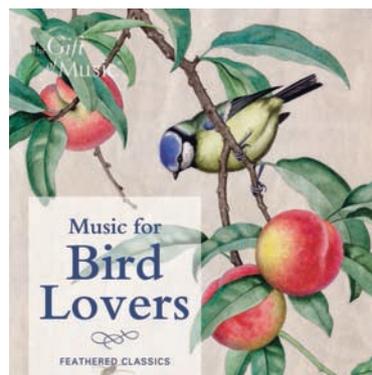

CD 511
Songs from Sunday School

Old-fashioned songs and hymns
A collection of hymns and music which many will remember from Sunday school days. Today's children will love them! An album of warm, favourite songs of thoughtfulness and meditation from a more innocent age. Perfect to introduce the young to (or to remind the young at heart of) good quality music from the past.

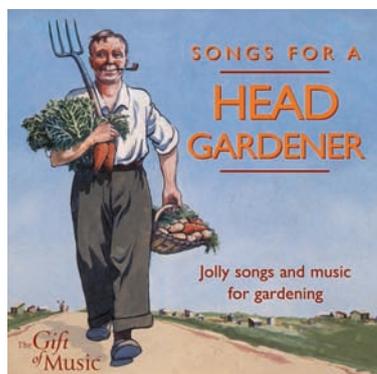

CDG 1083
England's Favourite Poems

Read by Margaret Howard
An inspiring anthology of classics such as Wordsworth's 'Upon Westminster Bridge', Kipling's 'If', Masfield's evocative 'Sea fever' and Eliot's affectionate portrayal of 'Gus, the Theatre Cat', interspersed with gentle music.

CDG 1269
Music for Bird Lovers

Feathered classics!
A beautiful selection of classical music inspired by our feathered friends! Blue tit, robin, lark, nightingale, cuckoo, blackbird and linnet find musical expression alongside exotic pelicans, a bluebird and some imaginary birds. Listen too for the dawn chorus expressed in music and the thieving magpie!

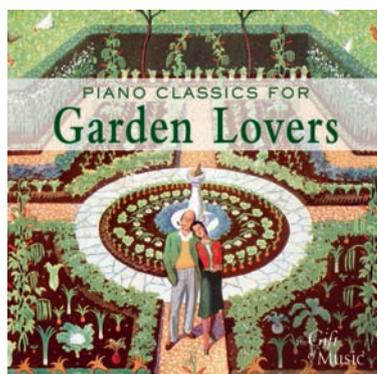

CDG 1094
Songs for a Head Gardener

Jolly songs and music for gardening
A light-hearted collection of music with a gardening theme. The scene is set with 'The sun has got his hat on' and continues with some great songs of the past, including 'Floral dance', 'Trees' and 'Love in bloom'.

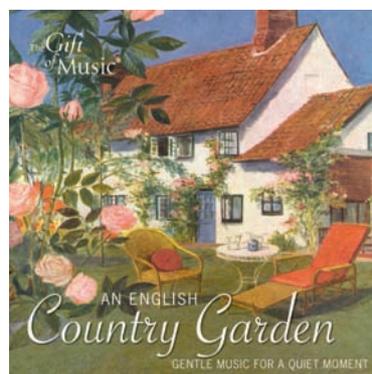

CDG 1095
Music for a Lady Gardener

Favourite songs for gardening
From 'Red roses for a blue lady' to 'Come into the garden, Maude', this collection of timeless musical souvenirs will delight the lady gardener, and perhaps her husband too! Music to take the strain out of putting your back into it!

CDG 1193
Piano Classics for Garden Lovers

Unwind in the garden – whether real or imaginary! – with classical piano music chosen with the garden in mind. This relaxing programme of classics by composers such as Mendelssohn and Schumann includes such masterpieces as 'Spring Song' and pastoral-style pieces describing spring, flowers and birds in music.

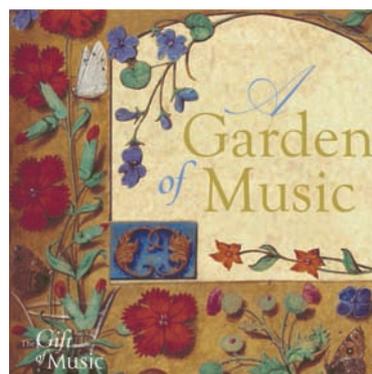

CDG 1219
An English Country Garden

Gentle music for a quiet moment
A welcome break after a hard day's work! The lark, the ash and the English country garden are celebrated in gentle piano music and English folk song. The plaintive oboe and the haunting sounds of the lute and flute add to the atmosphere of calm and contemplation.

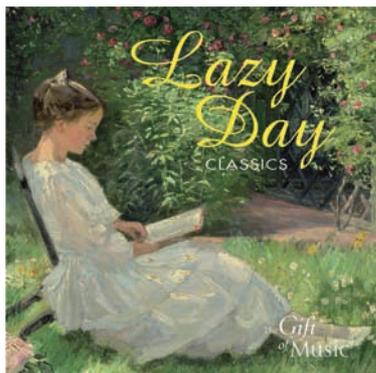

CDG 1089
Music for a Summer Afternoon

Favourites for drifting and dreaming
The perfect programme of relaxing music for a lazy summer afternoon, wherever it is spent, indoors or out, in the garden or on the river. What could be more fitting than Coates' 'Summer days' Suite' and Stanford's 'The Bluebird'?

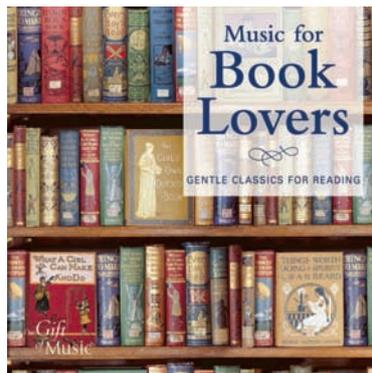

CDG 1128
A Garden of Music

A rich collection of music from the medieval world
From the sounds of girls' voices to quiet instrumental moments, songs of love and devotion fill this album with the atmosphere of the medieval world, and its exotic gardens. The music is taken from medieval manuscripts in museums and libraries from around the world.

CDG 1271
Lazy Day Classics
Relaxing music for an indulgent moment
 Calm music to help you while away a lazy day and be a little self-indulgent! Put your feet up, read your favourite book, open a box of chocolates and relax in the company of some of the world's greatest composers.

CDG 1194
Music for Book Lovers
Gentle classics for reading
 Gentle music makes a perfect accompaniment to reading. This selection has been chosen with the reader in mind. Many of the tracks began life with a literary theme taken from old legends, Shakespeare's tales or famous books. These works are interspersed with other pieces which reflect a quiet mood or a scene from nature.

CDG 1151
Night Owl
Late night classics
 At the end of a long day, and on into the night, this lovely album of relaxing music will help banish those cares and worries and promote a calm and tranquil atmosphere. A Nocturne, some Moonlight and some gentle adagios, harp, piano and orchestra, create a peaceful world of sound.

CDG 1279
Music for Dog Lovers
Canine classics
 This light-hearted classical collection will appeal to dog lovers as we celebrate man's best friend. Music from the great composers is themed around dogs and some of the things that they do and some of their typical characteristics and traits. Works by Vivaldi, Grieg, Bach, Schubert, Satie, Chopin and more.

CDG 1056
A Feast of Music
Classical favourites for dining and entertaining
 Handel, Vivaldi, Bach and Rameau: baroque orchestral works from some of the greatest composers of the eighteenth century make a perfect background of elegant but unobtrusive music to help create the right atmosphere at any dinner party.

CDG 1255
Late Night Classics
Relaxing music for two guitars
 Relaxing, rich and exotic music from Spain, France, Italy and Germany for two guitars. Salsa rhythms rub shoulders with the precision of JS Bach and jazzy harmonies contrast with the serene style of Fauré's Pavane.

CDG 1214
Coffee Break Classics
Time out with relaxing music
 Put your feet up, pour out a cup of coffee and listen to some beautiful music! Take a few restorative moments of calm in the company of some of the world's finest melodies: flute, harp and piano combined with orchestras in concertos by Albinoni, Mozart and Beethoven, plus some lovely Spanish music for guitar duet.

CDG 1130
Sunday Morning Favourites
Gentle classical music
 'Easy on a Sunday morning ...'
 This collection of music is perfect for making a slow start to the day. So get the Sunday papers, put the kettle on and relax with a beautiful mixture of piano and orchestral music in a slow, gentle style.

CDG 1244
Music for Opera Lovers
Classic arias

The greatest operatic arias from historic performances of the twentieth century. Tetrazzini, Caruso and Björling are just a few of the incomparable artists that can be heard in music ranging from 'Your tiny hand is frozen' from Puccini's La Bohème to Bizet's unforgettable 'Pearl Fishers' duet.

CDG 1256
Music for Ballet Lovers
Dance classics

Great classics from the world of ballet and a celebration of elegant dance. Includes musical highlights from Swan Lake, The Nutcracker, La Boutique Fantasque, Sleeping Beauty, Romeo and Juliet and other well-known works.

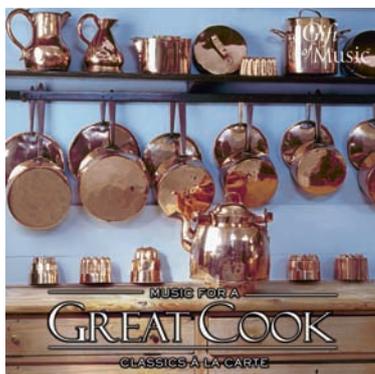

CDG 1202
Music for Wine Lovers
Vintage classics

A glug of opera with a twist of piano and some of the classical world's best-known drinking songs are placed in a soothing ambience of refined melodies. Not much for the nose in this CD, but plenty for the other senses including Mozart and Strauss and even some Brahms and Liszt.

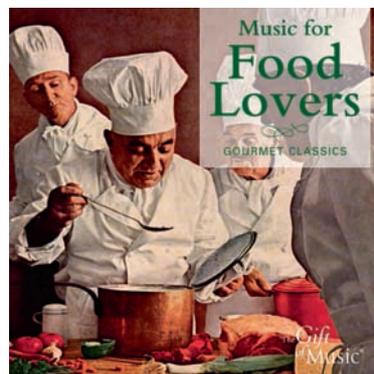

CDG 1106
A Very Fine Cat
A feline celebration in words and music

From the 8th century Pangur Bán to Samuel Johnson's Hodge, 'a very fine cat indeed!', this is a tale of cats from some of the greatest English writers read by Margaret Howard. We've added some feline music too, by Scarlatti, Tchaikovsky and others.

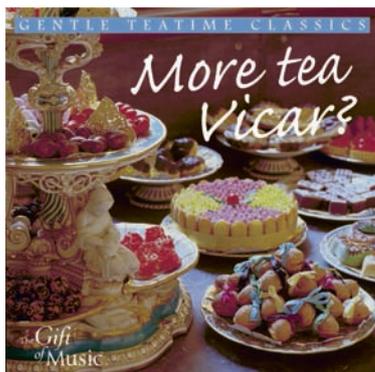

CDG 1133
Music for a Great Cook
Classics à la carte

Cheerful music to cook by, featuring some of the best Baroque music ever! Put this album on in the kitchen, and let the inspiration fall upon you as you chop and grind, boil and fry! Twenty-one tasty tracks to add an extra flavour to your méthode de cuisine!

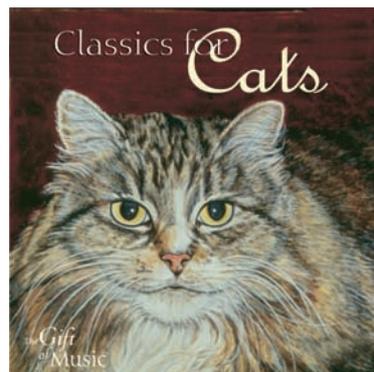

CDG 1266
Music for Food Lovers
Gourmet classics

We all love cooking and eating and we all love listening to music. This CD combines both in a scintillating programme of fine music for dining. Revel in the fine sound of the symphony orchestra, enjoy the sizzle and crackle of great music in a programme to tickle both the ears and the taste buds.

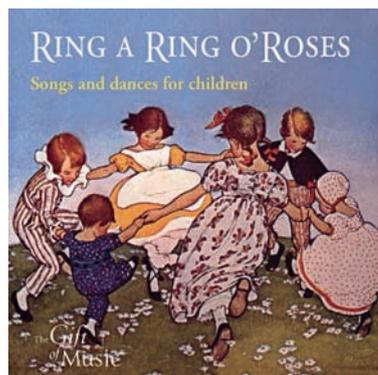

CDG 1135
More tea Vicar?
Gentle teatime classics

Music on the theme of tea, with a hint of coffee thrown in for those who like their caffeine from beans, not leaves! A light-hearted album of old favourites and familiar songs for tongue in cheek listening while sipping the glorious nectar which is tea!

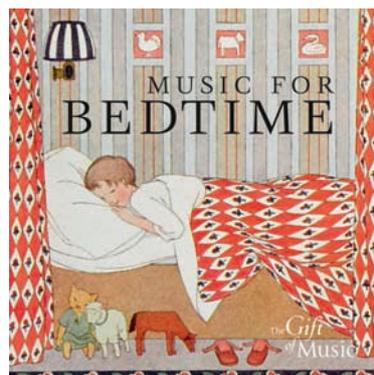

CDG 1038
Classics for Cats

A selection of classical music, including Rossini's incomparable 'Cat Duet', created with cats in mind, and capturing in music the differing personalities of our feline companions. Town Cat and Country Cat, Sleeping Cat and Dreaming Cat can be found here along with many others.

CD 518
Ring a Ring o Roses
Songs & dances for children
 Dances and songs from olden times, plus nursery rhymes with a traditional and old-fashioned flavour. Old English music from the past – famous songs, good rhythms and fine instrumental playing to get those young feet tapping!

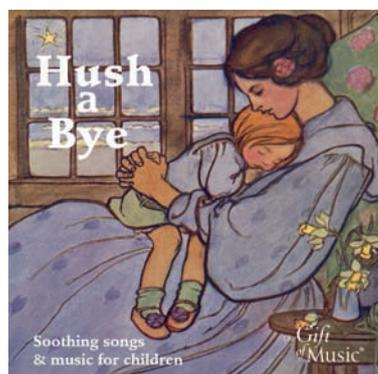

CD 517
Music for Bedtime
 A lovely gentle album of classical music featuring a range of instruments and musical styles. The booklet notes highlight the instruments used so that grownups can familiarise children with them. Composers include Mozart, Beethoven and Debussy and the works are specially chosen for their peaceful quality, which will hopefully bring rest to baby.

CD 506
Teddy Bears' Picnic
Nostalgic children's songs and music
 Children will love this album! A selection of old-fashioned music for children, with more than a hint of nostalgic memories for parents and grandparents. Henry Hall and Uncle Mac join with radio hits of the 50s and piano pieces written specially for children by some of the great composers.

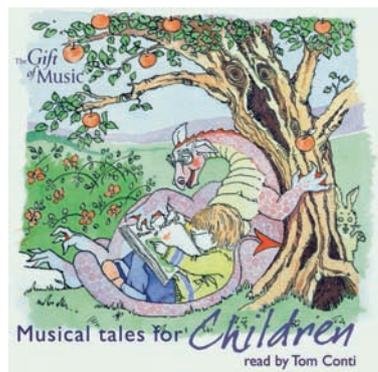

CD 507
Jack, Jill and all their friends
Good old-fashioned nursery songs
 Traditional nursery rhymes and children's songs in new, stylish arrangements using traditional instruments of the past. Lovely tunes, innocent words, and not a synthesiser or artificial drum machine to be heard – just high quality music-making.

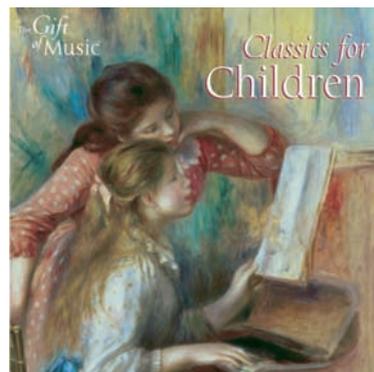

CDG 519
Hush a Bye
Soothing songs and music for children
 Great classical music in gentle bites for the young musician or the young at heart. Mozart, Chopin and folk music combine in a gentle programme which gets ever quieter as the disc progresses providing a sleepy effect for children and adults alike.

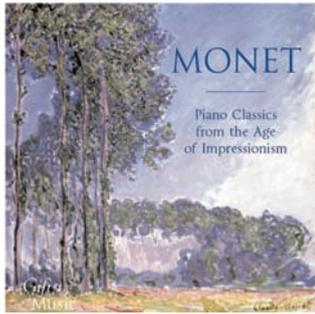

CD 516
All Creatures Great and Small
Music for the animals
 Classical composers clearly loved their animals: here is a programme presenting a variety of creatures – from the elephant and kangaroo to the cat, mouse and frog! The musical styles range from frivolous to funny, and the booklet notes explain the music and how to listen out for the details of tunes and rhythms.

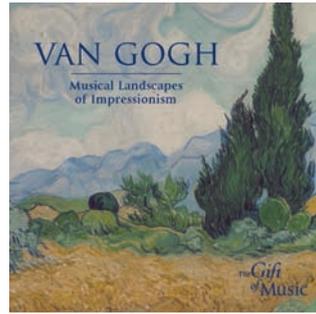

CD 515
Musical Tales for Children
Read by Tom Conti
 Perfect for bedtime: two stories – The Emperor's New Clothes, Oona and the Giant, – plus a fascinating 'Playroom' full of toys with music by Tchaikovsky, all rounded off by the magical tale of 'Babar the Elephant' with subtle and elegant piano music by Francis Poulenc and narration by Kara Wilson.

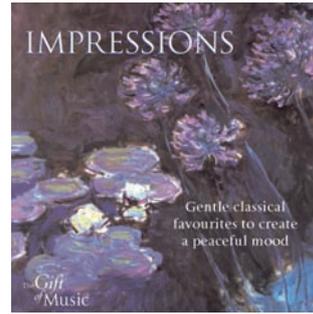

CD 504
Classics for Children
 Beautiful piano music to excite, inspire and encourage, composed with children in mind, from Mozart's variations on 'Twinkle, twinkle, little star' and evocative children's pieces by Debussy, Schumann and others, to minuets and other simple pieces which children often learn to play.
