Descriptions of the (Interactive) Information Villages

Hold On To Your Dreams/NCLB Village

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM

2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

3:00 PM – 4:00 PM

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Michele J. Doughty, NJ Statewide Coordinator will serve as the lead facilitator of this panel and village. She will focus on how states, districts and schools can support parents with information such as notifications, school report cards, written parent policies, school-parent compacts, parents' right-to-know, and Section 1118-building capacity for parental involvement, etc. The concept of holding on to a dream is that all parents hold a dream about their children. Note: Parents will also have the opportunity in this village to take part in a discussion pertaining to Communities of Color: The Achievement Gap between Us from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM and learn about the Philadelphia Core Curriculum from 4:00 – 5:00 PM

My School of Choice Village

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM

3:00 PM – 4:00 PM

This village will provide parents with basic information pertaining to: Charter schools, Private schools, Home schooling, and district schools, etc., including information about important application procedures and dates and numbers to remember. (The leadership of this village will be the responsibility of Sharie Neal (Home schooling), Keisha Hegamin and Alicia Wright (District Schools, Charter Schools, and Private Schools).

Free Tutoring / Supplemental Education Village

2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Find out about local after-school providers and get your questions answered at the Free Tutoring/SES Village. In this village, connect with local state approved providers, obtain information about their programs and participate in workshops that will help you understand your rights as a parent.

Parent Involvement Strategies, Practices, and Models Village

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM

3:00 PM – 4:00 PM

This village will focus on research based parent involvement strategies, practices and models, such as the Parents as Teachers Model. It will also focus on parent organizing and how to increase parent involvement within school communities. Parents will also learn how they can join such groups as the Coalition of Title One Parents, Home and School Councils, State Parent Advisory Councils, BAEO, HCREO, Home School Associations and Support Groups, Young Fathers Rising, Fatherhood Leadership Support Groups, etc.

School Community Support Village

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM

2:00 PM – 3:00 PM

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

According to Ron Paige, Secretary of Education, the answers to all of the problems associated with schools are housed in the community. Parents will find everything from grief support to afterschool programs housed in this village. Throughout the day, representatives from the Franklin Institute will demonstrate what they are learning and how they are keeping busy.
