This presentation offers reflections on the resurrection experiences of the women at the tomb and the apostles including St. Peter and St. Thomas.

The questions posed by Einstein (“is the universe personal or not”) and Jesus Christ (“Who do they say I am?”) will be addressed in this stimulating and thought provoking presentation.

There is no charge although free will offerings are accepted and the Knights of Columbus will be hosting post presentation refreshments.

Each attendee or couple will receive a copy of Dr. Rock’s latest book plus a colorful programme brochure.

PASTOR’S EASTER MESSAGE

Easter is about resurrection - not just resuscitation, not just about coming back from the brink, not just about bouncing back from a difficult situation, not just about a near miss when we've been spared the worst that can happen. In fact, the pre-requisite for resurrection is that the worst - devastating loss and death - happens. And we are changed by the experience. Easter's empty tomb is the blessed hope that the Good Fridays of grief and devastation that we all experience are not the end, but can lead to new, refocused and transformed lives. The "nail marks" do not disappear or are forgotten, but God's wisdom and compassion take hold in our souls. And we are changed.

The empty tomb of Easter morning is God's vindication of his Son's life among us: that no tomb can contain the mercy and hope of God. The work of Easter is to open tombs; to restore life to the lost, the despairing, the forgotten; to free the dead from the shackles of hopelessness.

In the light of Jesus' resurrection, we're able to see ourselves as we really are and confront our failings to be compassionate and our inability to forgive with hope and understanding. Thomas saw reason to let go of his doubt and skepticism in the person of the Risen Jesus. This Easter season, may we see our lives - both our gifts and failings, our certainties and doubts - in the light of Easter hope and grace, to embrace Christ's gift of peace enabling us to forgive and "let go" of our resentments and anger and disappointments in order to re-create our hearts and spirits in the living presence of the Risen One.

The power of resurrection: that the good that exists in something - or someone - given up for dead and consigned to the abyss can be brought to life and endure. What God has done in raising his Son to life, we can do in seeking to imitate his Son's Gospel of justice, reconciliation, compassion, and peace. As the Risen Jesus appears to the Eleven "as flesh and bone," Jesus calls us to be "flesh and bone" witnesses of his resurrection, to be the "flesh and bone" of his compassion and peace for every soul consigned to forgotten graves and cemeteries of failure and rejection.

Wherever and whenever true love is present, resurrection is experienced. In the compassion and peace we are able to extend to those we love and who love us, we become "flesh and bone" signs of the hope and grace of Easter along the Emmaus roads we all walk.

Best wishes and God bless you all during this Easter season!

Rev. Fr. Stephen Liang M.D.
Pastor
