Marinelli by Anna Marinelli

11:00 am For all parishioners

First Reading: Ezekeil is selected by God to be a prophet and messenger to the Israelites. When resisted, Ezekiel is to say: “Thus says the Lord God.” This will show that he is a prophet.

Second Reading: 2 Cor. 12:7-10 Paul is given a “thorn in the flesh.” He asks God for relief and is told that God's grace is sufficient.

Gospel: Mk. 6:1-6 Jesus began to teach in his home synagogue. The people, knowing Mary and Joseph, cannot account for the wisdom of Jesus.

When making your Last Will & Testament remember your parish.

9:00 am † Allan Butler by the family

11:00 am For all parishioners

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15 Amos writes how he was chosen by God to go out and prophesy to the people of Israel.

Second Reading: God chose his followers to be holy, blameless, and filled with love—to be his adopted children in Jesus. In Jesus and through the seal of the Holy spirit, full redemption shall come to humankind.

Gospel: Mk. 6:7-13 Jesus sent out the Twelve, instructing them to take only a staff and to preach the gospel. If they were refused a listening ear, they should leave the locality. They cured many sick people.

There are PAR registration forms at the back of the church for your use. Consider giving monthly donations instead of weekly ones.

9:00 am † Nancy Marie Serrao by her estate

11:00 am For all parishioners

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:42-44 At the command from Elisha, the man of God, the Barley bread was placed before the people, indicating that this comes from the Lord. Even though a hundred ate the bread, some was left over.

Second Reading: Eph. 4:1-6 A life worthy of the Lord consists of humility, gentleness, patience, and bearing with one another in love.

Gospel: Jn. 6:1-15 Jesus told the five thousand to sit down. He took the five barley loaves and a couple of fish, gave thanks, and told the disciples to pass out the food to all.

In the fall we will have a volunteer fair. Rest this summer, enjoy what you enjoy to do and come September think of joining a ministry in your own parish.
