First Reading: Ex. 16:2-4, 12-15, 31a The Israelites begin to grumble, and the Lord promises to rain down bread from heaven and give them quail to eat at twilight. By this they will know that the Lord is God.

Second Reading: Eph. 4:17, 20-24 Paul tells the Ephesians that they must abandon their old pagan ways and acquire a fresh, spiritual way of living—to become new people created according to the likeness of God.

Gospel: Jn. 6:24-35 After feeding the multitude, Jesus and his disciples went across the lake. The people found them, and Jesus cautioned them that they were looking only for signs and food. Jesus says that he is the bread of life. God demands faith in the one he sent.

PARISH OFFICE IS CLOSED Aug. 06

Funeral of Mrs. Freda Beaton will be held on Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. on August 15th. Reception to follow in parish hall. Internment at Beechwood Military Cemetery. The family requested we put an announcement in the bulletin since this is a very small funeral and so that the parishioners who knew her would be able to attend.

9:00 am † In thanksgiving for God's Blessing on Jessica Marinelli by Anna Marinelli

11:00 am For all parishioners

First Reading: 1 Kgs. 19:4-8 Elijah, being discouraged, prayed for death. Twice an Angel came to him and supplied him with food. Strengthened by this food and the word of God, Elijah got up and continued his journey to the mountain of God, Horeb.

Second Reading: Paul directs the Ephesians to be kind, tenderhearted, and forgiving. They are to imitate God as beloved children, and follow the way of love as Christ loved us.

Gospel: Jn. 6:41-51 The people question Jesus' origin, and Jesus tells them that no one can come to him unless drawn by the Father. Those who believe will have eternal life.

11:00 am For all parishioners

First Reading: Prov. 9:1-6 Proverbs directing attention to young men who were to take their places in the royal court speak of food and drink. A diet of wisdom, however, will lead to prudent living, religious wisdom, vision, and moderation.

Second Reading: Christians should be careful to live according to the will of the Lord. They should avoid carefree living and are to give praise and worship to God in the name of Jesus.

Gospel: Jn. 6:51-58 Jesus proclaims that he is the living bread from heaven. Whoever eats of it shall live forever. When the people quarrel about this teaching, Jesus repeats it without any qualification.

9:00 am † Nancy Marie Serrao by her estate

11:00 am For all parishioners

First Reading: Jos. 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b Joshua admonished the Israelites to decide their allegiance to God. They answered that they would serve the God of their ancestors, who delivered them from slavery and protected them.

Second Reading: Eph. 4:32-5:1-2, 21-32 Paul gives specific directives to wives and husbands. Wives are to be submissive to their husbands as the church submits to Christ. Husbands must love their wives as their own bodies. They are to be ever faithful to each other.

Gospel: Jn. . 6:53, 60-69 Jesus emphasizes that to believe in him demands faith—a gift from his Father. Many left Jesus, but Peter, speaking for the Twelve, turned and said, “Lord, to who can we go? You have the words of eternal life.”

We would like to take the opportunity to share some of our IHM's Knights of Columbus successes over the last year!! The Coats for Kids Valentine dance – raised over $750! We did "Some Heavy Lifting " by helping with the setup, take down and by providing some financial support for the IHM Christmas Concert. Having heard some interest, we initiated a Speaker Series. Lastly, we made big efforts to help the K of C Raffle sell out once again! Thank you for letting us help and we are looking forward to doing even more to serve you starting in September. Please enjoy the rest of your summer!

The Adult Choir would like to extend an invitation to anyone who likes to sing to consider joining their group; no prerequisites required! Simply the love of singing and praising/praying God.

The rehearsals are held on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and the group generally sings at the Sunday 11:00 am Mass. The Choir also participates in a few additional events such as the Immaculate Heart of Mary Christmas Concert and retirement home performances.

Please plan to join the first rehearsal of the season to be held on Tuesday September 4th, 2018, with subsequent rehearsals held on Tuesday evenings. For more information, please contact the choir director, Francine at 613-824-9199.
