First Reading: Gen. 2:7ab, 15, 18-24 God, knowing that a man needs companionship, created animals and birds and finally placed Adam in a deep sleep and took one of his ribs, forming a woman. This is why a man leaves his mother and father to become one with this wife.

Second Reading: Heb. 2:9-11 To suffer, Jesus took a human body. In this way God made our leader perfect through suffering, bringing us salvation. All who are consecrated have a common Father.

Gospel: Mk. 10:2-16 or 10:2-12 The Pharisees, knowing the permission of Moses about divorce, test Jesus, but he recalls the reason for the command and reminds them of God's intention for the unity of marriage. Divorce followed by remarriage is adultery. Jesus then speaks about his love for little children.

First Reading: Wis. 7:7-11 To what can Wisdom be compared in value? It is above all desires because in it all good things are found.

Second Reading: Heb. 4:12-13 God's word is penetrating and sharp. Nothing is hidden from God, to whom all must render an account.

Gospel: Mk. 10:17-30 or 10:17-27 A rich man asks Jesus what he must do to be saved. Jesus answers: keep the commandments. The man says that he does. One thing more, then, Jesus lovingly continues: sell what you have and give to the poor. The man left, Jesus added how hard it is for a rich person to get to heaven.
