Second Reading: Rev. 1:5-8 By the shedding of his Blood, Jesus has made us a royal nation of priests to serve God. The Lord God is the Alpha and the Omega—beginning and the end. He is the Almighty.

Gospel: Jn. 18:33b-37 Before Pilate, Jesus states that he is a king but that his kingdom is not of this world. Jesus says that he came into the world to bear witness to the truth.

Give something, however small, to the one in need. For it is not small to one who has nothing. Neither is it small to God, if we have given what we could. Saint Gregory Nazianzen

A little while ago an announcement went into the Citizen urging Catholics to ask the Holy Mother of God to place the Church beneath her protective mantle and to preserve the Church from attacks by the devil, “the great accuser.” The Bishops of Ontario invited all pastors in the dioceses of Ottawa and Cornwall to recite a prayer to Archangel Saint Michael at the end of Mass after the final blessing starting on December 02, first Sunday of Advent and at all Sundays for the next year. The prayer will be distributed next Sunday.
