First Reading: Jer. 1:4-5, 17-19 Jeremiah is called by the Father to be his spokesman. He will be rejected but receives the promise of God that he will support him against his adversaries.

Second Reading: 1 Cor. 12:31-13.13 Love, the virtue of charity, surpasses all. It rises above everything. All gifts will pass away, but the supernatural virtue of love will never fail.

Gospel: Lk. 4:21-30 Jesus is rejected by his own neighbours. They resented his strong reminder of the past rejections of the prophets. In baptism and the sacraments we are united to Jesus. Like him we must bear our crosses.

Donations have been totaled. If you would like to obtain a receipt for income tax purposes please provide a self-addressed stamped envelope (if you can) along with your envelope number and I will send you a tax receipt shortly.

What Love Really Is

Love is patient, love is kind. 1 Corinthians 13:4

This passage from first Corinthians, so popular as a reading for weddings., can easily be passed over as just another sentimental expression of the word "love." But when read slowly and thoughtfully, St. Paul's description of what love is and is not reveals a harder edge than most contemporary uses of the word.

The kind of love Paul describes is not easy to come by, much less display day in and day out. Like its partners of faith and hope, love must be renewed in us continually, not by force of will or fervent study or bold actions, but the grace of God.

Paul wants us to see what love really is, not so we can grasp and possess it, but so that we can recognize, strive after and appreciate it when it shows up in our lives.

Lord Jesus, help me to love as you love us all.
