April 7-13 is National Volunteer Week! This year's theme is The Volunteer Factor - Lifting Communities. A sincere thank you to the many volunteers at Immaculate Heart of Mary parish (IHM) who help "lift" our church community. Volunteers come from all age groups and bring a variety of skills and time commitments to our church. Volunteers at IHM assist with the Mass as Eucharistic ministers, lectors, ushers, singers, musicians and altar servers. Volunteers assist with various ministries such as sacrament preparation and Children's Liturgy. Volunteers come together to lead our youth group, lead the Way of the Cross, organize the Christmas pageant, decorate the church, fund raise and plan events. Volunteers help manage the parish's finances and advise our Pastor.

Our Parish community is stronger thanks to the many volunteers who lift us up, thank you!
