

Biography

Mykah Montgomery is a published author, songwriter, producer, actress, filmmaker, and public speaker. She carries forward a family tradition of artistic innovation, as the granddaughter of the late world renowned jazz pianist and vibraphonist Buddy Montgomery, and grandniece of the legendary late jazz guitarist Wes Montgomery and bassist Monk. Mykah gracefully honors the Montgomery name with sophistication, professionalism, and dignity as the Producer of the Buddy Montgomery Legacy Awards.

Formally with the Polygram/Mercury Records female trio, Emage, she has recorded and or shared the stage with Oscar winner Jamie Foxx, The Backstreet Boys, Brian McKnight, BlackSheep, and Buddy Montgomery and many more. Mykah's musical compositions received rave reviews in the UK and Japan, which peaked at #7 in just 2 weeks after its release.

She is the author of The Little Girl Who Wanted a Tail and Isaiah Wants to Read; books that promote God's love of self and others, a love for reading, and entrepreneurship, for children in pre-kindergarten to 3rd grade. The Little Girl Who Wanted a Tail coupled with its theme song called Different was written and produced by Mykah, introducing her daughter Mylaan Imani on lead vocals. Different Music Video Click Here

The Little Girl Who Wanted a Tail, its theme song Different, Isaiah Wants to Read, and Mykah's executive produced album, ME & U, can be found on iTunes, Amazon.com, bandcamp.com, and www.mykahm.com.