

General Facts about Mykah Montgomery

- Mykah Montgomery is a recording artist, producer, songwriter, and arranger.
- Mykah Montgomery is an actress, filmmaker, and a published author.
- Mykah Montgomery is the author of two published children's books The Little Girl Who Wanted a Tail and Isaiah Wants to Read, and producer of the Little Girl Who Wanted a Tail's theme song "Different" by Mylaan Imani.
- Mykah Montgomery is the granddaughter of the late world renowned jazz pianist and vibraphonist Buddy Montgomery and grandniece of the legendary late jazz guitarist Wes Montgomery and bassist Monk.
- Mykah Montgomery is the Producer of the Buddy Montgomery Jazz Legacy Awards.
- Mykah Montgomery was a member of PolyGram Mercury Records female recording group, Emage.
- Mykah Montgomery's musical journey was featured in [Put Your Dreams First: Handle Your \[entertainment\] Business](#) - Thembisa S. Mshaka (Author), Vanessa Williams (Foreword)
- Mykah Montgomery's debut album is on iTunes, amazon.com, bandcamp.com, and mykahm.com.
- Mykah Montgomery's single, Love is Blind released in the UK, was a smash on the R&B charts, debuting at # 14 and peaking at #7 in just 2 ½ weeks after its release.
- "Love Is Blind" along with two additional songs performed by Mykah, "The Way You Love Me", and "Dream With Me" were featured on the Simply Soul Flava's Compilation CD vol. 1.
- Mykah Montgomery received great reviews for the dance remix of her composition "Little Boy Blue", released in Japan.
- Mykah Montgomery holds an MBA in Executive Management and an MA in Leadership & Humanities.
- Mykah Montgomery is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc and Mocha Moms Inc.
- Mykah Montgomery is a loving mother, a child literacy advocate, and a dedicated Foundation teacher at her church.

