

Devon & Cornwall Centre Caravan & Motorhome Club September 2018 Newsletter

CHAIRLADYS CHATTER

It's that time again another newsletter, so here we are in September and the Autumn chill is in the air.

During the August bank holiday weekend, Dave and I attended the 25th Wessex rally at Frome, unfortunately the weather wasn't very kind at all but we persevered and tried to enter the games provided by the Wessex committee over the weekend.

Saturday night our centre entertained the members with our award-winning performance, a night around the camp fire, well we won 3rd place anyway.

Myself, Dave, Martin & Catherine King and Claire Madge had such a laugh, so thank you to them for really entertaining everyone.

Mike Wills tried to do the fun run, bless him he got out early to take part, and yes he won, as he was the only person that turned up. Well done Mike and THANK YOU.

During the weekend we enjoyed listening to the Caravan and Motorhome club singers, who were very good indeed.

On Sunday evening we watched an excellent juggling magician, sorry you all missed it, he was fantastic followed by dancing to a superb group rounding off the weekend, there was so much to take in but what a great weekend we had.

Now the nominations are out again, ready for the AGM in October at Wooda Farm Park. I must say there is a fantastic entertainment on the Saturday night with Gerri a solo female singer.

So I'm looking forward to seeing you all.
