Merry
Christmas
&
Happy New Year

I can't believe we only have 50 days left in 2016. Talk about a year of many changes. I appreciate the kindness and loyalty that you have shown to me while transitioning to a new salon, Hair Designers Plus, in January. I can honestly say that I know I am blessed to be able to do the job I absolutely love and am very passionate about. I look forward to the changes you challenge me with-new ideas and pictures of desired colors, cuts and styles, and to the fashion and season changes as we evolve your styles to your desired outcome.

In this edition of Your Style...My Expertise, I have quite a bit of information on Holiday specials, new trends and fashions. There is a clearance on the Redken products left on the shelf, to make room for Kenra, which is the line of color and products I will now carry, Pureology will also still be available. I am excited for a wonderful 2017 with all of you. As always if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for taking the time to read this edition of your newsletter.

Changing seasons means changing the regimen of your hair. Conditioning treatments may be needed to add moisture or reconstruct the protein bonds. Fall and winter is the time of changing your wardrobe and hairstyle to something fun and interesting. In this edition of Your Style...My Expertise you will find some of the top trends and ideas for fall/winter 2016 . Reds, coppers, copper reds are the colors of the fall/winter 2016 season. If reds and coppers are not your color, have no fear! Buttery Blondes and rich auburn browns are also in style. A natural, organic look can be achieved with cuts and styles that require less heat styling. Bangs are back in fashion-full bangs with versatility to be side-swept. All versions of bob haircuts are in the mainstream as well as layers, layers and layers. Think “The Rachel” longer and updated. As you read and see new trends and ideas always remember a consultation is the best way to help decide what you want and need to express who you are. Your hair is an expression of you and your personal style. Let me help you express yourself.

CUIVRE

Get ready to see this French word, meaning "copper," all over the place as this shimmery shade gets big in 2016. "The cuivre trend of reflective intense copper is going to be the most popular shade of red in 2016." Think Julianne Moore with amped-up intensity and tons of glossiness.

If being any shade of red or copper is not for you, there are other options that are also fashionable. Buttery, Natural Blondes are in style. Deep Chocolate Brunettes and Bronde (mixture of brown and blonde) are the fashion.

Golden Brown Sombre

Medium Brown to Light Blonde Ombre

A variety of styles, cuts and colors are at your disposal for change, whether this be subtle or drastic. Bobs with layers to add texture, long hair with layers. The wonderful thing about your hair is, it's your greatest accessory. Bangs, center parts, and shaggy layers are all the rise in fashionable hairstyles for the fall and winter of 2016.

- ◆ Keep your hair in optimum style and shape with haircuts to maintain your style every 6 weeks.
- ◆ Cleansing Conditioners are your fashion colors best friend.
- ◆ Dry Shampoo is great for absorbing oils and dirt but not drying your hair out from shampooing every day. You should Shampoo every 2 to 3 days depending on your hair.
- ◆ Rinsing conditioner out of your hair with cooler water will help keep the cuticle closed and conditioner in.
- ◆ Deep Conditioning treatments at the salon every 10-12 weeks also helps keep the long term damage at bay. Bond Reconstructing Treatments are also a good add-on to hair color and highlighting services.
- ◆ Always use a heat protectant when using heat styling tools. Keep exposure to the heat tool to a minimum.
