How it Works

Residents must be clean and sober with a motivation and commitment to grow and change their lives for the better. As such, all residents will be asked to agree to remain in an active recovery program.

It is a house of equals who share in the responsibilities of keeping the home clean and safe for all residents. There are weekly meetings to discuss the home finances, chores and any other issues that may arise. This will help all residents build a home that is strong, safe and happy.
