

Do you want to help your child with maths at home?

Here are some links that will help you, broken down into early years, KS1 and KS2.

<http://www.familymathstoolkit.org.uk/>

Early Years

- BBC CBeebies Numberblocks - sing along and learn all about numbers with the Numberblocks
- BBC CBeebies - 'Help your child be epic at maths' - information for parents and carers about numeracy development from 0-6
- Maths 4 Mums and Dads - explains some of the milestones children achieve between three and 11
- Nrich Maths - includes a range of maths resources (PDFs)
- The National Numeracy Family Maths Toolkit - full of ideas and free activities to help families enjoy maths together
- Oxford Owl - includes a range of top tips and e-books to help children with their maths at home
- 'Count with me' leaflets by Surrey County Council - maths tips for parents of 0-5s

KS1

- Maths 4 Mums and Dads - explains some of the milestones children achieve between three and 11
- The National Numeracy Family Maths Toolkit - full of ideas and free activities to help families enjoy maths together
- Top Marks - lots of games and ideas
- Oxford Owl - includes a range of top tips and eBooks to help children with maths at home
- Nrich Maths includes a range of maths resources (PDFs)
- BBC Bitesize - links to key stage 1 - very useful for revision
- Think Fun - free online games and puzzles for all ages
- Primary Interactive - maths activities including useful money-based resources
- Mathletics - for homework tasks, revision and some assessments - each child has a login and password for this website - not free, though schools or parents can have a paid subscription and monitor progress
- Maths Whizz - virtual online maths tutoring for 5 to 13-year-olds - not free, though schools or parents can have a paid subscription and monitor progress
- Sumdog offers games to make maths fun. There are free games to play with the option to subscribe for extra features
- Basic Mathematics - for children wanting to learn maths online
- Family maths toolkit - activities for children
- Worksheets for Reception
- Worksheets for Year 1
- Worksheets for Year 2

KS2

- Maths 4 Mums and Dads - explains some of the milestones children achieve between three and 11
- The National Numeracy Family Maths Toolkit - full of ideas and free activities to help families enjoy maths together
- Nrich Maths includes a range of maths resources (PDFs)
- BBC Bitesize - links to key stage 2 - very useful for revision
- Crickweb - free online maths games resources for key stage 2 children
- Education Quizzes – key stage 2 revision website - some resources are free but a login and password need to be set up to access the learning materials
- Maths Zone - includes hundreds of links to other websites – most resources are for key stage 2 with some for key stage 3
- Supermaths world - maths games aimed at mostly key stage 2 children – children can log in as a guest or create an account
- Think Fun - free online games and puzzles for all ages
- University of Washington - fun site with a simple overview of how the brain works with games and activities to explore
- Arcademic skill builders – Colourful arcade-style maths games that allow you to compete against each other
- Primary Games Arena - a collection of games from elsewhere on the web that have been rated by users and sorted into suggested year groups
- Primary Interactive - interactive maths activities including useful money-based resources
- Maths Frame - free activities for key stage 2 maths
- Cool Math - maths games website for children with links to sister websites such as coolmaths4kids.com
- Mathletics - for homework tasks, revision and some assessments – each child has a login and password for this website – not free, though schools or parents can have a paid subscription and monitor progress
- Maths Whizz - virtual online maths tutoring for 5 to 13-year-olds - not free, though schools or parents can have a paid subscription and monitor progress
- Mathopolis - includes games and questions to improve basic maths skills
- Basic Mathematics - for children wanting to learn maths online
- Family Maths toolkit – activities for children
- Family Maths worksheets for Year 3
- Family Maths worksheets for Year 4
- Family Maths worksheets for Year 5
- Family Maths worksheets for Year 6