8.1.3. To pay: Internal auditor for annual accounts - £50 in 2017

8.1.4. Skipton Building society. £4.67 interest has been added to the Clubs and Charities account, bringing the balance to £27.65. Council decided to retain this account. This will require removing the former Clerk from the list of signatories and a form with four new signatories to be completed at the July meeting.

Action: the Clerk

9. Correspondence

9.1. Council will not apply to have a Vehicle Activated Speed sign or Speed Indicator Device

9.2. North Yorkshire County Council have cleared a roadside drain on the A61 between Quarry Moor Residential Village and the No. 36 bus stop and consider the issue of roadside parking, mud spread onto the footpath and the footpath flooding after rain closed. There has been no repair to the footpath, and no parking restrictions on a road with double white lines in the centre. NYCC to be contacted again with an image of a car parking on the verge.

Action: the Clerk

9.3. Roundabout magazine has a print run of 300, 99 copies are delivered in Littlethorpe Parish, it is a subscription magazine, and accounts are submitted to the Parochial Church Council. The Parish Council have been asked to contribute £200 per annum towards the costs of the magazine following a decrease in subscribers. A full-page advertisement costs £300 for a whole year. Council would consider a contribution were the magazine delivered to every household in the parish, but will not contribute under the present arrangements.

Response: the Clerk
